NEWS RELEASE

Enbridge's Patrick D. Daniel honoured as Canada's Outstanding CEO of the Year

CALGARY, Alberta, October 17, 2011 Enbridge Inc. (TSX, NYSE: ENB) today announced Patrick D. Daniel, President and Chief Executive Officer, has been awarded the prestigious Canada's Outstanding CEO of the Year Award for 2011.

Pat has led Enbridge with the utmost integrity and respect for the company's many stakeholders and firmly established Enbridge as a North American leader in the safe and reliable delivery of the energy we rely on, said David Arledge, Chair of the Board, Enbridge Inc. Over his eleven years as CEO, he and his leadership team have delivered significant growth in the company's core liquids pipelines business, expanded Enbridge's natural gas transportation and midstream assets, notably in the United States, and built a growing renewable and alternative energy business that today has interests in more than 850 MW generating capacity.

The Advisory Board's choice of Pat Daniel as Canada's Outstanding CEO of the Year for 2011 was clearly well deserved, said John Wallace, President and Chief Executive Officer, Caldwell Partners. Under Pat's leadership, Enbridge has become Canada's largest distributor of natural gas, as well as a North American leader in delivering energy. They have made substantial investments in clean energy technologies with the goal of building healthy and sustainable communities. For more than 10 years, Pat has led Enbridge to significantly outperform their sector peers and the markets. Enbridge is also an exceptional community supporter having invested in hundreds of charitable and non-profit organizations across Canada and the United States.

Patrick Daniel was appointed President & Chief Executive Officer of Enbridge Inc. effective January 1, 2001. He became a Director of Enbridge Inc. in May 2000 and is also a director of a number of Enbridge subsidiaries. Prior to his current appointment, he was President & COO, and also previously served as CEO of Interprovincial Pipe Line. He also held senior management positions with Hudson's Bay Oil & Gas and Home Oil.

Mr. Daniel is a Director of Cenovus Energy Inc. and Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce and a member of the North American Review Board of American Air Liquide Holdings, Inc. An active industry and community volunteer, he is a member of the National Petroleum Council, a director of the American Petroleum Institute and volunteers with the United Way, the Nature Conservancy of Canada and numerous other non-profit organizations.

Founded and managed by Caldwell Partners, and sponsored by National Post, Business News Network and WestJet, Canada's Outstanding CEO of the Year Award provides recognition for outstanding leadership and achievement by a Canadian Chief Executive Officer. The Award has been presented to distinguished Canadian chief executive officers, from a broad range of industries, since its inception in 1990.
