ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 28, 2005, we entered into an employment transition and separation agreement with David H. Courtney, our Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President, Group Executive, Corporate Products & Services Group. Mr. Courtney has resigned from his employment with TiVo effective as of April 15, 2006. Once Mr. Courtney is no longer an officer of the Company, he shall also resign from his position as a member of our board of directors, unless the nominating committee of our board of directors decides otherwise in accordance with our corporate governance guidelines.

During the transition period commencing September 28, 2005 and ending on April 15, 2006 or such earlier date as the company determines, Mr. Courtney will perform his existing duties, as well as assist and cooperate with the company in identifying and recruiting internal and external candidates to assume some or all of his current duties and responsibilities. During the transition period, Mr. Courtney will receive his current base salary, and remain eligible to participate in all standard employee benefit plans and programs. Mr. Courtney will also receive his second half fiscal 2006 executive bonus compensation based on achievement of deliverables under the plan to be paid at the same time as to other executives, and will receive a grant of fully-vested restricted stock equal to $70,500, which represents the matching of Mr. Courtney's first half fiscal 2006 executive bonus, on the earlier of April 15, 2006 or when the other executives receive their restricted stock grants. Mr. Courtney's unexercised stock awards will continue to vest and be exercisable during the transition period, pursuant to the terms of our equity plans and the award agreements applicable to his awards.

Within ten days of his resignation on April 15, 2005, Mr. Courtney will receive the following lump sum severance payments: $300,000 representing 12 months of base salary, $50,000, representing his fiscal 2006 individual bonus target, and $112,500 representing nine months of fiscal 2007 target bonus compensation. As of the resignation date, Mr. Courtney will receive 12 months of accelerated vesting on all unvested outstanding stock awards. Mr. Courtney's rights to exercise any outstanding and vested stock awards following his resignation will be governed by our equity plans and the award agreements applicable to his awards, except that Mr. Courtney will have through December 31, 2006 to exercise the awards which were accelerated as described above.

Pursuant to the agreement, we will reimburse the cost of Mr. Courtney's continued participation in the Company's standard employee benefit plans for up to 12 months following his resignation. We have agreed to continue to indemnify Mr. Courtney against all claims related to actions arising prior to his termination and will use our best efforts to continue to include past officers and directors in our Directors and Officers Liability insurance, both for so long as Mr. Courtney is subject to any possible claim. We have also agreed to pay Mr. Courtney an aggregate of $18,750 within ten days of his resignation, and another $18,750 following April 15, 2006, for execution of the employment transition and separation agreement by September 28, 2005 and satisfaction of certain other conditions, and have agreed to reimburse Mr. Courtney up to $10,000 for legal expenses incurred in the negotiation of the agreement. Mr. Courtney's receipt of these severance benefits is conditioned upon his execution of a release.

The foregoing description of the employment transition and separation agreement with Mr. Courtney is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the agreement that will be filed as an exhibit with our Form 10-Q for the quarter ending October 31, 2005.
