Lincoln Financial Group & Jefferson Pilot Financial Combine Forces

Telephone Conversation Script, Points to be shared with MGAs

Today Lincoln Financial Group and Jefferson Pilot Financial are pleased to announce a merger of equals that will operate under the brand Lincoln Financial Group. We are joining forces to build a larger, more diversified organization – an even more powerful leader in the insurance and financial services industry.

You may have already seen the press release or other information via the media. I felt it was important to reach out to you directly today.

Once merged, the new company will be not only a premier company, but also one of the largest U.S. public life insurance companies. Our balance sheet will be strong, our ratings strong and appropriately geared to the markets we serve.

The merger creates a powerful distribution network for financial products with market-leading positions in each of its businesses.

Broader Product Portfolio Offerings Once Merged

Lincoln Financial's product strengths are in:

Life

Variable annuities

Mutual funds

Edgar Filing: JEFFERSON PILOT CORP - Form 425

Innovation (i.e. i4Life, MoneyGuard)

Jefferson Pilot's product strengths are in:

Life

Fixed annuities

Equity-indexed annuities

Group life, disability, dental

Highlights of combined product leadership include:

#5 in total Life sales

#1 in UL sales

#6 in VUL sales

#5 in VA sales

#8 in equity indexed annuity sales

#14 in fixed annuity sales

#6 in employer sponsored (DC/retirement plan assets)

#8 in group disability sales

#15 mutual fund family in 2004 Delaware InvestmentsSM

(data above from VARDS, LIMRA, Pensions and Investments and Barron's 2004 mutual fund family rankings)

Greater Distribution Penetration

We will have a powerful multi-channel distribution platform comprised of financial planning, general agency and wholesale distribution. The distribution will have depth and breadth across channels and geography.

Jefferson Pilot owns a communications company that operates TV and radio stations that will become part of the Lincoln Financial Group.

Jefferson Pilot delivers a quality group life, dental, and disability operation Benefit Partners in Omaha to the merged company.

Other Considerations:

Allow me to address a few additional thoughts for you:

You can expect the new Lincoln organization to continue to be a major force in the MGA/IMO channels.

This transaction will not impact our ability to do business with your firm. Be assured that you will continue to receive a high level of attention and focus, as your organization is very important to us. For today, it's business as usual same underwriters, field, and home office support.

On the ratings front, I can tell you that rating agency meetings were very positive. We will benefit from strong capital flexibility, an attractive risk profile and continued strong ratings as an AA company. All felt comfortable that our ratings will be more than sufficient to meet expectations of the markets we serve.

Both organizations are significant players in the MGA/IMO channels and we know there is some overlap. We'll be taking a close look in the days ahead to determine what makes good sense for ongoing support and service for your organization.

Once the merger is complete, Lincoln Financial Group's corporate offices will be headquartered in Philadelphia. Greensboro, NC will be the major center of operation for life insurance, and Fort Wayne, IN will be the center for annuity products. Significant operations also will be located in the companies' existing locations in Concord, NH, and Hartford, CT. Jefferson Pilot's group insurance business, located in Omaha, NE, will remain in place, as will Jefferson-Pilot Communications Company.

The two existing retail broker dealers, Lincoln Financial Advisors and JP Securities Corporation, will continue to operate with their current focus LFA on career planners and JPSC on independent registered reps.

Both companies have solid track records of successfully integrating acquisitions. Jefferson Pilot with Chubb, Alexander Hamilton, and Canada Life. Lincoln Financial with Cigna and Aetna. We expect this merger to be no different.

Changes in Leadership

Edgar Filing: JEFFERSON PILOT CORP - Form 425

Today's announcement includes acknowledgement of new senior management taking top-caliber players from both organizations. Jon Boscia, Chairman and CEO of Lincoln will serve as Chairman and CEO post-merger, while Dennis Glass, President and CEO of Jefferson Pilot will serve as President and Chief Operating Officer and as a member of the board of directors.

LFD will experience change in its leadership as Wes Thompson will move on to head up a new Lincoln Financial business segment called Employer Markets. Wes will bring together the various employer business and product lines within LFG that are currently splintered, such as 401(k), 403(b), COLI, Lincoln Director, Lincoln Independence and Lincoln Alliance brands. Wes will also have responsibility for Jefferson Pilot's group insurance operations.

Warren May will replace Wes as the new leader of LFD. Warren is the current leader of all of Jefferson Pilot's life and annuity distribution channels, including their retail broker/dealer. Warren has almost 30 years' experience in the insurance industry and is extremely well respected by peers, customers, and industry leaders. Warren's leadership will allow the new organization to continue to differentiate itself with our business partners. Warren and the combined teams remain committed to helping you grow and prosper.

Obviously none of these changes will be finalized until the deal is complete. We expect the closing to occur during the first quarter of 2006. We will continue to communicate with you as organizational definition emerges.

We are Committed to You

I want to reiterate LFG's continued commitment to you and your firm. We will keep you abreast of the transition as it develops. In the meantime, if you are interested in more information about the two companies, you can go to a shared website: www.lfgjpmerger.com.

I will email you the press release and a fact sheet right after this call so you can forward to other stakeholders in your organization as you see fit.

I'm sure you can appreciate that as two independent companies we were limited by law as to the discussions we were permitted to engage in prior to announcing the merger.

We are very excited about the prospects for the soon to be combined organization. It's business as usual as we all want to finish 2005 with a flourish!!

As always, we thank you for your business!!!

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Except for historical information contained in this document, statements made in this document are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (PSLRA). A forward-looking statement is a statement that is not a historical fact and, without limitation, includes any statement that may predict, forecast, indicate or imply future results, performance or achievements, and may contain words like: believe, anticipate, expect, estimate, project, will, shall and other words or phrases with similar meaning. We protection afforded by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the PSLRA. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from the results contained in the forward-looking statements. Risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to vary materially, some of which are described within the forward-looking statements include, among others: (1) the shareholders of Lincoln and/or Jefferson-Pilot may not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special shareholder meetings; (2) we may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause us to abandon the merger; (3) we may be unable to complete the merger or completing the merger may be more costly than expected because, among other reasons, conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) problems may arise with the ability to successfully integrate Lincoln's and Jefferson-Pilot's businesses, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (5) the combined company may not be able to achieve the expected synergies from the merger or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (6) the merger may involve unexpected costs or unexpected liabilities, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from our expectations; (7) the credit and insurer financial strength ratings of the combined company and its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; and (8) the combined company may be adversely affected by future legislative, regulatory, or tax changes as well as other economic, business and/or competitive factors.

The risks included here are not exhaustive. The annual reports on Form 10-K, current reports on Form 8-K and other documents filed by Lincoln and Jefferson-Pilot with the Securities and Exchange Commission include additional factors which could impact our businesses and financial performance. Given these risks and uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. In addition, we disclaim any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date of this document, except as may be required by law.
