Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Microtune, Inc. (the Company) voluntarily contacted the Internal Revenue Service of the United States Department of Treasury (the IRS) regarding the findings of the Audit Committee investigation into the Company's stock option granting practices. On March 28, 2008, the Company paid the IRS approximately $150,000 upon completion of the examination by the IRS of the Company's payroll taxes for the years 2003 through 2006 and other matters related to the Audit Committee investigation. The Company previously accrued approximately $560,000 in estimated taxes and interest relating to this issue. As a result of the completion of the IRS examination, in the first quarter of 2008, the Company will realize a benefit to operating expenses of approximately $410,000 for amounts previously accrued in excess of the amounts actually paid to the IRS.
