INFORMATION STATEMENT FOR STOCKHOLDERS

The Board of Directors of eNotes Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("eNotes" or the "Company") is furnishing this INFORMATION STATEMENT to shareholders in connection with a majority action of shareholders (the "Action") of eNotes taken on November 2, 2006, in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law. These stockholders collectively own in excess of the required majority of the outstanding voting securities of eNotes necessary for the adoption of the action. The following matter was approved:

THE ACTION TAKEN BY THE STOCKHOLDERS WAS TO: APPROVE THE AMENDMENT OF OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE CORPORATION S NAME TO VERIDIGM, INC.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY. PLEASE DO NOT SEND IN ANY OF YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES AT THIS TIME.

This Information Statement is first being mailed on or about November 19, 2006. This Information Statement constitutes notice to eNotes's stockholders of corporate action by stockholders without a meeting as required by the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The date of this Information Statement is November 08, 2006.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: What am I being asked to approve?

A: You are not being asked to approve anything. This Information Statement is being provided to you solely for your information. Stockholders holding a majority of the outstanding voting common stock of eNotes (the "Majority Stockholders") have already agreed to approve:

THE AMENDMENT OF OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE CORPORATION'S NAME TO VERIDIGM, INC.

Q: Why have the Board of Directors and the Majority Stockholders agreed to approve this action?

A: eNotes had an initial corporate focus primarily in the collection, management and facilitated sharing of medical records and information. As the Company has grown, we have expanded our service offering to facilitate e-health solutions by providing easy access to real-time multi-specialty collaboration, consultation, telediagnostic image transfer and analysis, electronic medical records, education, patient visits, and home health monitoring. This expanded business focus and enhanced offering is better described in a corporate name that reflects the Company's more comprehensive telemedicine solutions. The board of directors feels that the name Veridigm will give potential customers a better sense of the expansive technological offering that the company is developing, rather than focusing more narrowly on medical records, as the name eNotes might imply. The board of directors believes that changing the name of the Company to Veridigm, Inc. will provide for stronger and clearer brand positioning in the marketplace.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Outstanding Shares and Voting Rights

On November 2, 2006 (the "Record Date"), eNotes had 65,685,989 outstanding shares of common stock with a par value of $0.0001 per share. These are the securities that would have been entitled to vote if a meeting was required to be held. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote. The outstanding shares of common stock at the close of business on the Record Date for determining stockholders who would have been entitled to notice of and to vote on the amendments to eNotes' Certificate of Incorporation, were held by approximately 400 stockholders of record. In connection with the various matters outlined in this Information Statement, eNotes' Board of Directors and a majority of its shareholders, by written consent in lieu of a shareholders meeting, have agreed to:

APPROVE THE AMENDMENT OF OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE THE CORPORATION'S NAME TO VERIDIGM, INC.

The principal effect of this action will be to have the Company conduct its business under a different name.

Approval of this action requires the affirmative consent of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of eNotes. Majority Stockholders holding a total of 34,500,000 shares of common stock (51.76%), have already agreed to this action.

Approval of the Name Change. The proposed change of eNotes name to "Veridigm, Inc." is intended to convey more clearly a sense of eNotes business. eNotes had an initial corporate focus primarily in the collection, management and facilitated sharing of medical records and information. As the Company has grown, we have expanded our service offering to facilitate e-health solutions by providing easy access to real-time multi-specialty collaboration, consultation, telediagnostic image transfer and analysis, electronic medical records, education, patient visits, and home health monitoring. This expanded business focus and enhanced offering is better described in a corporate name that reflects the Company's more comprehensive telemedicine solutions. The name eNotes Systems, Inc. tends to focus the Company's brand on electronic medical records, which are only a part of the telemedicine service offering eNotes wishes to have associated with its brand. Approval of the name change requires the affirmative consent of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of eNotes. Majority Stockholders holding a total of 34,500,000 shares of common stock (51.76%), have already agreed to this action.

Record Date

The close of business on November 2, 2006 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive this Information Statement.

Expenses of Information Statement

The expenses of mailing this Information Statement will be borne by eNotes, including expenses in connection with the preparation and mailing of this Information Statement and all documents that now accompany or may hereafter supplement it. It is contemplated that brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward the Information Statement to the beneficial owners of the common stock, held of record by such persons, and that eNotes will reimburse them for their reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Interest of Certain Persons in Matters to Be Acted on

No director, executive officer, nominee for election as a director, associate of any director, executive officer or nominee or any other person has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, through security holdings or otherwise, in any action covered by the related resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors and the Majority Stockholders, which is not shared by all other stockholders.

AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Name Change

The proposed amendment to eNotes Certificate of Incorporation will cause eNotes to change its name to "Veridigm, Inc." On filing of the Amendment to the Certificate of Amendment with the Delaware Secretary of State, the name change will be effective.

General

Edgar Filing: eNotes Systems, Inc. - Form DEF 14C

The foregoing amendments will become effective on the opening of business on the twenty first day following the mailing of the Definitive Stockholders Information Statement to eNotes stockholders. Any executive officer, as required by the Delaware Law, is entitled to execute and file the Certificate of Amendment with the Secretary of the State of the State of Delaware and such other agencies or entities as may be deemed required or necessary.

Following the name change, the share certificates you now hold will continue to be valid. In the future, new share certificates will be issued bearing the new name, but this in no way will effect the validity of your current share certificates. Certificates bearing our new name will be issued in due course as old share certificates are tendered for exchange or transfer to our transfer agent: Manhattan Transfer Registrar Co., P.O. Box 361, Holbrook, New York 11741, (631) 585-7341.
