Exhibit 99

UNILEVER COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF 82% OF CONCERN KALINA

London / Rotterdam, December 6th, 2011- Unilever announced today that, further to the announcement made on October 14th, it has obtained the necessary regulatory clearances in Russia and Ukraine, and completed the acquisition of 82% (1) of the outstanding shares of Concern Kalina, Russia's leading Beauty Company.

The transaction will transform Unilever's personal care business in Russia, giving it leading positions in skin care and hair care, as well as establishing a presence in oral care. It will also strengthen and re-balance Unilever's portfolio and competitiveness in Russia, an emerging market with considerable potential and one of Unilever's priority countries.

Important Additional Information - Next Steps

The amount paid to acquire the 82% stake is approximately RUB 17.4 billion. This is about RUB 0.7 billion higher than the amount previously announced, reflecting a number of adjustments in respect of cash equivalent items. The enterprise value for 100% of Concern Kalina is unaffected and remains approximately RUB 25.9 billion.

Unilever plans to cause Concern Kalina to delist the shares from the Russian Trading System (RTS) and MICEX stock exchanges in December 2011.

On or about January 10th, 2012 Unilever will offer to acquire all of the remaining Concern Kalina shares in Russia.

- o The price per share is expected to be RUB 4,267.92, as the highest price Unilever paid to the selling shareholders - but will be determined by Russian law.

Concurrently, Unilever will offer to all holders of Concern Kalina's American Depositary Shares (ADSs) and Global Depositary Shares (GDSs) a price per ADS/GDS equal to RUB 4,267.92, without interest and less any fees, currency conversion expenses, applicable taxes and government charges. This amount will be converted to U.S. dollars on or about the date that Unilever pays for the Concern Kalina shares tendered in the Russian offer.

On or about January 25th, 2012, information concerning the offer for ADSs/GDSs will be sent to ADSs/GDSs holders.

Concurrently, the Russian offer materials will be sent to the remaining Concern Kalina shareholders.

Unilever expects that the offers will remain open for approximately 80 calendar days, although the offer for ADSs/GDSs is expected to expire several business days before the expiration of the Russian offer.

In addition, if after consummation of the offer, Unilever and its affiliates own shares representing more than 95% of the outstanding shares of Concern Kalina, Unilever intends to purchase any Concern Kalina shares (including those represented by ADSs/GDSs) not owned by Unilever and its affiliates at a price determined by Russian law

(1)82% of outstanding shares of Concern Kalina acquired by Unilever includes shares being held by the subsidiary of Concern Kalina

--- ends ---

NOTES

The offer to holders of ADSs and GDSs (the "Offer") will be made for the securities of Concern Kalina, a company incorporated under the laws of Russia and will be made in the United States in compliance with Section 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and Regulation 14E thereunder. The Offer will be made in the United States by Unilever and no one else. The Offer will be subject to disclosure and procedure requirements of Russia which are different from those of the United States.

Unilever, certain affiliated companies and the nominees or brokers (acting as agents) may make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, shares in Concern Kalina outside the Offer during the period in which the Offer remains open for acceptance. If such purchases or arrangements to purchase are made they will be made outside the United States and will comply with applicable law, including the Exchange Act.

The final terms of the Offer will be contained in the offer document delivered to Concern Kalina. Investors and shareholders of Concern Kalina are strongly advised to read the offer document and related materials as soon as they have been published, as these will contain important information.
