See Item 4.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

On May 5, 2003, Mr. Engle, jointly with James A. Coyne, President and Chief Operating Officer of Semele, proposed the acquisition of substantially all of the outstanding shares of Semele Common Stock not beneficially owned by them or their affiliates (Management) for a cash purchase price of $1.20 per share. Management currently contemplates that the acquisition of the shares will take the form of a cash out merger with a newly formed entity controlled by Management (the Buyer) in which substantially all shares will be converted into the right to receive $1.20 per share (subject to applicable withholding taxes), without interest. The Buyer would only consummate the transaction contemplated by the proposal following a favorable recommendation to Semele s stockholders by a Special Committee of Semele s Board of Directors. The proposal is not contingent on any financing conditions.

Depending on the response of the Special Committee to the proposal, and other factors deemed relevant by Management, Management may formulate other plans and/or make other proposals, and take such actions with respect to Management s investment in Semele, as they may determine to be appropriate. Management may also amend or withdraw the proposal at any time in their sole discretion.

The proposal is merely an expression of interest and is not intended to be legally binding in any way. If an offer is made, it will be made in accordance with all applicable securities laws and will involve the filing of appropriate materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the mailing of appropriate materials to the public stockholders of Semele.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As of the date of this statement, Mr. Engle beneficially owns 736,794 shares of Semele Common Stock, representing approximately 35.4% of the outstanding shares of Semele Common Stock, Hato beneficially owns 63,544 shares of Semele Common Stock, representing approximately 3.1% of the outstanding shares of Semele Common Stock, Dove beneficially owns 61,673 shares of Semele Common Stock, representing approximately 3.0% of the outstanding shares of Semele Common Stock, and Larkfield beneficially owns 73,483 shares of Semele Common Stock, representing approximately 3.5% of the outstanding shares of Semele Common Stock. The shares beneficially owned by Mr. Engle include 1,100 shares owned directly, 82,140 shares owned by the trustee of a rabbi trust for the benefit of Mr. Engle, which represent salary deferred by Mr. Engle through December 31, 2000, 454,854 shares owned indirectly through a family corporation controlled by Mr. Engle and the aggregate of 198,700 shares owned by Hato, Dove and Larkfield, which Mr. Engle is deemed to beneficially own because he has effective control over those partnerships. Mr. Engle disclaims beneficial ownership of all the shares he owns indirectly through the family corporation, except to the extent that he has a pecuniary interest in such shares under Section 16(a) of the Act. Mr. Engle disclaims beneficial ownership of all the shares owned by Hato, Dove and Larkfield, except to the extent that he has a pecuniary interest in such shares under Section 16(a) of the Act. Hato disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares of Semele Common Stock owned by Mr. Engle, Dove or Larkfield, Dove disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares of Semele Common Stock owned by Mr. Engle, Hato or Larkfield and Larkfield disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares of Semele Common Stock owned by Mr. Engle, Hato or Dove.

Mr. Engle has the sole power to vote and dispose of, or to direct the vote and disposition of, the 455,954 shares of Semele Common Stock owned by him directly and indirectly through the family corporation. Mr. Engle has the sole power to vote or to direct the vote of the 82,140 shares of Semele Common Stock owned by the trustee of the rabbi trust, and no power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such shares. Because Mr. Engle has effective control over Hato, Dove and Larkfield, he may be deemed to have the sole power to vote and dispose of, or to direct the vote and disposition of, the 198,700 shares of Semele Common Stock owned by those partnerships. Each of Hato, Dove and Larkfield has the sole power to vote and dispose of, or to direct the vote and disposition of, the shares of Semele Common Stock owned by it.

There have been no transactions in Semele Common Stock by any Reporting Person, or, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, by any of the other persons identified in Item 2 above, during the 60-day period prior to the date of this statement.

Except for the respective partners comprising each of Hato, Dove and Larkfield, the trustee of the rabbi trust for the benefit of Mr. Engle and the stockholders of the family corporation, no other person is known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from the Semele Common Stock owned by any Reporting Person. Except for the respective partners comprising each of Hato, Dove and Larkfield, the trustee of the rabbi trust for the benefit of Mr. Engle and the stockholders of the family corporation, no other person is known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of the proceeds from the sale of the Semele Common Stock owned by any Reporting Person.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Of the shares beneficially owned by Mr. Engle, 82,140 shares are held by the trustee of a rabbi trust for the benefit of Mr. Engle. These shares represent Mr. Engle's salary from Semele through 2000, which he elected to defer. Shares in the rabbi trust attributable to Mr. Engle's salary are not subject to forfeiture. Shares in the rabbi trust attributable to any bonus from Semele deferred by Mr. Engle are forfeited and returned to Semele if Semele terminates Mr. Engle's employment for cause. Shares held in the rabbi trust for the benefit of Mr. Engle will be distributed to him on termination of employment, except that if Semele Common Stock is not then readily tradeable, Semele will redeem the shares in installments within three years at fair market value.

Semele Group Inc.

Re: Proposed Acquisition of Semele Group Inc.

Dear Messrs. Auch, Ungerlieder and Bartlett:

We are pleased to propose the acquisition of substantially all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Semele Group Inc. (the "Company") not beneficially owned by us or our affiliates ("Management") for a cash purchase price of $1.20 per share (the "Per Share Amount"). The last reported sale of Semele's common stock was $0.91.

It is currently contemplated that the acquisition of such shares would take the form of a cash out merger with a newly formed entity controlled by Management (Buyer) where substantially all shares will be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Amount (subject to applicable withholding taxes), without interest. Buyer and Semele would only consummate the transaction contemplated by our proposal following a favorable recommendation to the Company s shareholders by a Special Committee of the Board of Directors. The proposal is not contingent on any financing conditions.

We request that the Special Committee of the Board of Directors, together with its financial and legal advisors, proceed to evaluate the fairness of this proposal for purposes of the Special Committee making a recommendation with respect to the proposal. We are prepared to meet with you and your financial and legal advisers at your convenience to review our proposal at the earliest possible date.

Depending on the response of the Special Committee to this proposal, and other factors deemed relevant by us, we may formulate other plans and/or make other proposals, and take such actions with respect to our investment in the Company, as we may determine to be appropriate. We may also amend or withdraw this proposal at any time at our sole discretion.

Our proposal is merely an expression of interest and is not intended to be legally binding in any way. If an offer were to be made, it would be made in accordance with all applicable securities laws and would involve the filing of appropriate materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the mailing of appropriate materials to the public shareholders of the Company.

Please be advised that we intend to disclose this proposal in an amendment to our Schedule 13D relating to shares of the Company's common stock currently owned by our affiliates, and us as required by law.

We appreciate your consideration of this proposal and look forward to your response.

Very truly yours,
Gary D. Engle
James A. Coyne
