Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Divestiture of TRISENOX Assets

On June 10, 2005, Cell Therapeutics, Inc. (the Corporation) signed an acquisition agreement pursuant to which it agreed to sell TRISENOX and all assets related thereto (the TRISENOX Assets) to Cephalon, Inc. (Cephalon) (the Acquisition Agreement).

The Acquisition Agreement provides that at the closing of the transaction, Cephalon will pay $69.5 million (the Initial Payment) in exchange for the TRISENOX Assets, including the capital stock of two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Corporation, Cell Therapeutics (UK) Limited, a United Kingdom corporation (CTUK), and PolaRx Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (PolaRx), and will assume certain liabilities of the Corporation relating to the TRISENOX Assets in exchange for the related assets. In addition, the Acquisition Agreement provides for up to an additional $100 million in payments upon achievement of specified sales and development milestones. The Initial Payment is subject to a post-closing working capital adjustment. Pursuant to the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, the Corporation shall provide transitional services to Cephalon related to the TRISENOX Assets for a period of six (6) months post-closing, which period may be extended under certain circumstances to an aggregate period of nine (9) months post-closing. The Acquisition Agreement also includes customary representations and warranties, covenants, indemnification and termination provisions.

Under the terms of the Financing Agreement between Cell Therapeutics, Inc., PolaRx Biopharmaceuticals, Inc. and PharmaBio Development, Inc. (PharmaBio) dated as of December 21, 2004, as amended (the Financing Agreement), the Corporation is required to use a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the TRISENOX Assets to repay PharmaBio.

The closing of the Acquisition Agreement and sale of the TRISENOX Assets is conditioned upon clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, repayment to PharmaBio and termination of the Financing Agreement, and other customary closing conditions. The transaction does not require the approval of the Corporation's shareholders.

The description of the terms and conditions of the Acquisition Agreement set forth herein does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Acquisition Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by this reference.

On June 13, 2005, the Corporation issued a press release announcing entry into the Acquisition Agreement. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is also incorporated herein by reference.
