INTERNAL RULES OF THE
COMPLIANCE AND RISK COMMITTEE

The Board of Directors of Vale S.A. ( Vale or the Company ), in exercise of its powers, approved the Internal Rules of the Compliance and Risk Committee ( Committee ), to govern its composition and workings, as well as the relationship between the Committee and the Company's other bodies, under Section II, of Chapter IV of Vale's By-Laws, as follows:

CHAPTER I - MISSION

1.1 The mission of Vale's Compliance and Risk Committee is to advise Vale's Board of Directors, including by proposing improvements related to its area of work, in order to increase the efficiency and quality of the decisions of this collective body and ensure that the Company's operations are conducted in conformity with law, ethics and internal controls.

CHAPTER II - COMPOSITION AND COMPENSATION

2.1 The Advisory Committee shall be formed by the Board of Directors and shall comprise three (3) to five (5) members, two of which shall necessarily be principal members of the Board of Directors and the others shall be appointed from among the principal or alternate members of such body, or an independent professional as set forth in item 2.3. The exact number of members shall be defined by the Board of Directors at the meeting for their appointment.

2.2 The members of the Committees must have proven experience and technical skills in relation to matters that are the Committee's responsibility.

2.3 The Board of Directors may appoint an independent professional, provided that he or she has proven expertise in Compliance and/or Risk Management and/or Corporate Governance and the limit of up to five (5) members is observed.

2.3.1 For purposes of these Internal Rules, a professional shall be considered independent if he or she:
