Item 8.01

Other Events.

On September 15, 2015, Depomed, Inc. (the Company) filed a patent infringement lawsuit in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey against Actavis Elizabeth LLC, Actavis, Inc. and Actavis LLC (collectively, Actavis).

Actavis previously filed an Abbreviated New Drug Application (ANDA) with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to market generic Nucynta® ER (tapentadol hydrochloride, extended release) tablets and it served Paragraph IV certifications on the patents then listed in FDA's Orange Book for Nucynta® ER. At the time, Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc. owned the rights to Nucynta ER and it filed a patent infringement suit against Actavis. Subsequently, U.S. Patent No. 8,536,130 (130 patent) issued and was listed in the Orange Book for Nucynta ER, but Actavis did not file a Paragraph IV certification on this patent.

The Company believes that Actavis's proposed generic product would infringe the 130 patent if its generic products are approved.
