Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Looking Back on the Markets – November 1, 2013 to October 31, 2014

Strong technicals drove the credit markets in late 2013 as prices rose (and yields fell) amidst minimal volatility. Both high yield and leveraged loan mutual funds reported net inflows in Q4 2013, supporting the credit markets and resulting in record high new issuance for both high-yield bonds and leveraged loans. Notably, equity markets also continued a sustained rally through the end of 2013. We believe several factors contributed to this market optimism, including solid Q3 2013 earnings reports, a solution to the US budget impasse and continued stimulus efforts throughout Asia Pacific. In our view, this sea of stability underpinned a supportive backdrop for risk assets.

Pockets of volatility reappeared in risk markets during the first quarter of 2014; however, the credit markets were fairly unscathed. Specifically, yields and spreads in the leveraged loan and high yield markets compressed only modestly. We believe this compression was attributable to the continued search for yield, particularly from the retail investor, who continued to place money with mutual funds. Furthermore, we believe the stability of the bank loan and high yield markets in Q1 2014 was attributable to the supply/demand imbalance we saw across spread assets. We believe this dynamic provided a fundamental tailwind for credit in Q1 2014. On the equity side, the market's fervent pace in late 2013 slowed heading into 2014. While the equity market ultimately ended up in Q1 2014, intra-equity correlations were volatile, making security selection even more important, in our view.

Despite plenty of headlines that could have given investors pause, including volatility in equity markets, tensions in Ukraine and Iraq and a negative Q1 2014 US GDP number, high yield and bank loan spreads continue to grind tighter in Q2 2014. In April 2014, the credit markets received something of a shock when leveraged loan mutual funds experienced their first outflows after 95 weeks of inflows.⁽¹⁾ On the back of this, retail investors began selling some of their positions for fear of a wider sell-off. These retail outflows, along with selling in the equity markets, helped demand in the credit markets in the second half of Q2 2014. However, these retail outflows, coupled with a lack of liquidity and balance sheet de-risking, set the stage for heightened volatility in Q3 2014.

Heading into Q3 2014, geopolitical concerns and weakness in the equity markets drove retail outflows in risk assets, reintroducing volatility into the credit and equity markets. While the credit and equity markets moved in different directions over the course of the quarter, it was clear that volatility was back.

On the loan side, despite strong continued CLO issuance, macro concerns and record retail outflows from mutual funds pushed leveraged loan yields higher in Q3 2014. These elevated yields resulted in lower levels of opportunistic leveraged loan issuance tied to refinancings and recapitalizations. On the fund flows front, retail investors pulled an estimated $6.8bn from leveraged loan mutual funds year to date through September 30, 2014.⁽¹⁾ However, these outflows were offset by the strong CLO market which exhibited year to date issuance levels that surpassed the total CLO volume issued in FY

By comparison, the high yield market saw more volatility than its loan counterpart. This was particularly pronounced in August when outflows from retail funds surged to record levels. High yield spreads increased significantly in Q3 and issuance subsequently declined. Similar to loans, outflows in the high-yield market rose significantly to a record -$13.2bn year to date through September 30, 2014.(1)

In our view, the Q3 volatility in the leveraged credit markets was largely attributable to fund flows, rather than fundamentals or pure credit concerns. These fund flows had an impact on prices, specifically in the form of wider spreads in the leveraged loan and high yield markets. As a result of the recent record outflows, mutual funds became forced sellers of liquid paper, including many large index names. The forced selling was observed across a wide range of sectors, credit profiles, yields and durations, highlighting how underperformance was not tied to specific fundamentals, but rather broader market technicals.

At a high level, the technical demand for spread assets is creating a supply/demand imbalance that, when coupled with record flows into bank loans and high yield retail funds, continues to provide favorable terms for refinancings and acquisition financings. As a result, managers are able to continue to source attractive relative value trades that generate alpha as large index names continue to struggle.

Considering the dynamic market environment we've seen in the credit markets over the last year, we continue to be mindful of a number of key themes as we continue to invest on your behalf. Notably, volatility has returned, driven primarily by geopolitical concerns tied to Ukraine and ISIS as well as sector specific dislocation (i.e. energy). This volatility has been exacerbated by technicals, primarily fund flows, resulting in a lack of liquidity as well as a flight to quality among managers. Despite this volatility, we continue to believe that fundamentals continue to be strong. As a result, we believe that being nimble, having conviction and dynamically allocating capital across asset classes by identifying the strongest relative value opportunities will be key to generating alpha in continued periods of heightened volatility.

The Market in Numbers

For the period of November 1, 2013 – October 31, 2014

- Returns: The high yield and leveraged loan markets returned 5.87%(2) and 3.35%(3) (as measured by the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Index and the S&P LSTA Leveraged Loan Index), respectively, while the S&P 500, US 10-year treasury and the Bank of America Merrill Lynch US Corporate Index returned 17.26%(4), 5.21%(2) and 6.48%(2), respectively.
- Spreads: The spread on the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Index averaged 396bp for the twelve month period ending October 31, 2014.(2) By comparison, the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Index average 490bp for the twelve month period ending October 31, 2014.2 As alluded to above, these wider spreads are primarily a function of record mutual fund outflows. Similarly, the spread on the S&P LSTA Leveraged Loan Index averaged approximately 460bp for the twelve month period ending October 31, 2014.(3)
- Issuance: Over the twelve month period ended October 31, 2014, the market saw approximately $365 billion of issuance in high yield bonds and $555 billion in leveraged loans. This compares to $410 billion and $612 billion, respectively, in the 12 months ended October 31, 2013.(1)
- Volatility: As measured by the VIX index, volatility was sitting at 13.8 as of November 1, 2013.(4) Over the last 12 months, the VIX increased to as high as 18.4 and decreased to as low as 11.4, indicating that volatility was investment objectives by employing a dynamic strategy of investing in a targeted portfolio of loans and fixed-income instruments (including derivatives) of U.S. and non-U.S. issuers and implementing hedging strategies in order to seek to achieve attractive risk-adjusted returns. Under normal market conditions, KIO will invest at least 80% of its Managed Assets in loans and fixed-income instruments or other instruments, including derivative instruments, with similar economic characteristics. The Fund expects to invest primarily in first- and second lien secured loans, unsecured loans and high-yield corporate debt instruments of varying maturities.

As of October 31, 2014, the Fund held 79.7% of its net assets in high-yield corporate debt, 46.4% of its net assets in first and second-lien leveraged loans, 4.0% of its net assets in common stock and 3.4% of its net assets in preferred stock. KIO's investments represented obligations and equity interests in 92 companies diversified across 38 distinct industries. The top ten issuers represented 48.3% of the Fund's net assets while the top five industry groups represented 48.7% of the Fund's net assets. The Fund's Securities and Exchange Commission 30-day yield was 7.35%.

For the year ended October 31, 2014, KIO outperformed the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index on a market price basis and underperformed the Index on a net asset value (NAV) basis. Over that period, the Fund had returns of 5.67% on a NAV basis and 7.95% on a market price basis, and the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index returned 5.85% over the same time period. The Fund employed leverage during the period covered by this report.(5)

Business Updates

In February 2014, KKR & Co L.P. (together with the Fund's Adviser and its other affiliates, KKR) closed on its acquisition of Avoca Capital (Avoca), a leading European credit manager. Avoca was established in 2002 and operates across five European credit strategies including Senior Secured Loans, Credit Opportunities, Long/Short Credit, Global Convertible Bonds, Structured and Illiquid Credit. We believe Avoca's investment philosophy complements that of the Fund's Adviser, and the acquisition represents a significant expansion of KKR's capabilities in the rapidly growing market for European public credit. We believe that the Avoca acquisition could offer an incremental source of investment ideas for the Fund.

We thank you for your partnership and continued investment in the Fund. We look forward to continued communications and will keep you apprised of the progress of KIO specifically and the leveraged finance market place generally. Fund information is available on our website at kkrfunds.com/kio.

Must be preceded or accompanied by a prospectus.

An imbalance in supply and demand in the income market may result in valuation uncertainties and greater volatility, less liquidity, widening credit spreads and a lack of price transparency in the market. Investments in income securities may be affected by changes in the creditworthiness of the issuer and are subject to the risk of non payment of principal and interest. The value of income securities also may decline because of real or perceived concerns about the issuer's ability to make principal and interest payments. Borrowing to increase investments (leverage) will exaggerate the effect of any increase or decrease in the value of Fund investments. Investments rated below investment grade (typically referred to as junk) are generally subject to greater price volatility and illiquidity than higher rated investments. As interest rates rise, the value of certain income investments is likely to decline. Senior loans are subject to prepayment risk. Investments in foreign instruments or currencies can involve greater risk and volatility than U.S. investments because of adverse market economic, political, regulatory, geopolitical or other conditions. Changes in the value of investments entered for hedging purposes may not match those of the position being hedged. The Fund may engage in other investment practices that may involve additional risks.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

KKR Income Opportunities Fund (the Fund) was organized on March 17, 2011 as a statutory trust under the laws of the state of Delaware. The Fund is a closed-end registered management investment company. The Fund commenced operations on July 25, 2013. The Fund seeks to generate a high level of current income, with a secondary objective of capital appreciation. The Fund is non-diversified for purposes of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act). KKR Credit Advisors LLC serves as the Fund's investment adviser (the Adviser). Effective as of September 30, 2014, KKR Asset Management LLC changed its name to KKR Credit Advisors (US) LLC (KKR Credit). KKR Credit is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P. (KKR).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation The accompanying financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and are stated in United States (U.S.) dollars. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in these financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Valuation of Investments The Board of Trustees (the Board) of the Fund has adopted valuation policies and procedures to ensure investments are valued in a manner consistent with GAAP as required by the 1940 Act. The Board has delegated primary responsibility in ensuring these valuation policies and procedures are followed, including those relating to fair valuation, to the Adviser.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Where available, fair value is based on observable market prices or parameters, or derived from such prices or parameters. Where observable prices or inputs are not available, valuation models are applied. These valuation techniques involve some level of management estimation and judgment, the degree of which is dependent on the price transparency for the instruments or market and the instruments' complexity for disclosure purposes.

Assets and liabilities recorded at fair value on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities are categorized based upon the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their value. Hierarchical levels, as defined under GAAP, are directly related to the amount of subjectivity associated with the inputs to fair valuations of these assets and liabilities, and are as follows:

Level 1 Inputs are unadjusted, quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

The types of assets generally included in this category are preferred stock and common stock listed in active markets.

Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, and inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.

The types of assets and liabilities generally included in this category are high yield securities, leveraged loans, common and preferred stock not actively traded, escrow units, and financial instruments classified as derivatives.

Level 3 Inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability.

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

The Fund did not hold Level 3 assets as of October 31, 2014.

A significant decrease in the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability is an indication that transactions or quoted prices may not be representative of fair value because in such market conditions there may be increased instances of transactions that are not orderly. In those circumstances, further analysis of transactions or quoted prices is needed, and a significant adjustment to the transactions or quoted prices may be necessary to estimate fair value.

The availability of observable inputs can vary depending on the financial asset or liability and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of product, whether the product is new, whether the product is traded on an active exchange or in the secondary market, and the current market condition. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised by the Fund in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in Level 3. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement in its entirety falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. The Fund's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and consideration of factors specific to the asset. The variability of the observable inputs affected by the factors described above may cause transfers between Levels 1, 2 and/or 3, which the Fund recognizes at the beginning of the period the inputs change.

Many financial assets and liabilities have bid and ask prices that can be observed in the marketplace. Bid prices reflect the highest price that the Fund and others are willing to pay for an asset. Ask prices represent the lowest price that the Fund and others are willing to accept for an asset. For financial assets and liabilities whose inputs are based on bid-ask prices, the Fund does not require that fair value always be a predetermined point in the bid-ask range. The Fund's policy is to allow for mid-market pricing and adjust to the point within the bid-ask range that meets the Fund's best estimate of fair value.

Depending on the relative liquidity in the markets for certain assets, the Fund may transfer assets to Level 3 if it determines that observable quoted prices, obtained directly or indirectly, are not available.

Valuation Process

The Adviser utilizes a valuation committee (Valuation Committee), whose members consist of the Adviser's Head of Asset Management, Chief Financial Officer, General Counsel and certain other employees of the Adviser. The Valuation Committee is responsible for approving pricing sources and procedures and for oversight of the Adviser's pricing practices, including determining the valuation of investments in circumstances where no external pricing data for an investment is available.

Investments are generally valued based on quotations from third party pricing services, unless such a quotation is unavailable or is determined to be unreliable or inadequately representing the fair value of the particular assets. In that case, valuations are based on either valuation data obtained from one or more other third party pricing sources, including broker dealers selected by the Adviser, or will reflect the Valuation Committee's good faith determination of fair value based on other factors considered relevant. The valuation process involved in Level 3 measurements for assets and liabilities is completed daily based on the methodology and assumptions that are used in estimating the value of the investment that are approved by the Valuation Committee on at least a monthly basis and is designed to subject the valuation of Level 3 investments to an appropriate level of consistency, oversight, and review. For assets classified as Level 3, the investment professionals of the Adviser are responsible for preliminary valuations based on various factors including their evaluation of financial and operating data, company specific developments, market valuations of comparable companies and model projections discussed above. All valuations are approved by the Valuation Committee.

For the year ended October 31, 2014, there have been no significant changes to the Fund's fair value methodologies.

Investment Transactions - Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date, the date the order to buy or sell is executed. Amortization and accretion is calculated using the effective interest method over the holding period of the investment. Realized gains and losses are calculated on the specific identified cost basis.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, cash held in banks and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three or fewer months.

Restricted Cash - Restricted cash represents amounts that are held by third parties under certain of the Fund's derivative transactions. Such cash is excluded from cash and cash equivalents in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and Statement of Cash Flows. Interest income earned on restricted cash is recorded in other income on the Statement of Operations. On the Statement of Cash Flows, net additions or reductions to restricted cash are classified as an operating activity.

Foreign Currency Transactions - The books and records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. All investments denominated in foreign currency are converted to the U.S. dollar using prevailing exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. Income, expenses, gains and losses on investments denominated in foreign currency are converted to the U.S. dollar using the prevailing exchange rates on the dates when the transactions occurred.

The Fund bifurcates that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments and interest from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held.

Forward Foreign Currency Exchange Contracts - The Fund enters into forward foreign currency exchange contracts for the purchase or sale of a specific foreign currency at a fixed price on a future date. The forward foreign currency exchange contracts are adjusted by the daily exchange rate of the underlying currency and any gains or losses are recorded as unrealized gains/losses until such time as the contracts have been closed or offset by another contract with the same broker for the same settlement date and currency.

Dividends to Shareholders - Dividends from net investment income are declared and paid monthly and distributable net realized capital gains, if any, are declared and distributed at least annually. Dividends to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Income Taxes - The Fund intends to qualify as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and in conformity with the Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010. The Fund will not be subject to federal income tax to the extent the Fund satisfies the requirements under Section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code, including distributing substantially all of its gross investment company taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders based on the Fund's fiscal year end of October 31.

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

In order to avoid imposition of the excise tax on undistributed income applicable to regulated investment companies, the Fund intends to declare each year as dividends in each calendar year at least 98.0% of its net investment income (earned during the calendar year) and 98.2% of its net realized capital gains (earned during the twelve months ended October 31) plus undistributed amounts, if any, from prior years.

The Fund evaluates tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Fund's tax returns to determine whether it is more-likely than-not (i.e., greater than 50-percent) that each tax position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority based on the technical merits of the position. Tax positions not deemed to meet the more-likely-than-not threshold are recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current year. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions for the open tax years (2013-2014). However, management's conclusions regarding tax positions taken may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, examination by tax authorities, on-going analysis of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof.

As of October 31, 2014 the Fund did not have a liability for any unrecognized tax benefits. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the year ended October 31, 2014, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

3. Risk Considerations

The Fund invests mainly in high yield securities, leveraged loans, preferred and common stock and forward foreign currency contracts. These investments may involve certain risks, as discussed in the Fund's prospectus, including, but not limited to, those described below:

Market Risk - Bond markets rise and fall daily. As with any investment with performance tied to these markets, the value of an investment in the Fund will fluctuate, which means that the shareholder could lose money.

Interest Rate Risk - Interest rates will rise and fall over time. During periods when interest rates are low, the Fund's yield and total return also may be low. Changes in interest rates also may affect the Fund's share price: a sharp rise in interest rates could cause the Fund's share price to fall. The longer the Fund's duration, the more sensitive to interest rate movements its share price is likely to be.

Credit Risk - The Fund is subject to the risk that a decline in the credit quality of an investment could cause the Fund to lose money or underperform. The Fund could lose money if the issuer or guarantor of an investment fails to make timely principal or interest payments or otherwise honor its obligations. The Fund will be subject to credit risk with respect to the counterparties to the derivative contracts (whether a clearing corporation in the case of exchange-traded instruments or another third party in the case of over-the-counter instruments) and other instruments entered into directly by the Fund.

Liquidity Risk - A particular investment may be difficult to purchase or sell. The Fund may be unable to sell illiquid securities at an advantageous time or price.

Prepayment and Extension Risk - The Fund's investments are subject to the risk that the investments may be paid off earlier or later than expected. Either situation could cause the Fund to hold investments paying lower-than-market rates of interest, which could hurt the Fund's yield or share price.

High Yield Risk - High yield securities and unrated securities of similar credit quality (sometimes called junk bonds) that the Fund may invest in are subject to greater levels of credit and liquidity risks. High yield securities are considered primarily speculative with respect to the issuer's continuing ability to make principal and interest payments.

Foreign Investment Risk - The Fund's investments in securities of foreign issuers may involve certain risks that are greater than those associated with investments in securities of U.S. issuers. These include risks of adverse changes in foreign economic, political, regulatory and other conditions; changes in currency exchange rates (the currencies will decline in value relative to the U.S. dollar or, in the case of hedging positions, the U.S. dollar will decline in value relative to the currency being hedged) or exchange control regulations (including limitations on currency movements and exchanges); differing accounting, auditing, financial reporting and legal standards and practices; differing securities market structures; and higher transaction costs. These risks may be heightened in connection with investments in emerging markets.

Issuer Risk - The value of securities may decline for a number of reasons that directly relate to the issuer, such as its financial strength, management performance, financial leverage and reduced demand for the issuer's goods and services, as well as the historical and prospective earnings of the issuer and the value of its assets.

Non-diversification Risk - The Fund is a non-diversified investment company and therefore may invest a greater percentage of its assets in the securities of a single issuer or a limited number of issuers than funds that are diversified. Accordingly, the Fund is more susceptible to risks associated with a single economic, political or regulatory occurrence than a diversified fund might be.

Market discount Risk - The price of the Fund's common shares of beneficial interest will fluctuate with market conditions and other factors. Shares of closed-end management investment companies frequently trade at a discount from their net asset value, which may increase the risk of loss.

Leverage Risk - Leverage is a speculative technique that may expose the Fund to greater risk and increased costs. When leverage is used, the net asset value and market price of the Fund's shares and the Fund's investment return will likely be more volatile.

Please refer to the Fund's prospectus for a more complete description of the principal risks of investing in the Fund.

4. Agreements

Investment Advisory Agreement The Adviser provides day-to-day portfolio management services to the Fund and has discretion to purchase and sell investments in accordance with the Fund's objectives, policies, and restrictions. For the services it provides to the Fund, the Adviser receives an annual fee, payable monthly by the Fund, in an amount equal to 1.10% of the Fund's average daily Managed Assets (the Management Fee). Managed Assets is defined as the total assets of the Fund (including any assets attributable to any borrowings (except borrowings solely for short-term cash management purposes), reverse repurchase agreements, dollar rolls, any issuance of preferred shares or notes, and including any assets in respect of shares that will be repurchased as of the end of the month) minus the sum of the Fund's accrued liabilities (other than any borrowings).

During periods when the Fund is using leverage, the Management Fee paid to the Adviser will be higher than if the Fund did not use leverage because the Management Fee paid is calculated on the basis of the Fund's Managed Assets, which includes the assets purchased through leverage.

During the year ended October 31, 2014, the Adviser earned a Management Fee of $4,490,942.

Administrator, Custodian and Transfer Agent U.S. Bancorp Fund Services, LLC (USBFS) (the Administrator) serves as the Fund's Administrator pursuant to an administration agreement under which the Administrator provides administrative and accounting services.

U.S. Bank N.A. (Custodian) serves as the Fund's custodian pursuant to a custody agreement. The Custodian is an affiliate of USBFS.

USBFS serves as the Fund's transfer agent pursuant to a transfer agency agreement.

Investor Support Services Agreement - The Fund has retained Four Wood Capital Partners LLC to provide investor support services in connection with the on-going operation of the Fund. Such services include providing ongoing contact with respect to the Fund and its performance with financial advisors that are representatives of broker-dealers and other financial intermediaries and communicating with the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) specialist for the Fund's common shares, and with the closed-end fund analyst community regarding the Fund on a regular basis.

Deferred Trustees' Compensation - The Fund has a Deferred Trustees' Compensation plan (the Plan) that allows the Independent Trustees to defer compensation to a future payment period. The compensation is invested in notional shares of the Fund. The value of a participating Independent Trustee's deferral account is based on the notional shares of deferred amounts as designated by the participating Independent Trustees. Changes in the value of the Independent Trustees' deferral account are included in net change in unrealized depreciation in the Statement of Operations. The accrued obligations under the Plan, including unrealized appreciation/(depreciation), are included on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

Other Certain officers of the Fund are also officers of the Adviser. Such officers are paid no fees by the Fund for serving as officers of the Fund.

5. Fair Valuation

The following table presents information about the Fund's assets and liabilities measured on a recurring basis as of October 31, 2014, and indicates the fair value hierarchy of the inputs utilized by the Fund to determine such fair value:

| | Level 1 | Level 2 | Level 3 | Total |
|---|---------------|----------------|---------|----------------|

| Assets - Foreign Currency Contracts | $ | $ 131,817 | $ | $ 131,817 |
| Total Financial Derivative Instruments | $ | $ 131,817 | $ | $ 131,817 |

Changes in valuation techniques may result in transfers in or out of an investment's assigned level within the hierarchy during the year ended October 31, 2014. There were no transfers between levels during the year ended October 31, 2014, based on the input level assigned under the hierarchy at the beginning of each reporting.

6. Derivatives

As of and for the year ended October 31, 2014, the Fund had the following derivatives and transactions in derivatives, grouped in the following risk categories:

7. Shares of Beneficial Interest

The following is a summary of share transactions for the year ended October 31, 2014 and the period ended October 31, 2013.

8. Investment Transactions

The cost of investments purchased and the proceeds from the sale of investments, other than short-term investments, for the year ended October 31, 2014 were as follows:

| | | |
|-----------|----|-------------|
| Purchases | $ | 265,270,098 |
| Sales | | 247,883,644 |

There were no purchases or sales of U.S. Government securities.

9. Commitments and Contingencies

As of October 31, 2014, the Fund did not have unfunded financing commitments, including financial guarantees, related to other assets, including investments. During the year ended October 31, 2014, the Fund did have unfunded commitments and did not have any significant losses. The Fund maintains sufficient liquidity to fund such unfunded loan commitments should the need arise.

Under the Fund's organizational documents, its officers and Trustees are indemnified against certain liabilities arising out of the performance of their duties to the Fund. In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and that provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum liability exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as future claims that have not yet occurred may be made against the Fund. However, based on experience, management expects the risk of loss to be remote.

10. Federal Income Taxes

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

The timing and characterization of certain income and capital gains distributions are determined annually in accordance with federal tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. As a result, the net investment income (loss) and net realized gain (loss) on investment transactions for a reporting period may differ significantly from distributions during such period. These book/tax differences may be temporary or permanent in nature. To the extent these differences are permanent, they are charged or credited to paid-in capital, accumulated net investment income/loss or accumulated net realized gain/loss, as appropriate, in the period in which the differences arise.

The following permanent differences have been reclassified to/from the following accounts:

Edgar Filing: KKR Income Opportunities Fund - Form N-CSR

| Undistributed Net Investment Income/(Loss) | Accumulated Net Realized Gain/(Loss) |
|---|---|

These reclassifications have no effect on net assets or net assets per share.

The tax character of dividends declared for the year ended October 31, 2014 and the period ended October 31, 2013 is as follows:

| | Ordinary Income | Long-term Gain | Total |
|------------------|--------------------|-------------------|---------------|
| October 31, 2014 | $ 25,369,457 | $ | $ 25,369,457 |
| October 31, 2013 | $ 1,906,904 | $ | $ 1,906,904 |

As of October 31, 2014, the components of accumulated gains on a tax basis for the Fund are as follows:

| Undistributed Ordinary Income | Net Unrealized Depreciation | Other Temporary Differences | Total Accumulated Losses |
|-------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| $ 1,841,080 | $ (2,999,476) | $ (131,817) | $ (1,290,213) |

Net capital losses earned may be carried forward indefinitely and must retain the character of the original loss.

As of October 31, 2014, the total cost of securities for federal income tax purposes and the aggregate gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation for securities held by the Fund are as follows:

| Federal Tax Cost | Aggregate Gross Unrealized Appreciation | Aggregate Gross Unrealized Depreciation | Net Unrealized Appreciation/ (Depreciation) |
|---------------------|--|--|---|

11. Credit Facility

In July 2014, the Fund renewed a $145.0 million credit agreement (the "Maximum Facility Amount") with The Bank of Nova Scotia expiring on July 28, 2014 (the "Credit Facility"). The Credit Facility bears an unused commitment fee on the unused portion of the credit facility (the "Unused Facility Amount") equal to (a) 0.15% on the total Unused Facility Amount if the Unused Facility Amount is lower or equal to 50% of the Maximum Facility Amount and (b) 0.25% on the total Unused Facility Amount if the Unused Facility Amount is in excess of 50% of the Maximum Facility Amount. The per annum rate of interest for borrowing under the Credit Facility is equal to (a) the one-month London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 0.825% per annum or (b) the greatest of (i) the Prime Rate, (ii) the Fed Funds rate plus 0.50% per annum, and (iii) the Eurodollar rate plus 1.00% per annum.

As of October 31, 2014, there were $118,000,000 million of borrowings outstanding under the Credit Facility and the Fund is in compliance with the terms of the Credit Facility.

12. Offsetting Agreements

Certain derivative contracts are executed under standardized netting agreements. A derivative netting arrangement creates an enforceable right of set-off that becomes effective, and affects the realization of settlement on individual assets, liabilities and collateral amounts, only following a specified event of default or early termination. Default events may include the failure to make payments or deliver securities timely, material adverse changes in financial condition or insolvency, the breach of minimum regulatory capital requirements, or loss of license, charter or other legal authorization necessary to perform under the contract. The Funds may manage counterparty risk by entering into enforceable collateral arrangements with counterparties to securities lending agreements. These agreements mitigate counterparty credit risk by providing for a single net settlement with a counterparty of all financial transactions covered by the agreement in an event of default as defined under such agreement.

The following table presents derivative financial instruments and securities lending arrangements that are subject to enforceable netting arrangements, collateral arrangements or other similar agreements as of October 31, 2014.

13. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued ASU No. 2014-11 Repurchase-to-Maturity Transactions, Repurchase Financings, and Disclosures. ASU No. 2014-11 makes limited changes to the accounting for repurchase agreements, clarifies when repurchase agreements and securities lending transactions should be accounted for as secured borrowings, and requires additional disclosures regarding these types of transactions. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2014, and for interim periods within those fiscal years. Management is currently evaluating the impact these changes will have on the Fund's financial statement disclosures.

14. Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, the Fund has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through the date the financial statements were issued. The Fund has determined that there were no subsequent events that would need to be disclosed in the Fund's financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Trustees and Shareholders of

KKR Income Opportunities Fund

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of KKR Income Opportunities Fund (the Fund), including the schedule of investments, as of October 31, 2014, and the related statements of operations and cash flows for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for the period from July 25, 2013 (commencement of operations) to October 31, 2013 and for the year ended October 31, 2014, and the financial highlights for each of the periods presented. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Fund s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. The Fund is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of October 31, 2014, by correspondence with the custodian and brokers; where replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of KKR Income Opportunities Fund as of October 31, 2014, and the related statements of operations and cash flows for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for the period from July 25, 2013 (commencement of operations) to October 31, 2013 and for the year ended October 31, 2014, and the financial highlights for each of the periods presented, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan (Unaudited)

Pursuant to the Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the DRIP), income dividends and/or capital gain distributions to Common Shareholders will automatically be reinvested in additional Common Shares of the Fund by the Plan Administrator. A Common Shareholder may terminate participation in the DRIP at any time by notifying the DRIP Administrator before the record date of the next distribution through the Internet, by telephone or in writing.

1. The Plan Administrator will open an account for each holder of Common Shares under the Plan in the same name in which such holder of Common Shares is registered. Whenever the Fund declares a dividend or other distribution (together, a Dividend) payable in cash, non-participants in the Plan will receive cash and Participants will receive the equivalent in Common Shares. The Common Shares will be acquired by the Plan Administrator for the Participants' accounts, depending upon the circumstances described below, either through (i) receipt of additional unissued but authorized Common Shares from the Fund (Newly Issued Common Shares) or (ii) by purchase of outstanding Common Shares on the open market (Open-Market Purchases) on the New York Stock Exchange or elsewhere.

2. If, on the payment date for any Dividend, the closing market price plus estimated per share fees (which include any brokerage commissions the Plan Administrator is required to pay) is equal to or greater than the net asset value (NAV) per Common Share, the Plan Administrator will invest the Dividend amount in Newly Issued Common Shares on behalf of the Participants. The number of Newly Issued Common Shares to be credited to each Participant's account will be determined by dividing the dollar amount of the Dividend by the NAV per Common Share on the payment date; provided that, if the NAV is less than or equal to 95% of the closing market value on the payment date, the dollar amount of the Dividend will be divided by 95% of the closing market price per Common Share on the payment date. If, on the payment date for any Dividend, the NAV per Common Share is greater than the closing market value plus per share fees, the Plan Administrator will invest the Dividend amount in Common Shares acquired on behalf of the Participants in Open-Market Purchases. In the event of a market discount on the payment date for any Dividend, the Plan Administrator will have until the last business day before the next date on which the Common Shares trade on an ex-dividend basis or 30 days after the payment date for such Dividend, whichever is sooner (the Last Purchase Date), to invest the Dividend amount in Common Shares acquired in Open-Market Purchases. It is contemplated that the Fund will pay monthly income Dividends. Therefore, the period during which Open-Market Purchases can be made will exist only from the payment date of each Dividend through the date before the next ex-dividend date which typically will be approximately ten days. If, before the Plan Administrator has completed its Open-Market Purchases, the market price per Common Share exceeds the NAV per Common Share, the average per Common Share purchase price paid by the Plan Administrator may exceed the NAV of the Common Shares, resulting in the acquisition of fewer Common Shares than if the Dividend had been paid in Newly Issued Common Shares on the Dividend payment date. Because of the foregoing difficulty with respect to Open-Market Purchases, the Plan provides that if the Plan Administrator is unable to invest the full Dividend amount in Open-Market Purchases during the purchase period or if the market discount shifts to a market premium during the purchase period, the Plan Administrator may cease making Open-Market Purchases and may invest the uninvested portion of the Dividend amount in Newly Issued Common Shares at the NAV per Common Share at the close of business on the Last Purchase Date provided that, if the NAV is less than or equal to 95% of the then current market price per Common Share; the dollar amount of the Dividend will be divided by 95% of the market price on the payment date.

3. The Plan Administrator maintains all Participants' accounts in the Plan and furnishes written confirmation of all transactions in the accounts, including information needed by Participants for tax records. Common Shares in the account of each Participant will be held by the Plan Administrator on behalf of the Participant, and each shareholder proxy will include those shares purchased or received pursuant to the Plan. The Plan Administrator will forward all proxy solicitation materials to Participants and vote proxies for Common Shares held under the Plan in accordance with the instructions of the Participants.

4. In the case of shareholders such as banks, brokers or nominees which hold shares for others who are the beneficial owners, the Plan Administrator will administer the Plan on the basis of the number of Common Shares certified from time to time by the record shareholder's name and held for the account of beneficial owners who participate in the Plan.

5. There will be no charges with respect to Common Shares issued directly by the Fund. However, each Participant will pay a per Common Share fee incurred in connection with Open Market Purchases. The automatic reinvestment of Dividends will not relieve Participants of any Federal, state or local income tax that may be payable (or required to be withheld) on such dividend. Participants that request a sale of Common Shares through the Plan Administrator will be subject to a sales fee for Common Share sold. All per Common Share fees include any applicable brokerage commissions the Plan Administrator is required to pay.

6. The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan. There is no direct service charge to Participants with regard to purchases in the Plan; however, the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the Participants.

7. All correspondence or questions concerning the Plan should be directed to the Plan Administrator, U.S. Bancorp Fund Services, LLC, in writing to 615 East Michigan Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202.

Item 7. Disclosure of Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures for Closed-End Management Investment Companies.

The registrant's proxy voting and corporate actions policy and procedures are as follows:

PROXY VOTING AND CORPORATE ACTIONS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

A. General

This policy is designed to ensure that the funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), (each a Fund and collectively, the Funds) advised by KKR Credit Advisors (US) LLC (the Adviser) fulfills the Funds' obligations and complies with the requirements under the 1940 Act, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), with respect to proxy voting, disclosure, and recordkeeping. This policy is also designed to ensure that all corporate actions are voted in the best interest of the Funds, to provide disclosure of the Funds' corporate action voting record and to ensure that certain documentation is retained.

Pursuant to delegation by each, the Adviser has authority to make proxy and corporate action decisions on behalf of the Funds. The Adviser's objective is to ensure that its proxy voting and corporate action activities on behalf of the Funds are conducted in a manner consistent, under all circumstances, with the best interest of the Funds.

B. Proxy Voting Policies

The Adviser's Proxy Voting Policies are contained in the Adviser's Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures as of August 2012 (the Proxy Voting Policies)

C. Proxy and Corporate Action Voting Procedures

The Adviser will have the responsibility of voting proxies and corporate actions that it receives on behalf of the Funds. Proxy proposals received by the Adviser and designated in the Proxy Voting Policies as For or Against will be voted by the Adviser in accordance with the Proxy Voting Policies. Proxy proposals received by the Adviser and designated in the Proxy Voting Policies as Case by Case (or not addressed in the Proxy Voting Policies) and all corporate actions will be reviewed by the Adviser, and voted in the best interests of the Funds. In accordance with Rule 204-2 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, with respect to Case by Case issues, the Adviser will document the basis for the Adviser's voting decisions with the assistance of the analyst who is in charge of the issuer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Adviser may vote a proxy contrary to the Proxy Voting Policies if the Adviser with the assistance of the analyst who is in charge of the issuer determines that such action is in the best interest of the Funds. In the event that the Adviser votes contrary to the Proxy Voting Policies, the Adviser with the assistance of the analyst who is in charge of the issuer will document the basis for the Adviser's contrary voting decision.

In addition, the Adviser may choose not to vote proxies or corporate actions in certain situations, such as (i) where the Funds have informed the Adviser that it wishes to retain the right to vote the proxy or corporate action, (ii) where the Adviser deems the cost of voting would exceed any anticipated benefit to the Funds or (iii) where a proxy or corporate action is received by the Adviser for a security it no longer manages on behalf of a Fund. The Adviser with the assistance of the analyst who is in charge of the issuer will document the basis for the Adviser's decision not to vote.

The Adviser has developed procedures for handling the receipt and voting of the Funds' proxies and corporate actions.

D. Conflicts of Interest

The Adviser may occasionally be subject to conflicts of interest in the voting of proxies due to business or personal relationships it maintains with persons having an interest in the outcome of certain votes. The Adviser, its affiliates and/or its employees may also occasionally have business or personal relationships with the proponents of proxy proposals, participants in proxy contests, corporate directors and officers or candidates for directorships.

If at any time, the Adviser becomes aware of an existing or potential conflict of interest relating to a particular proxy proposal, the Adviser's Conflicts Committee (Conflicts Committee), or its designee, must be notified. Provided the Conflicts Committee has determined that a conflict or potential for a conflict exists, the proxy must be voted in alignment with the recommendation set forth by ISS. Appropriate documentation will be maintained by the Conflicts Committee.

E. Proxy and Corporate Action Voting Records

In accordance with Rule 204-2, the Adviser will maintain the following records in connection with the Adviser's proxy voting policies and procedures:

- a copy of the proxy voting policies and procedures;

- a copy of all proxy statements received regarding securities of the Funds;
 - a record of each vote the Adviser casts on behalf of the Funds;
 - records of shareholders of the Funds requests for proxy voting information, including a copy of each written request for information on how the Adviser voted proxies on behalf of the Funds, and a copy of any written response by the

Adviser to any Fund shareholder request for information on how the Adviser voted proxies on behalf of a Fund; and

- any documentation prepared by the Adviser that was material to making a decision on how to vote, or that memorialized the basis for the voting decision.

The Adviser will also maintain similar records in connection with corporate actions.

The foregoing records will be maintained and preserved for a total of seven (7) years, the first two (2) years in the Adviser's office.

F. Changes to the Proxy Voting Rules

Changes may be made by the Adviser to the proxy rules as long as such changes are not expected to materially adversely affect the Funds. Upon a material change, the Funds will be made aware of such material change to the proxy rules and the reasons for the change.

G. Disclosure

The Adviser will provide all the information necessary for the Funds to make the required disclosures regarding proxy voting in its Statement of Additional Information, as well as on SEC Forms N-CSR and N-PX. In addition, information regarding how the Funds' proxies and corporate actions were voted by the Adviser will be provided to shareholders of the Funds upon their written request.

The proxy voting and corporate actions policy and procedures used by the registrant's investment adviser, which are incorporated by reference into the registrant's proxy voting and corporate actions policy and procedures, are as follows:

PROXY VOTING AND CORPORATE ACTIONS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

A. General

KKR Credit Advisors (US) LLC ("KKR Credit Advisors (US)" or the "Firm") provides investment advisory services to its Client, and invests the assets of these Clients in securities issued by public and private issuers. The Firm has authority to vote proxies relating to such securities on behalf of its Clients. The Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") has adopted Rule 206(4)-6 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). Under this rule, registered investment advisers that exercise voting authority over securities held in client portfolios are required to implement proxy voting policies and describe those policies to their clients.

This policy is designed to ensure that all proxies are voted in the best interest of KKR Credit Advisors (US) Clients, to provide disclosure of the Firm's proxy voting records and to ensure that certain documentation is retained.

B. Proxy Voting Procedures

To assist it in its proxy-voting responsibilities, the Firm currently subscribes to proxy-related services offered by Institutional Shareholder Services, Inc. (ISS). ISS provides the Firm with its independent analysis and recommendation with respect to generally all proxy proposals that the Firm votes on behalf of its clients, with respect to both U.S. and non-U.S. securities of publicly traded companies.

KKR Credit Advisors (US) will have the responsibility of voting proxies that it receives on behalf of its Clients. The Firm has engaged ISS to assist with its proxy voting, however, the Firm retains ultimate voting discretion with respect to its Clients. KKR Credit Advisors (US) may depart from an ISS recommendation in order to avoid voting decisions believed to be contrary to the best interests of its Clients. In each instance where the Firm votes contrary to the ISS recommendation, KKR Credit Advisors (US) Legal/Compliance, in conjunction with the Firm's investment analyst who provides coverage for the relevant issuer, will document the basis for its contrary voting decision.

In addition, KKR Credit Advisors (US) may choose not to vote proxies in certain situations, such as where the Firm has deemed the cost of voting would exceed any anticipated benefit to KKR Credit Advisors (US) Clients or where a proxy is received by the Firm for a security it no longer manages on behalf of its Clients. KKR Credit Advisors (US) Legal/Compliance, in conjunction with the Firm's investment analyst who provides coverage for the relevant issuer, will document the basis for the Firm's decision not to vote.

C. Conflicts of Interest

KKR Credit Advisors (US) may occasionally be subject to conflicts of interest in the voting of proxies due to business or personal relationships it maintains with persons having an interest in the outcome of certain votes. KKR Credit Advisors (US), its affiliates and/or its employees may also occasionally have business or personal relationships with the proponents of proxy proposals, participants in proxy contests, corporate directors and officers or candidates for directorships.

(a)(2)(iv) Conflicts Of Interest

The Adviser will experience conflicts of interest in connection with the management of the Fund, including, but not limited to, the following:

- The members, officers and other personnel of the Adviser allocate their time, resources and other services between the Fund and other investment and business activities in which they may be involved. The Adviser intends to devote such time as shall be necessary to conduct the Fund's business affairs in an appropriate manner. However, the Adviser will continue to devote the time, resources and other services necessary to managing its other investment and business activities and the Adviser is not precluded from conducting activities unrelated to the Fund.
- The Adviser may compete with certain of its affiliates, including other entities it manages, for investments for the Fund, subjecting the Adviser to certain conflicts of interest in evaluating the suitability of investment opportunities and making or recommending acquisitions on the Fund's behalf. The Adviser will receive advisory and other fees from the other entities it manages, and due to fee-offset provisions contained in the management agreements for such entities, the fees may not be proportionate to such entities' investment accounts for any given transaction and the Adviser may have an incentive to favor entities from which it receives higher fees. The intends to allocate such investment opportunities in a manner that it deems appropriate taking into account factors such as investment objectives, available capital, applicable concentration limits, minimum investment rights and other investment restrictions, portfolio diversification, the potential dilutive effect of a new investment on an existing investment, the overall risk profile of a portfolio and other considerations deemed relevant by the Adviser. The outcome of this determination may result in the allocation of all, some or none of an investment opportunity to the Fund. In addition, subject to applicable law, affiliates of the Adviser may invest in one of the Fund's portfolio companies and hold a different class of securities than the Fund. To the extent that an affiliate of the Adviser holds a different class of securities than the Fund, its interests may not be aligned with the Fund's. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Adviser will act in the best interest of the Fund in accordance with its fiduciary duty to the Fund.

- The compensation payable by the Fund to the Adviser will be approved by the Board consistent with the exercise of the requisite standard of care applicable to trustees under state law. Such compensation is payable, in most cases, regardless of the quality of the assets acquired, the services provided to the Fund or whether the Fund makes distributions to Shareholders.
- The Adviser and its affiliates may provide a broad range of financial services to companies in which the Fund invests, in compliance with applicable law, and will generally be paid fees for such services. In addition, affiliates of the Adviser may act as an underwriter, arranger or placement agent in connection with an offering of securities by one of the companies in the Fund's portfolio. Any compensation received by the Adviser and its affiliates for providing these services will not be shared with the Fund and may be received before the Fund realizes a return on its investment. The Adviser may face conflicts of interest with respect to services performed for these companies, on the one hand, and investments recommended to the Fund, on the other hand.
- From time to time, to the extent consistent with the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or with exemptive relief the Fund may receive from the SEC, if any, the Fund and other clients for which the Adviser provides investment management services or carries on investment activities (including, among others, clients that are employee benefit plans subject to ERISA and related regulations) may make investments at different levels of an investment entity's capital structure or otherwise in different classes of an issuer's securities. These investments may inherently give rise to conflicts of interest or perceived conflicts of interest between or among the various classes of securities that may be held by the Fund and such other clients, including in the case of financial distress of the investment entity.
- KKR and the Adviser sponsor and advise, and may in the future sponsor and advise, a broad range of investment funds, vehicles, and other accounts, including proprietary vehicles, that make investments worldwide. KKR may also make investments for its own account, including, for example, through investment and co-investment vehicles established for KKR personnel and associates. The Adviser and its affiliates are not restricted from forming additional investment funds, from entering into other investment advisory relationships (including, among others, relationships with clients that are employee benefit plans subject to ERISA and related regulations), or from engaging in other business activities, even though such activities may be in competition with the Fund and/or may involve substantial time and resources of the Adviser. For example, the Adviser may invest, on behalf of an affiliated fund, in a company that is a competitor of one of the Fund's portfolio companies or that is a service provider, supplier, customer or other counterparty with respect to one of the Fund's portfolio companies. The Adviser will provide advice and recommendations to any such companies without regard to the Fund's interests. In addition, the Adviser's ability to effectively implement the Fund's investment strategies may be limited to the extent that contractual obligations relating to these permitted activities restrict the Adviser's ability to engage in transactions that they may otherwise be interested in pursuing. Affiliates of the Adviser, whose primary business includes the origination of investments, engage in investment advisory business with accounts that compete with the Fund.

- The Adviser and its affiliates may give advice and recommend securities to other clients which may differ from, or be contrary to, advice given to, or securities recommended or bought for, the Fund even though their investment objectives may be similar to the Fund's.
- To the extent not restricted by confidentiality requirements or applicable law, the Adviser may apply experience and information gained in providing services to the Fund's portfolio companies in providing services to competing companies invested in by affiliates' other clients.
- As a registered investment company, the Fund may be limited in its ability to invest in any investment in which the Adviser or its affiliates' other clients have an investment. The Fund may also be limited in its ability to co-invest with the Adviser or one or more of its affiliates. Some of these co-investments would only be permitted pursuant to an exemptive order from the SEC.
- The nature of the Adviser's businesses and the participation by its employees in creditors committees, steering committees, or boards of directors of portfolio companies, may result in the Adviser receiving material non-public information from time to time with respect to publicly held companies or otherwise becoming an insider with respect to such companies. The possession of inside information or insider status with respect to an investment or potential investment by the Adviser or its personnel may restrict the Adviser's ability to enter into or exit from potentially profitable investments for the Fund which could have an adverse effect on the Fund's results of operations.
- The Fund depends to a significant extent on the Adviser's access to the investment professionals and senior management of KKR and the information and deal flow generated by the KKR investment professionals and senior management during the normal course of their investment and portfolio management activities. The senior management and the investment professionals of the Adviser source, evaluate, analyze and monitor the Fund's investments. The Fund's future success will depend on the continued service of the senior management team and investment professionals of the Adviser.
- The Adviser's relationship with other advisory clients and with KKR could create a conflict of interest to the extent the Adviser becomes aware of inside information concerning investments or potential investment targets. The Fund and the Adviser have implemented compliance procedures and practices, including information-sharing policies and procedures, that are designed to ensure that inside information is not used for making investment decisions on the Fund's behalf. The Fund cannot assure its investors, however, that these procedures and practices will be effective. Although the Fund plans to leverage KKR's firm-wide resources to help source, conduct due diligence on, structure, syndicate and create value for the Fund's investments, KKR's information-sharing policies and procedures, as well as certain legal and contractual constraints, could significantly limit the Fund's ability to do so. For example, from time to time KKR's personnel may be in possession of material non-public information with respect to the Fund's investments, and as a result, such personnel will be restricted by KKR's information-sharing policies and procedures or by law or contract from sharing such information with the management team of the Fund, even where the disclosure of such information would be in the best interests of the Fund or would otherwise influence decisions taken by the members of the management team with respect to that investment. In addition, this conflict and these procedures and practices may limit the freedom of the Adviser to enter into or exit from potentially profitable investments for the Fund which could have an adverse effect on the Fund's results of operations. Conversely, the Adviser may pursue investments for the Fund without obtaining access to confidential information otherwise in its or KKR's possession, which information, if reviewed, might otherwise impact the Adviser's judgment with respect to such investments. Accordingly, the investment activities of KKR's other businesses may differ from, or be inconsistent with, the activities that are undertaken for the Fund, and there can be no assurance that the Fund will be able to fully leverage the resources and industry expertise of KKR's other businesses. Additionally, there may be circumstances in which one or more individuals associated with KKR will be precluded from providing services to the Fund because of certain confidential information available to those individuals or to other parts of KKR.

- The Adviser may in the future develop new businesses such as providing investment banking, advisory and other services to corporations, financial sponsors, management or other persons. Such services may relate to transactions that could give rise to investment opportunities that are suitable for the Fund. In such case, the Adviser's client would typically require the Adviser to act exclusively on its behalf, thereby precluding the Fund from participating in such investment opportunities. The Adviser would not be obligated to decline any such engagements in order to make an investment opportunity available to the Fund. In addition, the Adviser may come into the possession of information through these new businesses that limits the Fund's ability to engage in potential transactions.

- The 1940 Act limits the Fund's ability to invest in, or hold securities of, companies that are controlled by funds managed by KKR. Any such investments could create conflicts of interest between the Fund, the Adviser and KKR. The Adviser may also have, or enter into, advisory relationships with other advisory clients (including, among others, employee benefit plans subject to ERISA and related regulations) that could lead to circumstances in which a conflict of interest between the Adviser's advisory clients could exist or develop. In addition, to the extent that another client of the Adviser or KKR holds a different class of securities than the Fund, the interest of such client and the Fund may not be aligned. As a result of these conflicts and restrictions, the Adviser may be unable to implement the Fund's investment strategies as effectively as it could have in the absence of such conflicts or restrictions. In order to avoid these conflicts and restrictions, the Adviser may choose to exit these investments prematurely and, as a result, the Fund would forgo any future positive returns associated with such investments.

- Certain other KKR client accounts or proprietary accounts may have investment objectives, programs, strategies and positions that are similar to, or may conflict with, those of the Fund, or may compete with, or have interests adverse to, the Fund. This type of conflict could affect the prices and availability of the securities or interests in which the Fund invests. KKR may give advice or take action with respect to the investments held by, and transactions of, other KKR client accounts or proprietary accounts that may be different from or otherwise inconsistent with the advice given or timing or nature of any action taken with respect to the investments held by, and timing or nature of any action taken with respect to the investments held by, and transactions of, the Fund. Such different advice and/or inconsistent actions may be due to a variety of reasons, including, without limitation, the differences between the investment objective, program, strategy and tax treatment of the other KKR client accounts or proprietary accounts and the Fund or the regulatory status of other KKR client accounts and any related restrictions or obligations imposed on KKR as a fiduciary thereof. Such advice and actions may adversely impact the Fund.

- KKR, for its own account, may enter into real-estate related transactions with Fund portfolio companies. Such transactions may include, for example, buying or selling real estate assets, acquiring or entering into leasing arrangements or amending such arrangements, or transferring options or rights of first refusal to acquire real estate assets. Such transactions, which do not involve securities, are not governed by restrictions on principal transactions and cross transactions but are subject to specific policies and procedures established by KKR to manage related conflicts.

- The 1940 Act prohibits the Fund from participating in certain transactions with certain of its affiliates including an Adviser-affiliated broker-dealer. The Fund generally will be prohibited, for example, from buying or selling any securities from or to another client of the Adviser or of KKR. The 1940 Act also prohibits certain joint transactions with certain of the Fund's affiliates, which in certain circumstances could include investments in the same portfolio company (whether at the same or different times to the extent the transaction involves jointness) or transactions in which a broker-dealer affiliated with the Adviser participates as principal with the Fund. If a person acquires more than 25% of the Fund's voting securities, the Fund will be prohibited from buying or selling any security from or to such person or certain of that person's affiliates, or entering into prohibited joint transactions with such persons. Similar restrictions limit the Fund's ability to transact business with its officers or trustees or their affiliates. The SEC has interpreted the 1940 Act rules governing transactions with affiliates to prohibit certain joint transactions involving entities that share a common investment adviser. As a result of these restrictions, the scope of investment opportunities that would otherwise be available to the Fund may be limited.

- The 1940 Act imposes significant limits on co-investment with affiliates of the Fund, and the Fund generally will not be permitted to co-invest alongside its affiliates in privately negotiated transactions unless the Fund obtains an exemptive order from the SEC or the transaction is otherwise permitted under existing regulatory guidance, such as transactions where price is the only negotiated term, and will not participate in transactions where other terms are negotiable. This reduces the amount of transactions in which the Fund can participate and makes it more difficult for the Fund to implement its investment objectives.

(a)(3) Portfolio Manager Compensation

Consistent with KKR's global, integrated culture, KKR has one firm-wide compensation and incentive structure based on a global profit and loss statement, which covers each of the portfolio managers. KKR's compensation structure is designed to align the interests of the investment personnel serving the Fund with those of the Fund's shareholders and to give everyone a direct financial incentive to ensure that all of KKR's resources, knowledge and relationships around the world are utilized to maximize risk-adjusted returns for each strategy.

Each of KKR's senior executives, including each of the portfolio managers responsible for the day-to-day management of the Fund, receives a base salary and is eligible for a cash bonus and equity compensation, as well as additional incentives including dollars at work in KKR fund investments (other than the Fund) and equity compensation. The cash bonus, equity compensation and dollars at work are discretionary, and dollars at work and equity awards are typically subject to a vesting period of several years.

All final compensation and other longer-term incentive award decisions are made by the KKR Management Committee based on input from managers. Compensation and other incentives are not formulaic, but rather are judgment and merit driven, and are determined based on a combination of overall firm performance, individual contribution and performance, business unit performance, and relevant market and competitive compensation practices for other businesses and the individual roles/responsibilities within each of the businesses.
