TV AZTECA TO BEGIN TRADING ON SPAIN'S

LATIBEX MARKET ON NOVEMBER 16

Trading Under the Ticker XTZA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mexico City, November 11, 2004 TV Azteca, S.A. de C.V. (NYSE:TZA; BMV TVAZTCA), one of the two largest producers of Spanish language television programming in the world, announced that it has formally requested incorporation into Spain's Latibex market, and that expects to begin trading Tuesday November 16 under the ticker XTZA.

Latibex, the only international market dedicated to Latin American equities, was created in December 1999 and is regulated by the Spanish Exchange Market Law. This market represents an ideal way to efficiently funnel European investments to Latin America by allowing investors to buy and sell stock of principal Latin American companies with a unique operating system to contract and liquidate under the same currency: the euro.

TV Azteca's ordinary participation certificates (CPOs), will trade in Latibex in negotiating units representing 10 CPOs under the ticker XTZA, with full economic rights, but without voting rights for non-Mexican investors.

Incorporation into the Latibex market will allow accessing a universe of savvy European investors that have found an efficient platform to channel their resources to some of the most attractive companies in the Americas, commented Mario San Román, Chief Executive Officer of TV Azteca.

Bancoval, a Spanish institution specialized in services for financial organizations, will serve as the link between the two markets (entidad de enlace), and GBM, Grupo Bursátil Mexicano, a highly recognized Mexican brokerage house will act as the custodian for Mexico.
