As part of its overall compensation program, Boston Scientific Corporation (the "Company") grants various awards to its executive officers, key employees and non-employee directors under the Company's 1995, 2000 and 2003 Long-Term Incentive Plans (the "Plans"). The Plans have been approved by the Company's stockholders and are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Forms of grant agreements for Non-Qualified Stock Option, Restricted Stock and Deferred Stock Unit awards to executive officers and other key employees are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively. Forms of grant agreements for Non-Qualified Stock Option, Restricted Stock and Deferred Stock Unit awards to non-employee directors are also attached hereto as Exhibits 10.5, 10.6 and 10.7, respectively.

The Company's Performance Incentive Plan which provides an annual cash bonus opportunity for salaried personnel including executive officer is based upon the level of achievement of quarterly Company and individual objectives. Corporate achievement is measured on a quarterly basis against sales and profitability goals through a matrix of revenue and net income objectives. Individual achievement for an executive officer is measured by comparing the performance of the strategic corporate functions for which each executive officer is responsible against the business plan of the Company. The Executive Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") of the Company in accordance with its charter reviews and recommends to the Board the performance-based annual bonuses under the Plans for each executive officer. Also in accordance with its charter, the Compensation Committee reviews and evaluates the goals and objectives of the Chief Executive Officer and determines and approves the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. A form of the Company's Performance Incentive Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.8.
