CUSIP No. 757473 10 3

Pursuant to Rule 13d-2(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, this Amendment No. 7 amends the Schedule 13D dated August 22, 1995, amended by Amendment No. 1 dated May 19, 2004, Amendment No. 2 dated June 30, 2004, Amendment No. 3 dated September 13, 2005, Amendment No. 4 dated January 3, 2007, Amendment No. 5 dated November 13, 2007 and Amendment No. 6 dated June 20, 2008. Unless indicated otherwise, all items left blank remain unchanged and any items that are reported are deemed to amend and supplement, rather than supersede, the existing items in the Schedule 13D (as previously amended). All defined terms shall have the same meaning as previously ascribed to them in the Schedule 13D (as previously amended), unless otherwise noted.

Item 1. Security and Issuer.

This filing relates to the common stock of Craft Brewers Alliance, Inc. (CBA), the principal executive offices of which are located at 929 North Russell Street, Portland, Oregon 97227-1733.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

(a) On November 18, 2008, Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. (ABC) was acquired by InBev N.V./S.A. On that date, ABC and Busch Investment Corporation (BIC) became indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of InBev N.V./S.A. and InBev N.V./S.A. renamed itself Anheuser-Busch InBev N.V./S.A. (AB InBev). AB InBev is a Belgium corporation, the principal executive offices are which are located at Brouwerijplein 1, 3000 Leuven, Belgium.

(b) A list of the current executive officers and directors of Busch Investment Corporation is attached as Schedule 1. A list of the current executive officers and directors of ABC is attached as Schedule 2. A list of the current executive officers and directors of AB InBev is attached as Schedule 3.

(c) Neither the reporting persons nor AB InBev has during the last five years (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) was a party to a civil proceeding of judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws. To the knowledge of the reporting persons, none of the executive officers or directors of BIC, ABC or AB InBev has during the last five years (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) was a party to a civil proceeding of judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws. In connection with the foregoing, the reporting persons note the following.

In May 2008, Mr. Dutra, the Chief Financial Officer of AB InBev, received a warning from the Administrative Appeal Council for the National Financial System of Brazil. A warning, which is the lightest sanction available under applicable Brazilian law, represents the conclusion by the Administrative Appeal Council that, in its view, a breach has occurred. No fine, or any other consequence, attaches to a warning, other than being deemed a repetitive offender in the event of another breach in the future (and, as such, being then potentially exposed to heavier sanctions than would normally be associated with such other breach). The warning relates to the reporting in the 2000 financial year financial statements of Polar (Industrias de Bebidas Antartica Polar S.A., a Brazilian company that became a subsidiary of Companhia de Bebidas das Américas, a corporate affiliate of AB InBev (AmBev) in 1999) of (i) the net balance (immaterial to AmBev and to Polar) of certain inter-company loans of Polar, and (ii) restatements and other adjustments required by the new statutory auditors of Polar after it became a subsidiary of AmBev to conform with AmBev's accounting practices that increased the amount of certain reserves of Polar. Mr. Dutra, who had been appointed as an officer of Polar a few months before the relevant financial statement reporting, has expressed his intention to challenge the warning in a court of law.

PREVI, a Brazilian pension fund which is one of AmBev's largest minority shareholders, filed an administrative complaint against AmBev with the CVM in April 2004 alleging abuse of position by AmBev's controlling shareholders and breach of fiduciary duty by AmBev's directors in connection with the approval of the InBev-AmBev Transactions, appropriation of commercial opportunity and inadequate disclosure. The complaint requested, among other things, that the CVM render an opinion contesting the legality of the transactions and intervene to prevent the closing of the Incorporação. The CVM ruled in December 2004 that (i) there was no basis to conclude that there had been an abuse of position by the controlling shareholders or conflict of interests in relation to them, and (ii) that there was no indication of an appropriation of a commercial opportunity by the directors of AmBev, without prejudice to any further investigation that the staff of the CVM might conduct, as appropriate. Moreover, the CVM expressed its opinion that one director involved in the InBev-AmBev Transactions could not have intervened in the AmBev board resolutions related thereto, recommending further investigations by the staff. The CVM recommended also that the staff investigate the performance of the duty of care of other directors during the decision process and the adequacy of the disclosure proceeding of the transactions by AmBev's officers. The CVM requested certain information related to the InBev-AmBev Transactions. On 6 May 2009 AmBev was informed that the CVM had initiated formal complaints against certain AmBev directors and officers regarding the aforementioned investigations, including Marcel Herrmann Telles, Jorge Paulo Lemann, Carlos Alberto da Veiga Sicupira (also directors of AB InBev) and Felipe Dutra. AmBev's directors and officers presented their defenses on 17 August 2009. On 8 March 2010, the CVM published its official decision accepting settlement proposals pursuant to which the regulatory inquiry was closed without a decision on the merits, subject to the payment of: (i) 285,000 reais by each of Messrs. Lemann and Telles; (ii) 3,030,000 reais by Mr. Sicupira; (iii) 400,000 reais by Mr. Dutra; and (iv) 1,000,000 reais in aggregate by other members of the Board of Directors of AmBev. The settlement did not entail the recognition of any wrongdoing on the part of any person involved, whether express or implied, nor did it amount to an admission as to any of the alleged facts described in the regulatory inquiry.

The CVM also initiated an administrative proceeding in October 2008 in which it alleges that certain shareholders, members of the board of directors and officers of AmBev (including Marcel Herrmann Telles, Jorge Paulo Lemann, Carlos Alberto da Veiga Sicupira and Felipe Dutra) violated Brazilian Corporations Law and CVM rules, relating to (i) the potential use of privileged information in relation to the trading of AmBev shares between May 2003 and March 2004; (ii) the way certain information regarding AmBev was disclosed to the Brazilian market in March 2004; and (iii) alleged violation of AmBev's Stock Ownership Program. On 29 April 2009, the CVM published its official decision accepting a settlement proposal with Mr. Felipe Dutra pursuant to which the regulatory inquiry was closed without a decision on the merits, subject to the payment of 250,000 reais. In addition, on 8 March 2010, the CVM published its official decision accepting settlement proposals with Messrs. Lemann, Telles and Sicupira pursuant to which the regulatory inquiry was closed without a decision on the merits, subject to the payment of 5,000,000 reais by each of them. The settlements did not entail any admission of wrongdoing by the individuals involved, whether express or implied, or of any of the alleged facts described in the regulatory inquiry.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

On July 1, 2008, Widmer Brothers Brewing Company (Widmer) merged into Craft Brewers Alliance, Inc. (CBA), formerly named Redhook Ale Brewery, Incorporated. Busch Investment Corporation (BIC) was a shareholder of each of Widmer and CBA. As a result of the merger, the shareholders of Widmer, including Busch Investment Corporation, received shares of CBA. Upon the consummation of the merger, the total amount of shares of CBA owned by BIC was 6,069,047.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

BIC owns beneficially 6,069,047 shares of common stock, and has the sole power to vote or to dispose of the common stock (subject to certain contractual rights of restriction on their transfer). These shares represent 35.5% of the outstanding common stock.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.

ABI and CBA are parties to a Master Distributor Agreement dated July 1, 2004. The Master Distributor Agreement was amended as of July 1, 2008 pursuant to a Consent and Amendment between ABI, Widmer and Redhook. On August 12, 2010 ABI and CBA entered into the Second Amendment to Master Distributor Agreement, a copy of which is filed as an exhibit and the terms of which are incorporated herein.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits.

Exhibit 99.1 Second Amendment to Master Distributor Agreement dated as of August 6, 2010 between Craft Brewers Alliance, Inc. and Anheuser-Busch, Incorporated.
