To the Stockholders of China Printing, Inc.:

The attached Information Statement is being delivered by China Printing, Inc. INFORMATION STATEMENT

CHINA PRINTING IS NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND A PROXY.

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about October 25, 2005 to all stockholders of record of China Printing, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Corporation"). It is being furnished in connection with the adoption of an amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation approved by written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock. The Corporation anticipates that the approved amendment will become effective on or after November 15, 2005. A copy of the amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation is attached to this document as Exhibit A.

On September 27, 2005, the Corporation's board of directors adopted a resolution proposing and declaring advisable an amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation. Specifically, the board of directors proposed that the Corporation's name be changed to CYIOS Corporation.

On September 27, 2005, said resolution was approved by the written consent of holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Corporation's common stock entitled to vote thereon in accordance with the provisions set forth in Nevada corporate law and the Corporation's bylaws. The board of directors decided to obtain the written consent of holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock entitled to vote on the amendment in order to eliminate the cost and delay involved in holding a special meeting of the Corporation's stockholders and to amend the articles of incorporation in a timely manner.

The record date for purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to vote and to whom this Information Statement is to be sent is September 27, 2005. As of the record date, the Corporation had 20,849,406 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on the amendment, with each share of common stock entitled to one vote. The holders of 13,900,000 shares of the issued and outstanding common stock, representing approximately 66.8% of the votes entitled to be cast with regard to the amendment, approved the amendment by written consent.

Pursuant to regulations promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the amendment may not be effected until at least twenty (20) calendar days after this Information Statement is sent to the Corporation's stockholders. The Corporation anticipates that the amendment will become effective on or after November 15, 2005.

There will not be a meeting of stockholders and none is required under the Nevada Corporate Law because this action has been approved by written consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of voting common stock. Under Nevada Corporate Law and Section 14(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Corporation is required to provide prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting to stockholders of record who have not consented in writing to this action. This Information Statement is intended to provide you with the required notice.

NAME CHANGE TO CYIOS CORPORATION

The Corporation's boards of directors and the stockholders holding a majority of its common stock have approved the change of the Corporation's name from "China Printing, Inc." to "CYIOS Corporation" by means of an amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation. The corporate name change will become effective upon the filing of an amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation with the Nevada Secretary of State, which is expected to occur as soon as is reasonably practicable on or after the twentieth (20th) day following the mailing of this Information Statement to stockholders.

The decision to change the Corporation's name to CYIOS Corporation was taken as necessary as a result of our failed attempt to enter into a share exchange with Harbin Yinhai Technology Development Company Ltd., a Chinese corporation ("Yinhai"). Under this exchange, Yinhai would have taken a controlling position in the Corporation. This would have resulted in the Corporation's business changing to a business focused on China based printing. Accordingly, Corporation changed its name from Worldteq Group International, Inc. to China Printing, Inc. in anticipation of the consummation of the share exchange. Since the share exchange failed to materialize and therefore, since the corporation's business in no way relates to printing in China, the name China Printing, Inc. is undesirable for purposes of conducting the corporation's business.

As the Corporation recently acquired the wholly owned subsidiary CYIOS Corporation, a Maryland corporation, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated September 19, 2005, as reported by the Corporation on September 19, 2005 on Form 8-K. Concurrently with the stock purchase, director of the corporation, Timothy Carnahan, became President, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the corporation. The board of directors of the Corporation has concluded that, based on the current business of the Corporation and the identity of its new Chief Executive Officer, that the Corporation's business would be better conducted under the name CYIOS Corporation than under the name China Printing, Inc. Such a name change was not required by the Stock Purchase Agreement with Mr. Carnahan, nor is it required for the operation of the CYIOS Corporation subsidiary. However, the Board of Directors believes that less confusion will occur in the marketplace and the Corporation will be better served by this name change.

The Corporation is currently involved in the continuation of its Worldteq telecommunications business and the operation of its newly acquired CYIOS Corporation subsidiary. The Corporation intends to run its Worldteq telecommunications business consistent with its historical practices. The corporation is in the process of determining specifically how it will operate the newly acquired CYIOS Corporation subsidiary.

CORPORATE SECURITIES

The voting and other rights that accompany the Corporation's securities will not be affected by the change in corporate name. However, both the ticker symbol, which is "CHPR" and the CUSIP number will change as a result of the Corporation's name change. Stockholders may, but need not, exchange their certificates to reflect the change in corporate name and CUSIP number. Your existing certificate or certificates will continue to represent shares of the Corporation's common stock as if its name had not changed. The Corporation's transfer agent will issue stock certificates with its new name as stock certificates are sent in upon transfers of shares by existing stockholders. Until you sell or otherwise transfer your shares of common stock, there is no need to send your existing stock certificates to the transfer agent or the Corporation.

VOTE REQUIRED

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is required for approval of the amendment to Corporation's articles of incorporation. The Corporation has obtained this approval through the written consent of stockholders owning a majority of the outstanding voting shares of its common stock. Therefore, an extraordinary meeting of the stockholders to approve amendment is unnecessary and will not take place for this purpose.

ABSENCE OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

No dissenters' or appraisal rights are available to the Corporation's stockholders under the Nevada Corporate Law in respect to this amendment to the Corporation's articles of incorporation.
