INFORMATION REGARDING THE ANNUAL MEETING

Proposals. At the Annual Meeting, our stockholders will be asked:

to vote upon the election of two members to our Board of Directors to serve a three-year term as Class II directors (Proposal No. 1);

to authorize the Proposed Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation to decrease the par value of our common stock from $1.00 to $0.01 per share (Proposal No. 2); and to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as our independent accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002 (Proposal No. 3); to vote on any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Record Date; Quorum. Only holders of record of common stock as of the close of business on September 8, 2003, the record date, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, there were 94,034,947 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, held by approximately 6,594 stockholders of record, with each share entitled to one vote.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Except with respect to broker non-votes, the consequences of which are described below, shares of common stock represented by proxies marked "ABSTAIN" for any proposal presented at the Annual Meeting and shares of common stock held by persons in attendance at the Annual Meeting who abstain from voting on any such proposal will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be voted for or against such proposal. Shares as to which a broker indicates it has no discretion to vote on any proposal and which are not voted will be considered not present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will not be voted for or against any proposal.

Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be required to elect each of the Class II directors to our Board of Directors pursuant to Proposal No. 1. With respect to

Edgar Filing: METROMEDIA INTERNATIONAL GROUP INC - Form PRE 14A

Proposal No. 1, the election of directors, abstentions and broker non-votes will be disregarded and will have no effect on the vote.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon will be required to approve and adopt Proposal No. 2. With respect to Proposal No. 2, the authorization to amend the Certificate of Incorporation to decrease the par value of our common stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the proposal.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be required to approve and adopt Proposal No. 3. With respect to Proposal No. 3, the ratification of the selection of our independent accountants, abstentions will have the effect of a vote against the proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on such proposal.

Stockholders who hold their shares through an intermediary must provide instructions on voting as requested by their banks or brokers. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by one or more inspectors of election appointed by our Board of Directors. These inspectors of election will also determine whether a quorum is present for the transaction of business.

Proxies. All properly executed proxy cards delivered pursuant to this solicitation and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the directions given. In voting by proxy with regard to the election of directors, our stockholders may vote in favor of all nominees, withhold their votes as to all nominees or withhold their votes as to specific nominees. With regard to Proposals No. 2 and No. 3 our stockholders may vote in favor of the proposal or against the proposal or may abstain from voting on the proposal. Stockholders should specify their respective choices on the accompanying proxy card.

If no specific instructions are given with regard to the matters to be voted upon, the shares of common stock represented by a signed proxy card will be voted "FOR" Proposal No. 1, "FOR" Proposal No. 2, and "FOR" Proposal No. 3 listed on the proxy card. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote upon such matters according to their judgment.

You may change your proxy instruction at any time prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting. For shares held directly in your name, you may accomplish this by granting a new proxy bearing a later date (which automatically revokes the earlier proxy) or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not cause your previously granted proxy to be revoked unless you specifically so request. For shares owned beneficially by you, you may accomplish this by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or nominee. All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to revocations of proxies should be addressed to: Metromedia International Group, Inc., 505 Park Avenue, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Secretary.

Proxies will initially be solicited by us by mail, but directors, officers and regular full time, management level employees may solicit proxies from stockholders personally or by telephone, facsimile or other forms of communication. Such directors, officers and employees will not receive any additional compensation for such solicitation. We will also request brokerage houses, nominees, fiduciaries and other custodians to forward soliciting materials to beneficial owners, and we will reimburse such persons for their reasonable expenses incurred in doing so. All expenses incurred in connection with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by us.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL NO. 1, "FOR" PROPOSAL NO. 2 AND "FOR" PROPOSAL NO. 3 TO BE PRESENTED TO STOCKHOLDERS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

Our common stock is quoted on the Pink Sheets, under the symbol "MTRM." On October 1, 2003, the closing sale price for our common stock was $0.14 per share.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Directors

Our Board of Directors, which presently consists of seven members, is divided into three classes. The Class II directors were elected for a term expiring at this Annual Meeting, the Class III directors were elected for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2004, and the Class I directors were elected for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2005. Members of each class hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. At each succeeding Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the successors of the class of directors whose term expires at that meeting will be elected by a plurality vote of all votes cast at such meeting and will hold office for a three-year term. The Class II directors, whose terms expire at this Annual Meeting, are I. Martin Pompadur and Leonard White. The Class III directors, whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2004, are Clark A. Johnson and John S. Chalsty. The Class I directors, whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2005, are Stuart Subotnick, Alan K. Greene and Mark S. Hauf.

The Board has nominated both Mr. Pompadur and Mr. White for re-election as Class II directors at this Annual Meeting.

John P. Imlay resigned as a director of the Company effective June 2002.

Oren G. Shaffer resigned as a director of the Company effective September 2002. Mr. Shaffer was nominated by the Company's Board of Directors as a Class I director of the Company pursuant to an agreement dated May 2002 ("Nomination Agreement"), between the Company and

Elliot Associates, L.P. and Elliott International, L.P. (collectively, "Elliott"), which are collectively the beneficial owners of approximately 4% of the Company's common stock. Under the Nomination Agreement with Elliott, the Company agreed, among other things, that, until (but not including) our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in 2005, if Mr. Shaffer ceased to be a director for any reason (other than his voluntary resignation combined with a written statement from Elliott waiving its rights to nominate candidates to such Board seat), the Company would promptly take action to appoint or elect a person designated by Elliott and reasonably acceptable to the Company. The Company further agreed that, once elected to its Board of Directors, the Elliott designee would be removed only in accordance with the Company's currently existing by-laws and applicable Delaware law. Each of Elliott Associates, L.P. and Elliott International, L.P. agreed that it would not commence a proxy contest, or solicit proxies or written consents of stockholders of the Company's common stock, or become a "participant" in an election contest for Board seats at the Annual Meeting in 2002 and would refrain from submitting and stockholder proposals with the Annual Meeting. Upon Mr. Shaffer's resignation, Alan K. Greene was appointed as a director of the Company, effective October 2002.

Mr. John W. Kluge resigned his position as a director in December 2002.

Mr. Carl C. Brazell resigned his positions as Chairman of the Board of Directors, President and Chief Executive Officer with the Company on February 25, 2003 and was replaced by Mark S. Hauf, a Class I director who was elected Chairman of the Board of Directors in February 2003. Mr. Brazell continued as a director of the Company until his resignation in April 2003.

For more information regarding each of our directors, including biographical information, see "PROPOSAL NO. 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS."

Meetings and Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors held 17 meetings during fiscal year 2002 and took action by unanimous written consent one time. All incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the aggregate total number of meetings of our Board of Directors and all committees of our Board of Directors on which they served. The Board of Directors has delegated certain functions to the following standing committees:

The Executive Committee. The executive committee is authorized to exercise, to the extent permitted by law, all of the powers of our Board of Directors in our management and affairs. The executive committee took action by unanimous written consent two times in fiscal year 2002. The current members of the executive committee are Messrs. Hauf and Subotnick.

The Audit Committee. The Board has adopted a written charter for its audit committee, which provides that the audit committee is responsible for, among other things:

reviewing the professional services and independence of our independent auditors and the scope of the annual external audit recommended by the independent auditors;

ensuring that the scope of the annual external audit is sufficiently comprehensive;

reviewing, in consultation with our independent auditors and our finance and accounting departments, the plan and results of the annual external audit and the adequacy of our internal control systems; and reviewing with management and our independent auditors our annual and quarterly financial statements, financial reporting practices and the results of such external audit.

The audit committee met five times during fiscal year 2002. Each of the members of the audit committee is an independent director as defined by Section 121(A) of the AMEX's listing standards. The audit committee is composed of three non-employee directors who are financially literate in financial and auditing matters and are independent as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The current members of the audit committee are Messrs. Greene, Johnson and White. The chairman of the Audit committee is Mr. White.

The Compensation Committee. As set forth in our Compensation Committee Charter, the compensation committee's functions include reviewing, approving, recommending and reporting to our Board of Directors on matters specifically relating to the compensation of our executive officers and other key executives and to administer our stock option plans. The compensation committee met twice during fiscal year 2002 and took action by unanimous written consent twice. The compensation committee is comprised entirely of independent directors. The current members of the compensation committee are Messrs. Greene, Johnson, Pompadur and White.

The Nominating Committee. The nominating committee's principal function is to identify candidates and recommend to our Board of Directors nominees for membership on our Board of Directors. The nominating committee expects normally to be able to identify from its own resources the names of qualified nominees, but it will accept from stockholders recommendations of individuals to be considered as nominees, provided that the procedures specified in our by-laws are followed. These procedures provide that, in order to nominate an individual to our Board of Directors, a stockholder must provide timely notice of such nomination in writing to our Corporate Secretary and a written statement by the candidate of his or her willingness to serve. Such notice must include the information required to be disclosed in solicitations for proxies for election of directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, along with the name, record address, class and number of shares of common stock beneficially owned by the stockholder giving such notice. To be timely, notice must be received by us not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of our Annual Meeting for the preceding year, unless the date of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, in which case such notice must be received within ten days following public disclosure by us of the date of the Annual Meeting at which directors are to be elected. Any such nominations should be submitted in writing to Metromedia International Group, Inc., 505 Park Avenue, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Secretary. The nominating committee did not meet during fiscal year 2002. The current members of the nominating committee are Messrs. Chalsty and Johnson.

During fiscal year 2002, we have entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Hauf, Pyle, Mosner and Elledge.

Hauf Employment Agreement. Mr. Hauf's employment agreement, dated as of January 28, 2002, as amended on February 25, 2003, provides for an employment term through January 27, 2004. The base salary under the agreement is $450,000 per annum. In addition, Mr. Hauf is eligible for an additional bonus, as may be awarded from time to time by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Hauf's employment agreement also provides for other employee benefits such as the use of an apartment in the Moscow area, tuition reimbursement for his child's private school up to $25,000 per annum, life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits.

Mr. Hauf's employment agreement can be terminated by us immediately with "cause", in which case he shall receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination. "Cause" is defined in the employment agreement as including (i) the commission by Mr. Hauf of an act of fraud or dishonesty or his having been convicted of a serious crime; and (ii) the commission by Mr. Hauf of any material breach of, or, after having been given warning in writing, any repeated or continued breaches of, any of his duties under the employment agreement.

If Mr. Hauf's employment is terminated by us for other than "cause" or Mr. Hauf's disability, then we are required to give Mr. Hauf one month's notice of such termination and pay him an amount equal to his annual salary and benefits. Mr. Hauf may elect to earlier terminate his employment agreement by providing the Company with six months' notice of such termination.

In addition, Mr. Hauf has the right to terminate the employment agreement upon one month's notice in the event of a "change of control" of the Company (as defined in his employment agreement). In such circumstances, Mr. Hauf would be entitled to receive an amount equal to his salary and benefits for one year.

Mr. Hauf has agreed to not compete with us for a period of three months following termination of his employment.

Mr. Hauf entered into a new employment agreement with the Company on October 5, 2003, and below are the key terms and conditions of the employment agreement:

Mr. Hauf's New Employment Agreement.

Mr. Hauf's new employment agreement, dated as of October 5, 2003, shall remain in force until terminated either by the Company or by Mr. Hauf. The first five years of the agreement are the "initial term." The base salary under the agreement is $550,000 per annum. In addition, Mr. Hauf is eligible for an additional discretionary bonus as may be awarded by the compensation committee. Mr. Hauf's employment agreement also provides for other employee benefits such as the use of an apartment in the Moscow area, tuition reimbursement for his child's private school up to $25,000 per annum, life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits.

The Company can terminate Mr. Hauf's employment agreement due to his death or disability, in which case he (or his estate) is entitled to receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination.

We can terminate Mr. Hauf's employment agreement with "cause," in which case he is entitled to receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination. "Cause" is defined in the employment agreement to include inter alia (i) Mr. Hauf's willful misconduct or gross negligence relating to the Company, (ii) continued failure to perform his material duties as Chief Executive Officer, or (iii) the conviction of a felony. Prior to terminating Mr. Hauf's employment with "cause," the Company has to give Mr. Hauf a 30-day notice of the grounds for the proposed termination and allow Mr. Hauf 15 days to cure such grounds if cure is possible.

The Company can also terminate Mr. Hauf's employment without cause upon a vote of the majority of the Board of Directors and with 30 days' prior notice. If such termination occurs during the five-year initial term, the Company shall pay Mr. Hauf his base salary for the remainder of the initial term, provided that such amount shall not be less than the greater of (i) twenty-four months of base salary or (ii) two months of base salary for every year of service with the Company. If such termination occurs after the initial term, the Company shall pay Mr. Hauf an amount equal to the greater of (i) twenty-four months of base salary or (ii) two months of base salary for every year of service with the Company.

Mr. Hauf may terminate his employment with the Company at any time upon six months' prior notice. Such voluntary termination shall be not considered a breach of the employment agreement and Mr. Hauf shall be entitled to receive salary and benefits through the date of termination.

Edgar Filing: METROMEDIA INTERNATIONAL GROUP INC - Form PRE 14A

Mr. Hauf may also terminate his employment with the Company for "good reason" following a written notice from him to the Company describing the basis for termination and the Company's thirty-day cure period. "Good reason" is defined in the agreement to include inter alia (i) material diminution in Mr. Hauf's duties or authorities, (ii) a change in the reporting structure, or (iii) the appointment of a person whose authority is substantially similar or senior to Mr. Hauf's. In the event Mr. Hauf elects to terminate his agreement for "good reason," his severance shall be paid on the same terms as in Company termination without cause.

If within twelve months following an event of change of control (as defined in the agreement), the Company or any successor shall terminate Mr. Hauf's agreement for any reason other than his death, disability or cause or if Mr. Hauf shall terminate the agreement for "good reason," the Company or its successor shall pay Mr. Hauf a lump-sum amount which is the greater of (i) three years of his base salary or (ii) the amount payable in the event of termination without cause.

Mr. Hauf has agreed to not compete with us for a period of one year following termination of his employment.

Brazell Employment Agreement. Mr. Brazell's employment agreement, dated as of November 14, 2001, provided for an employment term through December 31, 2003. The base salary under the agreement was $600,000 per annum, with a fixed bonus of $100,000 payable in each of September 2002 and September 2003. In addition, Mr. Brazell was eligible for an additional bonus, as was awarded from time to time by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Brazell's employment agreement also provided for other employee benefits such as life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits. In addition, subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee, the agreement provided for Mr. Brazell to receive stock options to purchase an aggregate of 750,000 shares of the Company's common stock; these options were granted in November 2001. Upon a termination of the agreement by us these options would have become immediately exercisable by Mr. Brazell.

In March of 2003, Mr. Brazell and the Company entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release of All Claims, pursuant to which the Company agreed to pay to Mr. Brazell an aggregate sum of $532,000 in lieu of all rights of Mr. Brazell concerning his employment, including under his employment agreement.

Pyle Employment Agreement. Mr. Pyle's employment agreement, dated as of February 19, 2002, provides for an employment term through February 19, 2004. The base salary under the agreement is $300,000 per annum. In addition, Mr. Pyle is eligible for an additional bonus, as may be awarded from time to time by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Pyle's employment agreement also provides for other employee benefits such as life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits. In addition, subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee, the agreement provides for Mr. Pyle to receive stock options to purchase an aggregate of 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock; these options were granted in February 2002. Mr. Pyle is also entitled to reasonable commuting related expenses from his current home to New York (including reasonable weekly airfare to and from his current home and lodging expenses while in New York) and this amount is subject to gross-up for taxes.

Mr. Pyle's employment agreement can be terminated by us immediately with "cause", in which case he shall receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination. "Cause" is defined in the employment agreement as including (i) the commission by Mr. Pyle of an act of fraud or dishonesty or his having been convicted of a serious crime or been guilty of gross misconduct; and (ii) the commission by Mr. Pyle of any material breach of, or, after having been given warning in writing, any repeated or continued breaches of, any of his duties under the employment agreement.

If Mr. Pyle's employment is terminated by us for other than "cause" or Mr. Pyle's disability, then the terminating party is required to give to the other party six months' notice of such termination. In our discretion in such circumstances, we can elect to pay Mr. Pyle his salary for such period in a lump sum, upon which the employment agreement will terminate immediately.

In addition, Mr. Pyle has the right to terminate the employment agreement upon one month's notice (i) in the event of a "change of control" of the Company (as defined in his employment agreement) or (ii) if the Company hires an employee in a financial capacity who is to have a position senior in the Company to Mr. Pyle's position. In such circumstances, Mr. Pyle would be entitled to receive an amount equal to his salary and benefits for one year.

Mr. Pyle has agreed to not compete with us for a period of three months following termination of his employment.

As part of its restructuring efforts, the Company terminated Mr. Pyle's employment effective August 31, 2003. Mr. Pyle entered into a retention agreement with the Company in accordance with the Company's KERP, dated March 27, 2003. The retention agreement provides that Mr. Pyle will receive a retention benefit payment of $150,000 payable on March 31, 2003 and a severance payment of $150,000 payable thirty days after the earlier of the termination date specified in under the retention agreement (August 31, 2003) or the date he is otherwise terminated without "cause." In addition, the retention agreement provides Mr. Pyle with the notice of termination required under his employment agreement and therefore Mr. Pyle will not receive any additional payments under his employment agreement with respect to his termination. Mr. Pyle entered into several extensions of his retention agreement, through September 30, 2003, as the Company and he negotiated the new terms of his employment.

Mr. Pyle entered into a new employment agreement with the Company on October 6, 2003, and below are the key terms and conditions of the employment agreement:

Mr. Pyle's New Employment Agreement.

Mr. Pyle's new employment agreement, dated as of October 6, 2003, shall remain in force until terminated either by the Company or by Mr. Pyle. The first three years of the agreement are the "initial term." The base salary under the agreement is $350,000 per annum. In addition, Mr. Pyle is eligible for an additional discretionary bonus as may be awarded by the compensation committee. Mr. Pyle's employment agreement also provides for other employee benefits such as life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits. Until such time as the Company finalized the move of its headquarters to Charlotte, NC, Mr. Pyle is also entitled to reasonable commuting related expensed from his home to New York (including reasonable weekly airfare and lodging expenses while in New York) and this amount is subject to gross-up for taxes.

The Company can terminate Mr. Pyle's employment agreement due to his death or disability, in which case he (or his estate) is entitled to receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination.

We can terminate Mr. Pyle's employment agreement with "cause," in which case he is entitled to receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination. "Cause" is defined in the employment agreement to include inter alia (i) Mr. Pyle's willful misconduct or gross negligence relating to the Company, (ii) continued failure to perform his material duties as Chief Financial Officer, or (iii) the conviction of a felony. Prior to terminating Mr. Pyle's employment with "cause," the Company has to give Mr. Pyle a 30-day notice of the grounds for the proposed termination and allow Mr. Pyle 15 days to cure such grounds if cure is possible.

The Company can also terminate Mr. Pyle's employment without cause upon a vote of the majority of the Board of Directors and with 30 days' prior notice. If such termination occurs during the three-year initial term, the Company shall pay Mr. Pyle his base salary for the remainder of the initial term, provided that such amount shall not be less than the greater of (i) twelve months of base salary or (ii) one month of base salary for every year of service with the Company. If such termination occurs after the initial term, the Company shall pay Mr. Pyle an amount equal to the greater of (i) twelve months of base salary or (ii) one month of base salary for every year of service with the Company.

Mr. Pyle may terminate his employment with the Company at any time upon sixty-days' prior notice. Such voluntary termination shall be not considered a breach of the employment agreement and Mr. Pyle shall be entitled to receive salary and benefits through the date of termination.

Mr. Pyle may also terminate his employment with the Company for "good reason" following a written notice from him to the Company describing the basis for termination and the Company's thirty-day cure period. "Good reason" is defined in the agreement to include inter alia (i) material diminution in Mr. Pyle's duties or authorities, (ii) a change in the reporting structure, or (iii) the appointment of a person in a financial capacity whose authority is substantially similar or senior to Mr. Pyle's. In the event Mr. Pyle elects to terminate his agreement for "good reason," his severance shall be paid on the same terms as in Company termination without cause.

If within twelve months following an event of change of control (as defined in the agreement), the Company or any successor shall terminate Mr. Pyle's agreement for any reason other than his death, disability or cause or if Mr. Pyle shall terminate the agreement for "good reason," the Company or its successor shall pay Mr. Pyle (i) during the three-year initial period a lump-sum amount equal to three years of his base salary or (ii) after the three-year initial period a lump-sum amount equal to two years of his base salary.

Mr. Pyle has agreed to not compete with us for a period of one year following termination of his employment for any reason other than termination by the Company without cause or by him for good reason.

Mosner Employment Agreement. On June 4, 2002 Mr. Mosner notified the Company that he was terminating his employment with the Company pursuant to the terms of his prior employment agreement, dated as of November 14, 2001 with the Company. Pursuant to his prior employment agreement, Mr. Mosner was entitled to receive, and did receive, $200,000.

Mr. Mosner's employment agreement also provided for other employee benefits such as life insurance, health care and certain disability benefits.

If Mr. Mosner's employment were terminated by us following a "change of control" of the Company (as defined in his employment agreement), then Mr. Mosner would have been entitled to receive an amount equal to his annual salary.

In February 2003, Mr. Mosner's employment was terminated by the Company without cause as part of the Company's overall restructuring and cost reduction program.

In July 2003, Mr. Mosner and the Company entered into a Separation and General Release Agreement, pursuant to which the Company paid an aggregate sum of $120,000 in lieu of all rights of Mr. Mosner concerning his employment, including under his employment agreement.

Mr. Elledge's employment agreement also provides for other employee benefits such as reimbursement for all necessary and reasonable business expenses he incurs in the performance of his duties, including, without limitation, all business travel related expenses, reimbursement for reasonable costs of one trip to or from his home per month for either him or his spouse (not to exceed economy class airfare between New York and North Carolina), reimbursement for temporary living expenses in New York of up to $2,000 per month and a gross up for taxes for such living and travel expenses.

Mr. Elledge's employment agreement can be terminated by us immediately with "cause", in which case he shall receive salary and benefits only through the date of termination. "Cause" is defined in the employment agreement as including (i) the inability of Mr. Elledge to appear at his customary place of work and/or fully and properly perform his duties, and has been so prevented for a continuous period of at least 90 days or for an aggregate period of at least 120 days in the preceding six months; (ii) the commission by Mr. Elledge of an act of fraud or dishonesty or his having been convicted of a serious crime or been guilty of gross misconduct; (iii) the commission by Mr. Elledge of any material breach of, or, after having been given warning in writing, any repeated or continued breaches of, any of his duties under the employment agreement; (iv) the commission by Mr. Elledge of any act which materially and adversely affects his ability to carry out his duties, and (v) the failure, after having been

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Relationship with Metromedia Company.

Metromedia Company and its affiliates are collectively the Company's largest stockholder, beneficially holding 19,050,994 shares of the Company's common stock, representing approximately 20.3% of the Company's outstanding common stock at December 31, 2002. The Company is party to certain agreements and arrangements with Metromedia Company and its affiliates, the material terms of which are summarized below.

Consulting Agreement. Metromedia Company provided certain consulting services to the Company on an hourly basis as requested by the Company in the areas of tax, legal and investor relations pursuant to a Consulting Services Agreement ("CSA") that became effective on January 1, 2002. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company paid Metromedia Company a consulting fee of $0.8 million pursuant to the CSA. In early September 2002, the existing CSA between the Company and Metromedia Company was amended to provide that the term of the CSA would continue in effect until September 15, 2002 and would continue, thereafter unless and until Metromedia Company or the Company provided written notice of termination to the other party, whereupon the CSA would immediately terminate. Metromedia Company has not given any notice of termination as of the date of filing of this Proxy Statement.

The services provided by Metromedia Company pursuant to the CSA have been provided as requested by us and have been invoiced to us at agreed-upon hourly rates. There is no minimum required level of services. We have also been obligated to reimburse Metromedia Company for all of its out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred and advances paid by Metromedia Company in connection with the agreement. Pursuant to the agreement, we agreed to indemnify and hold Metromedia Company harmless from and against any and all damages, liabilities, losses, claims, actions, suits, proceedings, fees, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incident to any suit, proceeding or investigation of any kind) imposed on, incurred by or asserted against Metromedia Company in connection with the agreement, other than those in any way relating to or resulting from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Metromedia Company, its employees, consultants or other representatives.

Prior to January 1, 2002, the Company was party to a management agreement ("Management Agreement") with Metromedia Company, pursuant to which Metromedia Company provided the Company with management services, including legal, insurance, payroll and financial accounting systems and cash management, tax and benefit plans. Under the Management Agreement, the Company paid Metromedia Company approximately $3.8 million for each of the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000.

Trademark License Agreement. We are party to a license agreement with Metromedia Company, dated November 1, 1995 as amended on June 13, 1996 and in early September 2002, pursuant to which Metromedia Company has granted us a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable right and license, without the right to grant sublicenses, to use the trade name, trademark and corporate name "Metromedia" in the United States and, with respect to Metromedia International Telecommunications, Inc., worldwide, royalty-free for a term of 10 years. This license agreement may be terminated by Metromedia Company upon three months prior written notice to the Company or, upon the occurrence of certain specified events, upon one month's prior written notice by Metromedia Company to the Company.

In addition, Metromedia Company has reserved the right to terminate the license agreement in its entirety immediately upon written notice to us if, in Metromedia Company's sole judgment, our continued use of "Metromedia" as a trade name would jeopardize or be detrimental to the goodwill and reputation of Metromedia Company.

Pursuant to the License Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify and hold Metromedia Company harmless against any and all losses, claims, suits, actions, proceedings, investigations, judgments, deficiencies, damages, settlements, liabilities and reasonable legal (and other expenses related thereto) arising in connection with the license agreement.

We believe that the terms of each of the transactions described above were no less favorable to us than could have been obtained from non-affiliated parties.

Indemnification Agreements

In accordance with Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, pursuant to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company has agreed to indemnify its officers and directors against, among other things, any and all judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlements and expenses paid or incurred by virtue of the fact that such officer or director was acting in such capacity to the extent not prohibited by law.

We have entered into indemnification agreements with certain directors. These indemnification agreements provide for indemnification of such directors to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by law. They also provide for:

advancement by us of expenses incurred by the director in defending certain litigation;

the appointment in certain circumstances of an independent legal counsel to determine whether the director is entitled to indemnification; and the continued maintenance by us of directors' and officers' liability insurance which currently consists of $15 million of primary coverage.

The indemnification agreements were approved by our stockholders at our 1993 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of our outstanding common stock, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission initial reports of beneficial ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership of our common stock. Such officers, directors and stockholders are required by the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission to furnish us with copies of all reports that they file under Section 16(a). Based on our records and other information, the Company believes that the required Section 16(a) reports in 2002 for our directors, executive officers and beneficial holders of 10% or more were timely filed, except that a Form 3 report was inadvertently filed late for Dean Elledge.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors consists of Messrs. Johnson, White, Pompadur and Greene. Mr. Imlay was a member of the Compensation Committee until his resignation from his position as a director of the Company. Mr. Shaffer replaced him as a member of the Compensation Committee from his nomination and until his resignation from his position as a director of the Company. Mr. Greene replaced him as a member of the Compensation Committee upon his appointment as a director. The Compensation Committee is comprised entirely of independent directors and is responsible for developing and making recommendations to our Board of Directors with respect to our executive compensation policies.

Compensation Committee Report on Compensation

The following report of the compensation committee discusses our executive compensation policies:

Background. The Board of Directors created the Compensation Committee (the "Compensation Committee") to have the responsibility for implementing and administrating the Company's compensation policies and programs for its executive officers.

Compensation Policies.

The Company's compensation policies for executive officers are designed to (a) provide competitive compensation packages that will attract and retain superior executive talent, (b) link a significant portion of compensation to financial results, so as to reward successful performance, and (c) provide long-term equity compensation, to further align the interests of executive officers with those of stockholders and further reward successful performance. The principal components of the Company's executive officer compensation program are base salary, annual cash incentive awards and grants of stock options.

Base Salary.

Base salaries for the Company's executive officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, including any annual or other adjustments, are based upon recommendations by the Chief Executive Officer, taking into account such factors as competitive industry salaries, a subjective assessment of the nature of the position and the contribution and experience of the officer and the length of the officer's service. The current base salaries for Messrs Pyle and Elledge have been set in their respective employment agreements with the Company.

Stock Options.

The Compensation Committee administers the Company's Incentive Stock Plan. The Compensation Committee believes that the grant of stock options will motivate executives to create long-term growth in shareholder value. Pursuant to our 1996 Stock Option Plan, options are granted at the discretion of the Compensation Committee periodically. The number of option shares covered by such grants is determined based upon assessment of the individual's performance. The Compensation Committee considers the recommendation of and relies on information provided by our Chief Executive Officer in determining the number of option shares to be granted to the non-CEO executive officers. The Compensation Committee believes that the periodic grant of time-vested stock options provides an incentive that focuses the executives' attention on managing the business as owners of an equity stake in the Company. It further motivates executives to maximize long-term growth and profitability because value is created in the options only as our stock price increases after the option is granted.

In 2002, the following options were granted to Company executives:

Matthew Mosner, the Company's former Senior Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel, was granted stock options to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $.36 per share. These options have expired.

Harold F. Pyle, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, was granted stock options to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $.36 per share.

Delaware law requires that the Company not issue shares, including those issued under the Incentive Stock Plan, at a price below par value. Although the aforementioned stock options were granted at an exercise price below par value, the grantees will purchase the related shares at par value, in order to comply with Delaware law. The Company is obligated to reimburse the grantees for the difference between the par value of the shares purchased and the exercise price at the date of the stock option grant.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation.

The Company's compensation agreement with its Chief Executive Officer is designed to retain superior executive talent, and the discretionary bonus option links a significant portion of compensation to financial results, so as to reward successful performance and to further align the interests of CEO with those of stockholders and further reward successful performance.

As the current Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Hauf is compensated pursuant to an employment agreement entered into as of January 28, 2002, which was amended on June 26, 2002 and further amended on February 25, 2003. Mr. Hauf's term of employment extends through January 27, 2004, subject to earlier termination under certain specified circumstances. Mr. Hauf's employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $450,000.00 plus annual discretionary bonuses. In 2002, Mr. Hauf did not receive any stock option grants. Subsequent to the date of this compensation committee report, Mr. Hauf entered into a new employment agreement with the Company on October 6, 2003.

Mr. Carl Brazell was the Company's Chief Executive Officer during fiscal year 2002. His employment agreement provided for an annual base salary of $600,000.00 plus annual discretionary bonuses. In 2002, Mr. Brazell was not awarded any stock options by the Company. Mr. Brazell resigned as Chief Executive on February 25, 2003 and was replaced by Mr. Hauf.

Personal Income Tax Reimbursement.

Senior executives receive reasonable commuting and other fringe related expenses and the Company reimburses those executives or grosses-up those amounts in order to defray the personal income tax effect of such payments.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m).

One of the factors the Compensation Committee considers in connection with compensation matters is the anticipated tax treatment to us and to the executives of the compensation arrangements. The deductibility of certain types of compensation depends upon the timing of an executive's vesting in, or exercise of, previously granted rights. Moreover, interpretation of, and changes in, the tax laws and other factors beyond the Compensation Committee's control also affect the deductibility of compensation. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee will not necessarily limit executive compensation to that deductible under Section 162(m) of the Code. The Compensation Committee will consider various alternatives to preserving the deductibility of compensation payments and benefits to the extent consistent with its other compensation objectives.

The foregoing report of the Compensation Committee shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate such information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

Of the Board of Directors as of August 13, 2003

PROPOSAL NO. 2 AUTHORIZATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF THE RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The Board is asking that the stockholders approve an amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation that will reduce the par value of the Company's common stock from $1.00 to $.01. For your reference, a copy of the proposed Certificate of Amendment to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, is Annex A.

"Par value" is a dollar value assigned to shares of capital stock by the corporation's incorporators. There is no minimum or maximum value requirement for par value under Delaware corporation law, and the Board believes the current practice of public companies is to have shares with no par value or nominal par value (such as $0.01 per share). However, under current Delaware law and notwithstanding the fact that par value has limited significance, once a par value is assigned to the shares of capital stock of a Delaware corporation, such corporation cannot issue shares of capital stock for a consideration having a value below par.

Since the average quoted price for the Company's common stock is substantially below the current par value attributed to such stock (On October 1, 2003, the closing sale price of our common stock was $0.14 per share and the par value of our common stock is currently set forth at $1.00 per share), the Board has determined that such par value restricts the Company's ability to (i) pursue its restructuring strategy, which may involve the issuance by the Company of shares of common stock or options to purchase such shares, and (ii) incentivize management, as the Company may not issue stock in respect of options with an exercise price for the underlying shares of common stock below par, including with respect to options previously granted to management. The Board recommends that the par value per share of common stock be reduced to $.01 to allow the Board greater flexibility in setting the consideration that may be paid for its issuance of shares of common stock or securities exercisable for or convertible into shares of common stock.

In addition, reducing par value of the Company's common stock may decrease the Company's franchise taxes depending on the method of calculating franchise taxes used by the Company. A reduction in the par value of the Company's common stock will not otherwise affect the rights of the Company's stockholders.

As a result of the reduction in par value, on the effective date of the reduction in par value, the stated par value capital on the Company's balance sheet attributable to the common stock will be reduced to 1/100th of its present amount and the additional paid-in capital account shall be credited with the amount by which the stated capital is reduced. The per share net income or loss and net book value per share of common stock will not be affected.

The reduction of the par value of the Company's common stock will become effective upon the filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware of the Certificate of Amendment. It is expected that this filing will take place on or shortly after the date of the Annual Meeting.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon will be required to approve and adopt Proposal No. 2.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT OF THE RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION IN THE FORM ATTACHED AS EXHIBIT A TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT.

PROPOSAL NO. 3 RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Board of Directors has appointed the firm of KPMG LLP, independent auditors, to audit our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, subject to ratification by our stockholders. KPMG LLP audited our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

A partner of KPMG LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, to be provided with an opportunity to make a statement and to be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements by KPMG LLP for fiscal year 2002 and for the reviews of the financial statements included in our Forms 10-Q for the fiscal year 2002 were $2,865,500.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees. KPMG LLP provided no professional services to us of the nature described in Paragraph (c)(4)(ii) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

All Other Fees. The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by KPMG LLP other than the audit fees were $463,185. Such services encompassed audit related services including audits for the Company's disposition of Snapper, statutory reporting requirements and tax consulting services.

The audit committee has considered whether the provision of such services by KPMG LLP is compatible with maintaining auditor independence and has determined that it is.

If our stockholders do not ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as our independent auditors for the forthcoming year, such appointment will be reconsidered by the audit committee and our Board of Directors.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be required to approve and adopt Proposal No. 3.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF KPMG LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS OF OUR CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2003.
