Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 2, 2007, Redhook Ale Brewery Incorporated (the "Company") adopted a Company-wide severance plan that permits the payment of severance benefits to all full-time employees, other than executive officers, in the event an employee's employment is terminated as a result of a merger or other business combination with Widmer Brothers Brewing Company ("Widmer").

Under the severance plan, an employee is entitled to receive severance pay equal to six months of their base pay in effect at the time of notice of displacement if the Company permanently terminates their employment as a result of a merger or other business combination with Widmer, and (1) at the time the employee receives notice of termination they are employed by the Company on a fulltime basis (i.e., are regularly scheduled to work 35 hours or more); and (2) the employee executes a full release of claims in a form acceptable to the Company.

An employee will not be entitled to severance pay if (1) the Company determines that their employment terminated for reasons other than as a result of a merger or other affiliation with Widmer; (2) the Company merges or enters into another business combination with Widmer and the employee is offered the same position or a new position with base pay that is at least 95% of their former rate of pay, and that does not involve a geographical relocation of more than 25 miles from the prior job site; (3) the Company merges or enters into another business combination with Widmer and the employee accepts any position, whether comparable or not to their former position; (4) the employee is on a leave of absence on the date of notice of termination and has not returned to work by the displacement date, unless either (a) the leave is a military leave; (b) the displacement date occurs during a leave of absence under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; (c) the employee is on a work related disability leave and provides the Company with a licensed medical doctor's certificate stating that the employee is not able to return to work by the displacement date; (5) the Company considers the individual to be or is treating the individual as a independent contractor; or (6) the employee refuses or fails to sign a release of claims in a form acceptable to the Company.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 3, 2007 the Company publicly disseminated a press release announcing it is entering into preliminary discussions with Widmer Brothers Brewing Company regarding the possibility of combining the two companies. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.
