TELUS announces successful acquisition of Emergis

Creates leading electronic health care solutions provider

Vancouver, B.C. and Montréal, QC TELUS Corporation (TSX: T, T.A; NYSE: TU) and Emergis Inc. (TSX: EME) today announced that 6886116 Canada Ltd., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of TELUS, has been successful in its bid to acquire Emergis under its previously announced offer to acquire all of the common shares of Emergis (including common shares issuable upon the exercise or surrender of any options). A total of approximately 84,876,494 common shares representing approximately 94% of the outstanding common shares of Emergis (on a fully-diluted basis) were validly deposited to the offer, which expired at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) on January 16, 2008. With all conditions of the offer having been satisfied, 6886116 Canada Ltd. has taken up the tendered shares and will pay to the Depository $8.25 per share in cash for these shares on January 17, 2008.

We are very pleased with the strong acceptance of our offer, said Joe Natale, President of TELUS Business Solutions, and we welcome the Emergis team and its CEO François Côté to the TELUS team. We look forward to helping lead the transformation of healthcare in Canada by providing advanced electronic health record, claims processing and pharmacy solutions. In addition, Emergis' strong suite of financial services solutions complements TELUS' strength in the financial services sector.

This is a great opportunity for our employees and for the customers of both our organizations, said François Côté, President and CEO of Emergis. Combining our proven capabilities with TELUS' customer base, strong brand, and financial resources positions us to lead the development of electronic solutions for the healthcare and financial services industries.

TELUS, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, intends to exercise its statutory rights under the Canada Business Corporations Act to purchase all of the remaining shares by compulsory acquisition. Upon completion of the compulsory acquisition, it intends to de-list the Emergis common shares from The Toronto Stock Exchange and to apply to securities regulatory authorities for Emergis to cease to be a reporting issuer.

Forward Looking Statements

This news release contains forward-looking statements about TELUS and Emergis that are intended to be covered by the safe harbour for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this news release are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may prove to not be accurate and readers are cautioned to not place undue reliance on them.

Statements that address activities, events or developments that TELUS or Emergis expects, believes or anticipates will or may occur in the future are forward-looking statements. These statements include but are not limited to those regarding: strategic plans and expectations; business and financial prospects; expected efficiencies and economies of scale from the transaction; future financial or operating performance and cash flows, including improved growth and returns; and statements regarding strategies, objectives, goals and targets.

Such forward-looking statements are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and are generally beyond the control of TELUS and Emergis that could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed in or implied or projected by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include but are not limited to the risk factors disclosed and identified in TELUS and Emergis public filings made with securities regulatory authorities in Canada (on SEDAR at www.sedar.com) and the Securities and Exchange Commission in the United States (on EDGAR at www.sec.gov), as applicable, and also include the following risks, uncertainties and other possibilities: approvals required to be obtained by Emergis from regulatory and other agencies and bodies will not be obtained in a timely manner; anticipated benefits, efficiencies and cost savings from the business combination or related divestitures cannot be fully realized; costs or difficulties related to the integration of Emergis and TELUS operations will be greater than expected; business and economic conditions in the principal markets for the companies' products and other anticipated and unanticipated costs and expenses and other risk factors relating to Emergis and TELUS, as well as risk factors relating to the business of Emergis, including: adverse industry events, the adoption rate of Emergis solutions, its ability to deliver development and implementation projects in a timely manner, the obtaining of any necessary customer consents, the non-renewal of major contracts which expire in the near term, complexities and timing of signing large customer contracts, exposure under contract indemnities, defects in software or failures in the processing of transactions and security and privacy breaches.

The forward-looking statements included in this news release represent TELUS' and Emergis' views as of the date hereof. While the companies anticipate that subsequent events and developments may cause their views to change, they specifically disclaim any obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this news release or any other forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of either of them. The forward-looking statements contained in this news release should not be relied upon as representing their views as of any date other than the date hereof.
