Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 13, 2006, Alberto-Culver Company (Alberto-Culver), New Aristotle Holdings, Inc. (New Alberto), and Alberto-Culver USA, Inc. entered into a Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Amended Credit Agreement) with Bank of America, N.A., JPMorgan Bank, N.A., LaSalle Bank National Association, William Street Commitment Corporation, Citibank, NA, and Svenska Handelsbanken AB (publ), as Lenders (collectively, the Lenders), and Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent, which amended and restated Alberto-Culver's credit agreement dated August 31, 2004 (the Original Credit Agreement).

Pursuant to the Amended Credit Agreement, which has a five-year term expiring on November 13, 2011, the borrowers may borrow up to $300 million from the Lenders in either U.S. dollars or certain foreign currencies at an interest rate based on a fixed spread over LIBOR. No borrowings are currently outstanding under the facility.

The Amended Credit Agreement amended the Original Credit Agreement to provide for, among other things, (i) changes necessary to contemplate the separation of Alberto-Culver's consumer products business and beauty supply distribution business into two separate, publicly-traded companies and the consummation of various related transactions in connection therewith (collectively, the Separation Transactions), (ii) the addition of New Alberto as a borrower under the Amended Credit Agreement and the termination of Sally Beauty Company, Inc. and Beauty Systems Group, Inc. as borrowing subsidiaries under the Amended Credit Agreement, (iii) reductions in the fixed spread applicable to LIBOR-based borrowings under, and the facility and utilization fees chargeable pursuant to, the Amended Credit Agreement, (iv) an extension of the maturity date applicable to borrowings under the Amended Credit Agreement until November 13, 2011, and (v) amendments to the financial covenants applicable to New Alberto and the other borrowers substituting a consolidated interest coverage ratio covenant for the consolidated fixed charge coverage ratio covenant provided for in the Original Credit Agreement, and adding a limitation on cumulative dividends and other restricted payments made after the consummation of the Separation Transactions to $250 million plus 50% of New Alberto's consolidated net income from January 1, 2007 until the end of the most recent fiscal quarter prior to the declaration of such restricted payment.

This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Amended Credit Agreement, included as Exhibit 4 to this filing and incorporated herein by reference to this Item 1.01.

Alberto-Culver has engaged Goldman Sachs & Co., an affiliate of William Street Commitment Corporation, one of the Lenders, to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Separation Transactions. Upon the consummation of the Separation Transactions, Alberto-Culver has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee of $16.5 million. In addition, two of the Lenders, Bank of America, N.A. and JPMorgan Bank, N.A., or their affiliates, together with various other financial institutions, have entered into a commitment letter to provide, in connection with the consummation of the Separation Transactions, debt financing to New Sally Holdings, Inc. (New Sally), the entity that will operate Alberto-Culver's beauty supply distribution business after consummation.

of the Separation Transactions. These transactions are described in the proxy statement of Alberto-Culver and the prospectus-information statement of New Sally, each dated October 11, 2006, as filed by Alberto-Culver and New Sally with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
