Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 11, 2012, the registrant entered into a Subscription Agreement with an accredited investor pursuant to which, among other things, the noteholder issued a Secured Convertible Promissory Note (the “note”) in the face amount of $1,200,000 at a purchase price of $1,080,000. The note carries simple interest at an annual rate of 4.5% and is due in full by April 2015. The note is convertible into the registrant's common stock at a fixed conversion price of $0.02 per share. The note has a predetermined paydown schedule, a four (4) month grace period on repayments and allows for prepayments at any time. The note also includes cross-default provisions; is secured by all of the registrant's and its subsidiaries' assets; and is guaranteed by each of the subsidiaries. The proceeds of the note are for targeted acquisition purposes. As part of the transaction, the registrant also issued to the noteholder eight year warrants to purchase 23 million shares at an exercise price of $0.0002 per share. In addition, the registrant issued up to an additional 12 million warrants at such price which can be exercised commencing May 11, 2013, up to an additional 15 million warrants exercisable commencing eight months thereafter, and up to an additional 25 million warrants exercisable commencing eight months thereafter. Depending upon the outstanding balance of the note, it is possible that some, or even all, of these additional warrants may never become exercisable. Both the note and warrants contain adjustments in the event of certain specified corporate events and blockers preventing the noteholder from owning more than 9.9% of the registrant's common stock at any time.

This brief description of the terms of the Subscription Agreement, note and warrants are subject to the terms of the full documents, copies of which are filed as an exhibit hereto.

Item 8.01. Other Events

On or before May 18, 2012, the registrant expects to file a notice with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) that it plans to implement a 50:1 reverse split of its outstanding common stock during May. The date of the split will depend upon the timing of the registrant’s filing of the necessary forms and FINRA’s review. However, it is anticipated that the record date will occur prior to the end of the current month, May 2012. The reverse split was approved by the registrant’s shareholders at its 2011 Annual Meeting. Under the plan, any shareholders holding a fractional share as a result of the reverse split will not receive a fractional share but will only be entitled to receive cash, equal to the market value, of such fractional share.
