Harold Shapiro to Retire from DeVry Board of Directors

Connie Curran Appointed Board Chair Effective at Nov. 6 Annual Meeting

DOWNERS GROVE, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 20, 2013--DeVry Inc. (NYSE: DV), a global provider of educational services, today announced Harold T. Shapiro, Ph.D., a board member since 2001 and chairman since 2008, has notified DeVry that he does not intend to stand for re-election at DeVry's next annual meeting of shareholders on Nov. 6. The board has appointed Connie Curran, Ed.D. to replace Dr. Shapiro as board chair effective at the annual meeting at which time Shapiro will be named director emeritus.

The board does not plan to immediately fill the vacancy created by Dr. Shapiro's retirement, and the size of the board would be reduced from 12 to 11 directors following the annual meeting.

"I am honored to succeed Harold Shapiro, and on behalf of the entire board, would like to thank him for his exceptional contributions during his 12 years of service to DeVry," said Curran. "I look forward to continuing to work with my fellow board members to further DeVry's purpose to empower our students to achieve their educational and career goals."

Shapiro said, "Dr. Curran is an exceptional talent, and I am confident she is the right choice to lead DeVry's board well into the future. Over the past decade, Dr. Curran's vast leadership and healthcare experience has been instrumental in making DeVry a leader in quality healthcare education. I am proud of DeVry's accomplishments during my time with the board, and believe the quality of our educational programs, diversified institutions and offerings, and strong organizational leadership positions DeVry for continued success."
