EXPLANATORY NOTE

The purpose of this Registration Statement on Form S-8 of Titan Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (we, us or the Company), is to register 1,500,000 shares of the Company s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Common Stock).

PART I

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE SECTION 10(A) PROSPECTUS

ITEM 1 Plan Information.

Marc Rubin, M.D., our new President and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an Non-Statutory Stock Option Agreement (Option Agreement) with the Company, dated as of October 1, 2007. Under the terms of the option agreement, Dr. Rubin was granted a non-statutory stock option to acquire 1,500,000 shares of the Company s Common Stock, which options will be governed by the terms and conditions of the Company s 2002 Stock Option Plan (the 2002 Plan), as amended, even though they were not granted under the 2002 Plan. The option is exercisable at $2.40 per share and will vest and become exercisable on a monthly basis over a four-year period, provided, however, that he must be employed by us for at least 12 months before he is able to exercise the first year s portion of the option. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all unvested options will automatically become vested and exercisable immediately prior to the occurrence of a change of control. In the event Dr. Rubin s employment with us is terminated by us without Cause or by Dr. Rubin for Good Reason, as such terms are defined in Dr. Rubin s employment agreement with us, and if such termination occurs during Dr. Rubin s first year of employment with us, the option will become immediately vested and exercisable with respect to 25% of the total number of shares subject to the option. The option will expire on October 1, 2017, subject to earlier termination as provided in the 2002 Plan.

The following is a summary of certain terms from 2002 Plan applicable to Dr. Rubin s options.

2002 Stock Option Plan

The 2002 Plan is administered by a committee of not less than two outside members of the Board of Directors (the Committee).

Options may be exercised only while the optionee is employed by the Company or within three months of the date of termination of the employment relationship, except that: (i) if the individual is terminated for cause, the option shall terminate immediately and no longer be exercisable, (ii) if the nonqualified option is exercisable at the time the optionee s employment is terminated by death or permanent disability, it may be exercised within two years of the date of termination of the employment relationship, and (iii) in the case of the retirement of the optionee, the option will be exercisable prior to the date which is the earlier of two years following the date of retirement or the expiration date of the option. Payment of the exercise price of an option may be made by cash, by surrender of shares having a fair market value equal to the exercise price, or by any other means that the Committee determines.

The 2002 Plan may be amended or terminated by our Board of Directors at any time, provided that no amendment requiring stockholder approval by law or by the rules of the American Stock Exchange or any other market in which shares of Common Stock are traded may be made without stockholder approval, and further, that there shall be no amendment to the terms of any option under the 2002 Plan which would result in the repricing of an award, the cancellation of an award and substitution with an award with a lower exercise price or any similar amendment without stockholder approval. Also, no amendment or termination of the 2002 Plan may materially adversely affect any outstanding award without the written consent of the participant. The foregoing summary of the 2002 Plan is qualified in its entirety by the specific language of the 2002 Plan.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a general summary of the federal income tax consequences under current tax law of nonqualified stock option. It does not purport to cover all of the special rules, including special rules relating to participants subject to Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act and the exercise of an option with previously-acquired shares, or the state or local income or other tax consequences inherent in the ownership and exercise of stock options and the ownership and disposition of the underlying shares or the ownership and disposition of restricted stock.

A participant will not recognize taxable income for federal income tax purposes upon the grant of a nonqualified stock option.

Upon the exercise of a nonqualified stock option, the optionee will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the shares acquired on the date of exercise over the exercise price paid therefor, and the Company will generally be entitled to a deduction for such amount at that time. If the optionee later sells shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of a nonqualified stock option, he or she will recognize long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, depending on the period for which the shares were held.

In addition to the federal income tax consequences described above, an optionee may be subject to the alternative minimum tax, which is payable to the extent it exceeds the optionee's regular tax. In addition, the optionee's basis in such shares is increased by such excess for purposes of computing the gain or loss on the disposition of the shares for alternative minimum tax purposes. If an optionee is required to pay the alternative minimum tax, the amount of such tax which is attributable to deferral preferences (including the incentive option adjustment) is allowed as a credit against the optionee's regular tax liability in subsequent years. To the extent the credit is not used, it is carried forward.

ITEM 6 Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL) provides, in general, that a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, such as the Company, may indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than a derivative action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. In the case of a derivative action, a Delaware corporation may indemnify any such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court determines such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses. Additionally, pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL, a Delaware corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the provisions of Section 145 of the DGCL, as the same may be amended and supplemented, indemnify any and all persons whom it shall have power to indemnify under said section from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities, or other matters referred to in or covered by said section, and the indemnification provided for in the Certificate of Incorporation shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall insure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person. The Certificate of Incorporation also requires the Company to indemnify its officers, directors and employees to the fullest extent permitted by law as set forth in Section 102(b) of the DGCL, including full or partial indemnification for any judgment, settlement or related expense.

The Company's By-laws provide that any person made or threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding, whether it be civil or criminal, by reason of the fact that he or she, his or her testator or intestate, then is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or then serves or has served any other corporation in any capacity at the request of the Corporation, shall be indemnified by the Company against reasonable expenses, judgments, fines and amounts actually and necessarily incurred in connection with the defense of such action or proceeding or in connection with an appeal therein, to the fullest extent permissible by the laws of the State of Delaware. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other right to which such person may be entitled.

ITEM 9 Undertakings.

(A) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof), which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (B) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (C) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
