On January 8, 2009, thinkorswim Group Inc. sent the following email to customers of thinkorswim:

Hi Swimmers! Happy New Year!!

To start off 2009, I want to bring you some exciting news about our future.

We've been going strong for almost a full decade now, delivering what we believe is the best trading platform and service in the industry. As a small company, we've gone through some major changes in that time, and view all of them as positive for our clients. It was only a matter of time until a larger company recognized us as a great value. We want to let you know that TD AMERITRADE has agreed to buy thinkorswim and make our trading platform available to their customers. They are impressed by our trading know-how, technological edge and commitment to make each customer a smarter trader. That's what we bring to the table. Once the deal is completed, you'll have access to TD AMERITRADE's range of features, such as:

- 24/7 client account service in addition to our continuing thinkorswim support.
- Extensive independent research and web-based investment tools.
- A nationwide branch network, strong balance sheet and better cash management tools and tax software features.

- A broad range of investment products, including an expanded mutual fund list and expanded bond and Treasury offerings.

Together, we hope to deliver more educational content, further enhance our trading platforms, and be a leading provider of brokerage services. TD AMERITRADE will work to leverage thinkorswim's capabilities, and Scott Sheridan and I will continue to lead thinkorswim through the close of the deal, and will then manage the active trading platforms for the combined company. You will continue to get the same, great trading software and support from your favorite Swimmers.

For more information, please see the attached letter from TD AMERITRADE, press release and FAQ. If you have questions, please feel free to call thinkorswim Support at 866-839-1100 from Monday through Thursday from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. CT and from 6:00 a.m. CT to 5:00 p.m. CT on Fridays. Or you can send an email to help@thinkorswim.com.

In the meantime, our technologists have continued to deliver new features at a torrid pace and our support teams continue to work around the clock with 10 minute e-mail responses even on Christmas

Day. We hope you're liking our new thinkAI for intra-day trading and we're going to be expanding its power to all other cash indices and ETFs to help you find more trading opportunities. It will soon be joined by a whole bunch of new tools that we'll be adding in the next quarter, including: integrated robotics, advanced tax tools and account management features and an open API.

Until the TD AMERITRADE deal closes, in about six months, you will see absolutely no change in your account and longer term, there will be great new features like the ones we described here.

Bottom line: we will never stop caring about each and every client.

Sincerely,

Tom
