Item 7.01 Regulation FD.

During a conference call on November 14, 2014, RiceBran Technologies (the “Company”) updated its financial projections for 2014 and disclosed certain financial projections for 2015. The Company projects that its consolidated revenue for 2014 will be in the range of $40 to $42 million with a negative Adjusted EBITDA of $2 to $3 million. The Company projects that its consolidated revenue for 2015 will exceed $67 million with a positive Adjusted EBITDA between 10% and 12% of the Company’s net revenue.

The Company utilizes “Adjusted EBITDA” as a supplemental measure in its ongoing analysis of short term and long term cash requirement and liquidity needs. Adjusted EBITDA does not represent cash flows from operations as defined by GAAP, is not a measure derived in accordance with GAAP and should not be considered as an alternative to net income (the most comparable GAAP financial measure to EBITDA). The Company uses Adjusted EBITDA as an indicator of our current financial performance. By eliminating the impact of all material non-cash charges as well as items of a non-recurring nature (see items delineated below), the Company believes that Adjusted EBITDA provides a more accurate and informative indicator of its cash requirements. The reconciliation of GAAP and non-GAAP financial measures for the projected periods are determined as follows:

Beginning with Net income/(loss) as determined by GAAP, the following items are added back:

~~I~~nterest expense and interest income
~~I~~ncome taxes
~~D~~epreciation and amortization expenses
~~S~~hare based compensation expense (stock option grants and stock grants)
~~A~~ccruals for non-routine management bonuses
~~G~~ain or loss for sale of fixed assets
~~L~~osses from impairment of long lived assets
~~F~~inancing expenses related to debt issuances with derivative rights
~~L~~osses from extinguishment of debt
~~F~~oreign currency gains and losses
~~D~~erivative warrant liability expense or income; and

The resulting amount from the above calculation is defined as “Adjusted EBITDA”. Management uses Adjusted EBITDA as an indicator of cash flow either generated by or used in normalized operations without consideration of changes in working capital. Reconciliations of GAAP net income to Adjusted EBITDA are not provided because the Company cannot provide the reconciliation without unreasonable effort because it is unable to determine with specificity the exact amounts of the components of GAAP net income for the 2014 and 2015 fiscal years. Due to the very nature of certain reconciling items, it is not possible to predict with any reliability what future outcomes may be with regard to the expense or income that may ultimately be recognized in future periods.
