VFINANCE, INC. REPORTS RECORD REVENUES FOR THIRD QUARTER 2007

Company reports higher revenues than the comparable quarter last year and demonstrates benefits of revenue diversification while reducing certain operating expenses.

(Dollar amounts are approximated except for earnings per share)

BOCA RATON, FL, November 14, 2007 - vFinance, Inc. (OTCBB: VFIN) ("vFinance"), a financial services company with offices in the U.S., Latin America and Canada, specializing in growth opportunities, today reported revenues for the third quarter ended September 2007.

Revenues for the third quarter 2007 were $11,010,300, compared to $9,608,100 in the comparable quarter of 2006, an increase of $1,402,200, or 15%. Net loss for the third quarter was $641,300 or $0.01 per fully diluted share, compared to a net loss of $432,000 or $0.01 per fully diluted share in the third quarter of 2006. The third quarter 2007 net loss results encompasses depreciation and amortization of intangibles of $325,000 and stock based compensation expense of $120,000, compared to depreciation and amortization of intangibles of $310,200 and stock based compensation expense of $117,300 in the third quarter of 2006.

vFinance's liquid assets of approximately $5,222,200, as of September 30, 2007, comprised of cash and cash equivalents of $4,484,700 and marketable securities of $737,500, were approximately $7,000 less than our liquid assets as of December 31, 2006. In addition, the Company's cash flow from operating activities totaled $592,100 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, as compared to $734,600 for the same period in 2006. vFinance has no long term debt.

Adjusted EBITDA defined as net income (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and stock based compensation was a loss of approximately ($177,400) for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 compared to a loss of approximately ($9,600) for the comparable quarter last year. Adjusted EBITDA for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 was approximately $515,500, an increase of $46,400, or 10%, from adjusted EBITDA of $469,100 for the comparable period in 2006.

Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, adjusted for non-cash compensation expense is a key metric the Company uses in evaluating its financial performance. EBITDA is considered a non-GAAP financial measure as defined by Regulation G promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company considers EBITDA, as adjusted, an important measure of its ability to generate cash flows to fund capital expenditures, repurchase shares, fund other corporate investing and financing activities, and to service debt when it exists. EBITDA, as adjusted, eliminates the non-cash effect of depreciation and amortization of intangible assets and stock-based compensation. EBITDA should be considered in addition to, rather than as a substitute for, pre-tax income, net income and cash flows from operating activities.

Edgar Filing: VFINANCE INC - Form 8-K

The following table presents an approximated reconciliation of EBITDA, as adjusted, to net income as reported.

	Three Months Ended September 30		Nine Month September
	2007	2006	2007
Net Income (Loss)	$ (641,300)	$ (432,000)	$ (828,700)
Interest (Income) expenses, net	18,900	(5,100)	29,900
Depreciation & Amortizations of Intangibles	325,000	310,200	964,000
Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA)	(297,400)	(126,900)	165,200
Stock based compensation	120,000	117,300	350,300
Adjusted EBITDA	$ (177,400)	$ (9,600)	$ 515,500

"vFinance's results in the third quarter of 2007 continue to demonstrate that the infrastructure we have created, coupled with the diversification of revenue allows for resilience and financial stability in volatile markets without having a significant effect on our ability to preserve cash," declared Leonard Sokolow, Chairman and CEO, vFinance, Inc. "Additionally, we are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead for us, with the previously announced signing of a definitive merger agreement with National Holdings Corporation. Our combined forces should create one of the largest publicly traded financial services firms serving the middle market with the independent contractor model".

Alan Levin, CFO, vFinance, Inc. stated, "We continue to successfully refine our model, while growing our revenues organically and trimming our general and administrative as well as occupancy and equipment costs. This growth, coupled with our pending merger with National Holdings Corporation, will give us the opportunity to leverage the infrastructure we continue to build."

About vFinance, Inc.

vFinance, Inc. is a financial services company which specializes in high growth opportunities. The Company's proficiency in this marketplace flows from three principal lines of business: offering full service retail brokerage to approximately 12,000 high net worth and institutional clients, providing investment banking and advisory services to micro, small and mid-cap high growth companies and trading securities, including making markets in over 3,500 micro and small cap stocks and providing liquidity in the United States Treasury marketplace. In addition to the Company's core business, it offers information services on its website. Due to its focus, the Company believes it is well positioned to offer, through its 40 corporate and independent offices in the U.S. and other parts of the world, alternative investments, which have the potential to outperform market indices, and a full range of traditional investment options. vFinance Investments, Inc. ("vFinance Investments") and EquityStation, Inc. ("EquityStation"), both subsidiaries of vFinance, Inc., are broker-dealers registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and members of Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") (formerly the
