ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On February 21, 2008, L Oreal USA S/D, Inc. ( L Oreal ) filed a lawsuit in California state court naming, among others, SD Hair, Ltd. and Hair of Nevada, LLC (collectively, SD Hair ), franchisees of our subsidiary Armstrong McCall division ( AMLP ) of our Beauty Systems Group LLC ( BSG ) business unit, as defendants. The suit alleges, among other things, that SD Hair has breached its franchise agreement with AMLP by diverting (selling) Matrix branded products to unauthorized buyers, and that L Oreal is entitled to make claims against SD Hair under the franchise agreement as a third-party beneficiary of that agreement. The suit also alleges, among other issues, that SD Hair induced AMLP to breach its agreement to distribute Matrix branded products in some unspecified manner. Neither Sally Beauty Holdings, Inc. (the Company ) nor any of its subsidiaries (including AMLP) is a defendant in the lawsuit filed by L Oreal.

Apart from the lawsuit, L Oreal has claimed that AMLP franchisees have been diverting L Oreal products, including Matrix branded products, to unauthorized buyers. L Oreal has threatened to terminate AMLP s exclusive distribution contract with L Oreal for Matrix products in the event that, among other things, AMLP does not correct this alleged diversion activity. AMLP has a program in place to periodically audit its franchisees for diversion-related activities. As a result of this program, we have terminated our relationship with certain franchisees and restricted the sales activities of others. In addition we have, jointly with L Oreal, retained an independent accounting firm to audit various AMLP franchisees to determine whether certain franchisees are involved in diversion. We do not believe there is a basis for L Oreal to terminate AMLP s exclusive distribution contract with L Oreal for Matrix branded products. In the event L Oreal seeks to terminate its exclusive distribution contract with AMLP regarding Matrix products, by litigation or otherwise, we will vigorously oppose such termination.

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 are scripted Questions and Answers (Q&A), dated February 25, 2008, to be used by the Company when discussing these developments with representatives of the financial community.
