Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 15, 2016, CarMax, Inc. (the “Company”) announced the appointment, on November 14, 2016, of Jill A. Livesay as Vice President, Controller and Principal Accounting Officer of the Company. Ms. Livesay, 48, worked for Advance Auto Parts, Inc. from 1995 until 2016, serving as Senior Vice President, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer from December 2013 until September 2016 and as Senior Vice President, Controller from July 2005 to December 2013. Prior to 1995, Ms. Livesay worked for KPMG LLP and she is a certified public accountant. There are no family relationships between Ms. Livesay and any director or executive officer of the Company or any related person transactions involving Ms. Livesay and the Company.

In connection with her appointment, and pursuant to her offer letter, Ms. Livesay will receive an annual base salary of $375,000; be eligible for a target annual incentive bonus equal to 45% of her base salary under the Company’s Annual Performance-Based Bonus Plan; enter into a severance agreement on terms substantially the same as similarly situated executives; receive a sign on bonus of $50,000; and receive options to purchase Company common stock valued at $487,500, which will vest in four equal annual installments, and stock-settled restricted stock units valued at $162,500, which will vest on the third anniversary of the grant date.

Ms. Livesay succeeds Natalie L. Wyatt as Controller and Principal Accounting Officer. Ms. Wyatt stepped down as the Company’s Controller and Principal Accounting Officer effective November 14, 2016, but will continue with the Company as Vice President, Finance until her expected retirement in 2017.
