Furthermore, we have not had a common stockholder propose a nominee to our Board of Directors nor have we paid any third party a fee to assist us in the process of identifying or evaluating candidates for our Board of Directors. A copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee charter can be found on our website at www.innovogroup.com under our Investor Relations heading.

Based solely on a review of copies of such forms furnished to us and certain of our internal records, or upon written representations from officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners that no Form 5 was required, we believe that during the year ended November 25, 2006, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors, officers and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were satisfied on a timely basis.

Mr. Crossman was appointed Interim CEO in January 2006 and in May 2006, the Interim title was removed. At the May 12, 2006 meeting of the Compensation and Stock Option Committee, Mr. Crossman's annual salary of $375,000 was approved.

(2) This amount represents amounts paid in connection with health insurance premiums in excess of health insurance benefits provided to other non-executive officers and employees for the year (or partial year of employment in the case of Mr. Quiroga in fiscal 2004).

(3) This amount represents our matching contributions to Messrs. Crossman's and Quiroga's contributions pursuant to our 401(k) Plan consistent with the matching contribution for all other participants.

(4) Mr. Furrow's annual salary was increased to $400,000 from $300,000 after the June 9, 2005 meeting of the Compensation and Stock Option Committee. Mr. Furrow's employment was terminated by our Board of Directors at its meeting on January 10, 2006 to be effective on January 20, 2006. In connection with the termination of employment, we paid Mr. Furrow a severance payment in the amount of $400,000 pursuant to a Separation Agreement.

Mr. Furrow was awarded a bonus payment for our performance in the third and fourth quarters of fiscal 2004; however, his fourth quarter bonus payment was made in March 2005, but is reported with his 2004 compensation. Mr. Furrow was awarded a bonus payment for our performance in our second quarter of fiscal 2005 that was paid in July 2005.

Mr. Quiroga's annual salary was increased to $225,000 after the June 9, 2005 meeting of the Compensation and Stock Option Committee. Mr. Quiroga's title was changed to Senior Vice President of Finance in May 2006.

Employment Contracts, Termination of Employment and Change in Control Arrangements

We have not entered into any employment or severance agreements with any of our Named Executive Officers. All options granted pursuant to our 2004 Plan contain a change in control provision, which provides for the immediate vesting in full of all grants or lapse of all restrictions for all grantees.

Stock Option Grants

The following table sets forth the stock options we granted during the fiscal year ended November 25, 2006 to each of our named executive officers. We have never granted any stock appreciation rights.

Amounts shown as potential realizable values are based on compounded annual rates of share price appreciation of five and ten percent over the 10-year term of the options, as mandated by rules of the SEC, and are not indicative of expected share price performance. Actual gains, if any, on share option exercises are dependent on future performance of the overall market conditions, as well as the option holders' continued employment through the vesting period. The amounts reflected in this table may not necessarily be achieved or may be exceeded. The indicated amounts are net of the option exercise price but before taxes that may be payable upon exercise.

Option Grants in the Fiscal Year Ended November 25, 2006

Individual Grants	Number of Securities Underlying Options Granted (#)	% of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year (1)	Exercise or Base Price ($/Sh)(2)	Expiration Date	Potential Realizable Value at Assumed Annual Rates of Stock Price Appreciation for Option Term (3)
					5% ($)	10% ($)
Marc B. Crossman	1,000,000	95	% $ 1.02	03/25/13	$ 420,000	$ 960,000

Samuel J. Furrow, Jr.

Richard A. Quiroga

(1) The exercise price per share of options granted represented the fair market value of the underlying shares of common stock on the date the options were granted.

(2) The total number of options granted to employees during the year ended November 25, 2006 was 1,050,000 as a result of the Compensation and Stock Option Committee's decision to directly amend the option price for employee's existing options rather than grant new options.

(3) As required under the SEC's rules, amounts represented by hypothetical gains that could be achieved for the respective option if exercised at the end of the option term. These gains are based on assumed rates of stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% compounded annually from the date the respective options were granted to their expiration date. These assumptions are not intended to forecast future appreciation of our stock price. The potential realizable value computation does not take into account federal or state income tax consequences of option exercises or sales of appreciated stock. If our stock price does not actually increase to a level above the applicable exercise price at the time of exercise, the realized value to the Named Executive Officers from these options will be zero.

Fiscal Year End Option Values

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to stock options exercised by the Named Executive Officers during the fiscal year ended November 25, 2006. In addition, the table sets forth the number of shares covered by unexercised stock options held by the Named Executive Officers as November 25, 2006, and the value of in-the-money stock options, which represents the positive spread between the exercise price of a stock and the market price of the shares subject to such option as of November 25, 2006.

Aggregated Option Exercises in Fiscal Year Ended November 25, 2006 and Fiscal Year End Option Values

Name	Shares Acquired on Exercise (#)	Value Realized ($)	Number of Securities Underlying Unexercised Options at FY-End (#)		Value of Unexercised In-the-Money Options at FY-End $(1)
			Exercisable	Unexercisable	Exercisable	Unexercisable
Samuel J. Furrow, Jr.	0	$ 0	600,000	0	$ 0	$ 0

(1) Value of unexercised in-the-money options at fiscal year end is calculated based on a closing price per share of $0.67 for our common stock on November 24, 2006, as reported by the NASDAQ Capital Market, less the per share exercise price multiplied by the number of shares issuable upon exercise of the option.

401(k) Plan

On December 1, 2002, we established a tax qualified defined contribution 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan. All employees who have worked for us for thirty consecutive days may participate in the 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and may contribute, subject to statutory limits, up to 100% of their salary to the plan. Our elective matching contributions may be made on a discretionary basis. All employees who have worked 500 hours qualify for profit sharing in the event at the end of each year we decide to do so. Costs of the Plan charged to operations for administrative fees, in actual numbers, were $13,000, $4,300, and $8,000 for fiscal 2006, 2005 and 2004, respectively.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During fiscal 2006, the Compensation and Stock Option Committee of our Board of Directors, or Compensation Committee, was comprised of Messrs. Savage, Hoffman, O Riordan and Rizvi. The Compensation Committee is responsible for determining the salaries and incentive compensation of our executive officers and for providing recommendations for the salaries and incentive compensation of all other employees and consultants. The Compensation Committee also administers our benefit plans, including the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan. Mr. Savage serves as Chairman of the Compensation Committee. None of our past or current members of the Compensation Committee has served as an executive officer or employee of Innovo Group. In January of 2004, Mr. Furrow, one of our former executive officers and a member of our Board of Directors, became a member of the Board of Directors for Varsity Media Group Inc., privately held a new media company dedicated to teenagers, of which Mr. Hoffman currently serves as its Chief Executive Officer. Varsity does not have a separate compensation committee. Mr. Hoffman did not participate in any discussions related to compensation for Mr. Furrow during fiscal 2006. We do not believe that this relationship in any manner affects Mr. Hoffman's ability to act as an independent director. Further, one member of our Compensation Committee, Mr. Rizvi, entered into a transaction with us to sublease, at our current market rate, certain previously leased office space for an entity that he owns. See Related Parties 9000 Sunset Office Space Sublease for a further discussion of this transaction.

Compensation of Directors

For fiscal 2006 and pursuant to our 2004 Stock Incentive Plan, each non-employee director received a grant of options to purchase up to 75,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $1.02 per share. These options were vested in full on the date of grant and expire ten years from the date of grant. The exercise price was set at the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDERS MATTERS

The following table provides information as of March 23, 2007 concerning beneficial ownership of common stock held by (1) each person or entity known by us to beneficially own more than 5% of our outstanding common stock, (2) each of our directors and nominees for election as a director, (3) each of our named executive officers, and (4) all of our directors and executive officers as a group. The information as to beneficial ownership has been furnished by our respective common stockholders, directors and executive officers, and, unless otherwise indicated, each of our common stockholders has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares beneficially owned. Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities.

Unless indicated below, to our knowledge, the persons and entities named in the table below have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to all shares beneficially owned, subject to community property laws where applicable. Pursuant to the rules of the SEC, certain shares of our common stock that a beneficial owner set forth in this table has a right to acquire within 60 days of the date hereof (pursuant to the exercise of options or warrants for the purchase of shares of common stock) are deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of that owner, but are not deemed outstanding for the purpose of computing percentage ownership of any other beneficial owner shown in the table. Percentages are calculated based on 41,177,801 shares outstanding as of March 23, 2007. The address for the officers and directors is our corporate office located at 5901 South Eastern Avenue, Commerce, California, 90040.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCECertain Relationships and Related Transactions

Any material transaction between us and persons or entities affiliated with officers, directors or principal common stockholders of our company are on terms no less favorable to us than reasonably could have been obtained in arms length transactions with independent third parties. All transactions between us and related parties must be approved by our Audit Committee.

Commerce Investment Group and affiliates

We have a strategic relationship with certain of our stockholders, Hubert Guez, Paul Guez and their affiliated companies, including Azteca Production International, Inc., or Azteca, AZT International SA de CV, a Mexico corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Azteca, or AZT, and Commerce Investment Group LLC, or Commerce. By virtue of this relationship, we have entered into the following agreements, at various times, with Hubert Guez, Paul Guez, Azteca, AZT and/or Commerce.

The following table represents charges from the affiliated companies pursuant to our relationship with them, including our discontinued operations, as follows:

	(in thousands)

Continuing Operations - Purchase Order Arrangement

We utilize AZT as a supplier on a purchase order basis for certain of our Joe's® denim products. Under this arrangement, we advance the funds to purchase raw materials, which primarily includes fabric, anticipated for production of its products. We pay AZT for the production cost less credit for the advances on raw materials. We purchase these products from AZT in various stages of production from partial to completed finished goods.

Continuing Operations - Verbal Facilities Arrangement

Until mid-July 2006, we utilized space for our headquarters and principal executive offices under a verbal month-to-month arrangement with Azteca. Under this arrangement, we paid to Azteca a monthly fee for allocated expenses associated with our use of office and warehouse space, including a fee charged on a per unit basis for inventory, and expenses in connection with maintaining such office and warehouse space. These allocated expenses included, but were not limited to, rent, security, office supplies, machine leases and utilities. In mid-July 2006, we moved our headquarters and principal executive offices to nearby office and warehouse space thereby terminating our obligation to pay Azteca under the verbal facilities arrangement.

Discontinued Operations - Supply Agreement/Purchase Order Arrangements

In July 2003, under an asset purchase agreement, or Blue Concept APA, with Azteca, Hubert Guez and Paul Guez, our Innovo Azteca Apparel, Inc., or IAA, subsidiary acquired the Blue Concept Division of Azteca, a division which sold denim apparel primarily to American Eagle Outfitters, Inc., or AEO. Simultaneous with the Blue Concept APA, IAA entered into a non-exclusive Supply Agreement with AZT for the purchase of denim products to be sold to AEO, which expired on July 17, 2005. Under the terms of the Supply Agreement, AZT agreed that the purchase price on the products supplied would provide for a margin per unit of 15%. After the expiration of the supply agreement, we continued to utilize AZT as a supplier on a purchase order basis for our AEO products under similar terms. Upon completion of the sale of IAA's private label division to Cygne Designs, Inc., or Cygne, Cygne assumed $2,500,000 of the amount owed to AZT under this purchase order supply arrangement.

Discontinued Operations - Earn-out Due to Sweet Sportswear LLC

The Blue Concept APA also provided for the calculation and payment, on a quarterly basis, to Sweet Sportswear LLC, an entity owned by Hubert and Paul Guez, of an amount equal to 2.5% of the gross sales solely attributable to AEO. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement with Cygne, Cygne assumed the future liability associated with this payment.

Discontinued Operations - Principal and Interest on Note Payable

We originally incurred long-term debt in connection with the purchase of the Blue Concept Division from Azteca. In July 2003, IAA issued a seven-year unsecured, convertible promissory note in the principal amount of $21.8 million, or the Blue Concept Note. The Blue Concept Note bore interest at a rate of 6% and required payment of interest only during the first 24 months and then was fully amortized over the remaining five-year period. On March 5, 2004, after stockholder approval, a portion of the Blue Concept Note was converted into 3,125,000 shares of common stock at a value per share of $4.00. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement with Cygne, Cygne assumed the remaining principal balance of the Blue Concept Note. On May 12, 2006, pursuant to the closing of the transaction, Azteca released us from any and all remaining obligations under the Blue Concept Note and it has been reclassified as a discontinued operation liability. Under the terms of the original asset purchase agreement, in addition to the shares previously issued, we issued on May 17, 2006 an additional 1,041,667 shares of our common stock as a result of our average stock price trading at less than $3.00 per share for the period between February 10, 2006 and March 12, 2006. This share issuance has been recognized in the Statement of Stockholders' Equity.

Discontinued Operations - Craft and accessories Supply and Distribution Agreement

In August 2000, we entered into a supply agreement and a distribution agreement for our craft products with Commerce. In connection with the sale of the craft inventory and certain other assets of our Innovo subsidiary in May 2005, both the supply agreement and the distribution agreement were terminated.

Aggregate balances by entities

As of November 25, 2006 and November 26, 2005, respectively, the balances due (to) or due from these related parties and certain of their affiliates are as follows:

Upon completion of the sale of our private label division to Cygne, Cygne assumed the aggregate liability in the amount of $2,500,000 owed to Commerce and its affiliates. The balance due to Commerce represents the adjusted balance remaining that we continue to be obligated for after the completion of the transaction with Cygne. The balance of $5,000 due to Cygne represents the amount we owe to Cygne as a result of certain chargebacks granted by Cygne on our behalf to former customers.

9000 Sunset Office Space Sublease

On March 3, 2006, our Audit Committee approved a related party transaction whereby we would be permitted to sublease, at our current rate, our executive office space to an entity owned by Suhail Rizvi, one of our directors on a month-to-month basis. We believe that this transaction is in our best interest, as we attempt to reduce our expense associated with lease commitments.
