Also, as of February 12, 2010, following the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement, each of the other Reporting Persons may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 8,620,690 shares of Issuer Common Stock, representing approximately 20.1% of the outstanding Issuer Common Stock, assuming that there are 24,186,530 shares of Issuer Common Stock outstanding as of January 20, 2010, plus an additional 10,147,451 shares of Issuer Common Stock outstanding as of February 12, 2010 issued in connection with the closing of the Issuer's subscription rights offering.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

The information set forth or incorporated in Items 3 and 4 hereof is incorporated herein by reference.

On December 22, 2009, the Investors entered into the Securities Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which the Investors agreed to acquire 25,000 shares of Issuer Preferred Stock in exchange for the Purchase Price. Pursuant to undertakings made in the Securities Purchase Agreement, for as long as the Issuer Preferred Stock remains outstanding, the Issuer has agreed to reserve and keep available, free from preemptive rights and liens, the full number of shares of Issuer Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the Issuer Preferred Stock.

Cumulative dividends on the Issuer Preferred Stock will accrue at a rate per annum of 10% of the then applicable liquidation preference and will be payable on a quarterly basis when, as, and if declared by the Issuer's Board (the "Liquidation Preference"). The Issuer may elect to satisfy its obligation to pay quarterly dividends in cash, or, by increasing the Liquidation Preference on the shares of Issuer Preferred Stock.

The holders of the Issuer Preferred Stock may convert shares of Issuer Preferred Stock at any time, in whole or in part, into shares of Issuer Common Stock, at a rate of 344.828 shares of the Issuer Common Stock per $1,000 of Liquidation Preference of the Issuer Preferred Stock, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Certificate of Designations (the "Conversion Rate").

The Issuer may, at any time after February 12, 2012, if the closing price of the Issuer Common Stock is greater than or equal to 225% of the then applicable conversion price for a period of 20 trading days over any 30 consecutive trading days occurring completely after February 12, 2012, then the Issuer may cause the conversion of all or part of the Issuer Preferred Stock into Issuer Common Stock at the then applicable conversion price.

At any time after February 12, 2015, the Issuer may redeem all or any portion of the Issuer Preferred Stock at the then applicable Liquidation Preference plus an amount equal to accrued and unpaid dividends not previously added to the Liquidation Preference on such shares of Issuer Preferred Stock. In addition, at any time after February 12, 2017 or upon a change in control (as defined in the Certificate of Designations), the holders of the Issuer Preferred Stock may require the Issuer to redeem any or all outstanding shares of Issuer Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, at the then applicable Liquidation Preference plus an amount equal to accrued and unpaid dividends not previously added to the Liquidation Preference on such shares of Issuer Preferred Stock.

Holders of Issuer Preferred Stock will be entitled to vote on an as-converted basis upon all matters upon which holders of Issuer Common Stock have the right to vote, such votes to be counted together with all other shares of capital stock having general voting powers and not separately as a class.

Holders of a majority of the Issuer Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, must approve, among other things, (a) any amendment to the Issuer's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Restated By-laws that would adversely affect the rights of the holders of the Issuer Preferred Stock, (b) any amendment, alteration or change to the rights, preferences and privileges of the Issuer Preferred Stock, (c) any declaration of, or payment in respect of, any dividend or other distribution upon any shares of capital stock ranking equally to the Issuer Preferred Stock (Parity Stock) or junior to the Issuer Preferred Stock, including the Issuer Common Stock (Junior Stock), (d) any redemption, repurchase or acquisition of any Parity Stock, Junior Stock or any capital stock of any of the Issuer's subsidiaries (subject to customary exceptions), and (e) the authorization of, issuance of, or reclassification into, Parity Stock (including additional shares of Issuer Preferred Stock), capital stock that would rank senior to the Issuer Preferred Stock or debt securities convertible into capital stock.

Edgar Filing: Ruths Hospitality Group, Inc. - Form SC 13D

Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations, for so long as the Investors continue to beneficially own 5% or more of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis, the Investors, voting as a separate class to the exclusion of the holders of Issuer Common Stock, shall be entitled to designate one individual to the Board, who must be an employee of the Investors or one of their affiliates. On February 12, 2010, Harold O. Rosser II, was appointed to the Board by the Investors as their initial designee. If the Investors are no longer entitled to designate a Board member pursuant to the Certificate of Designations, the Investors will continue to be able to designate a director under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, subject to stockholder approval, so long as the Investors beneficially own at least 5% of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis.

In addition, until the earlier of the date on which (a) the Investors no longer beneficially own at least 5% of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis or (b) the Investors no longer have a representative serving on the Board (other than as a result of the stockholders failing to elect such representative), the Issuer must obtain the consent of 66 2/3% of the members of the Board to: (i) enter into a definitive agreement that provides for an acquisition transaction (as defined in the Securities Purchase Agreement), whether by merger, consolidation, sale of outstanding capital stock, sale of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets or otherwise, (ii) sell or dispose of assets or properties of the Issuer involving consideration in excess of $25.0 million, or (iii) purchase any assets or equity or merge with or into any business combination involving any other company or entity in a transaction in excess of $25.0 million. Further, until the date on which the Investors are no longer entitled to designate a director to the Board, the Issuer may not expand the size of the Board without the Investors' consent.

Until February 12, 2011, the Investors have agreed not to transfer or otherwise dispose of their interest in the Issuer Preferred Stock or in any shares of Issuer Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Issuer Preferred Stock (other than to their permitted transferees or pursuant to certain other customary exceptions). In addition, subject to certain exceptions, commencing on February 12, 2011 and ending on February 12, 2012, the Investors have agreed not to transfer their interest in the Issuer Preferred Stock or in any shares of Issuer Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Issuer Preferred Stock in a privately negotiated transaction to (a) any competitor of the Issuer (as defined in the Securities Purchase Agreement) or (b) any person who would, as a result of the transfer, beneficially own more than 5% of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis without the Issuer's consent.

The Investors have also agreed that until such time as the earlier to occur of (a) February 12, 2011, (b) the date on which the Investors cease to own 5% of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis and (c) a Potential Change in Control Event (as defined in the Securities Purchase Agreement) the Investors will be bound to a customary standstill provision, subject to certain exceptions.

For so long as the Investors continue to beneficially own 5% or more of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis, the Investors will have customary preemptive rights in the event the Issuer offers securities to any person to purchase an amount of securities in the offering in proportion to the percentage of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis held by the Investors at the time of the offering. The Investors will not have preemptive rights in the case of issuances made (a) pursuant to the granting or exercise of stock options or other equity-based awards pursuant to the Issuer's stock plans or other incentive plans approved by the Board in the ordinary course of business, (b) issuances made as consideration in an acquisition by the Issuer of another business entity, (c) issuances upon conversion of, or as a dividend on, any convertible or exchangeable securities of the Issuer issued either (i) pursuant to the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement or (ii) prior to December 22, 2009 and (d) issuances as part of a bona fide public offering pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act underwritten on a firm commitment basis.

Pursuant to the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, so long as the Investors continue to beneficially own 5% or more of the Issuer Common Stock on an as converted basis, the Issuer will provide the Investors with customary information rights, including providing the Investors with (a) unaudited monthly and unaudited quarterly financial statements, (b) audited annual financial statements, (c) a copy of its financial plan prior to the beginning of each fiscal year and any board-approved revisions thereof and (d) other information as the Investors reasonably request that is consistent with materials otherwise provided to members of the Board.

Edgar Filing: Ruths Hospitality Group, Inc. - Form SC 13D

In connection with the closing of the Investment, the Investors entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with the Issuer, dated as of February 12, 2010 (the "Registration Rights Agreement") pursuant to which the Issuer has agreed to grant the Investors certain rights with respect to registration under the Securities Act of the resale of the Issuer Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Issuer Preferred Stock (the "Registrable Securities"). Under the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to prepare and file an initial shelf registration statement covering the resale of all Registrable Securities in an offering to be made on a continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 of the Securities Act within nine months of the closing of the issuance of the Issuer Preferred Stock and such registration statement is required to be declared effective by the Securities Exchange Commission prior to the first anniversary of the closing. Also under the Registration Rights Agreement, following the first anniversary of the closing, the Investors are entitled to three demand registration rights on Form S-3 and certain piggyback registration rights with respect to the registration of securities by the Issuer for its account, and for the account of other investors, in each case, subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement. In addition, if the Issuer breaches certain of its obligations under the Registration Rights Agreement (including any of those related to the requirement to timely file registration statements and including the Issuer Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Issuer Preferred Stock in any applicable registration statement), the dividend rate on the Issuer Preferred Stock will increase to 11% until such breach is cured.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and each is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Securities Purchase Agreement, Registration Rights Agreement and Certificate of Designations attached hereto as Exhibit 2, Exhibit 3 and Exhibit 4, respectively, which are incorporated herein by reference.
