Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 30, 2013, Continental Wind, LLC (the Issuer) (an indirect subsidiary of Exelon Corporation and Exelon Generation Company, LLC) successfully completed the issuance and sale of $613.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Issuer's 6.000% Senior Secured Notes due 2033 (the Notes). The Issuer's obligations under the Notes are, jointly and severally, fully and unconditionally guaranteed (the Guarantees), on a senior basis, by the Issuer's direct parent, Continental Wind Holding, LLC ( Holding), and the Issuer's subsidiaries (Holding and such subsidiaries, collectively, the Guarantors).

The Notes were offered and sold in private transactions in accordance with Rule 144A and Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws.

The Issuer received net proceeds from the Notes offering estimated to be approximately $591.0 million, after deducting the initial purchasers' discount and estimated costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the offering and the transactions contemplated thereby. The Issuer is distributing the net proceeds from the offering to Exelon Generation Company, LLC for its general corporate purposes.

The Notes and Guarantees are governed by an Indenture (the Indenture), dated as of September 30, 2013, among the Issuer, the Guarantors party thereto and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee (the Trustee). The Notes accrue interest from September 30, 2013 at a rate of 6.000% per year. Interest on the Notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on February 28 (or 29, as applicable) and August 31 of each year, beginning on February 28, 2014. The Notes mature on February 28, 2033.

The Notes will be redeemable at the Issuer's option, in whole or in part, on any date before the final maturity date of the Notes, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption, plus a make-whole premium determined as provided in the Indenture.

Subject to specified thresholds and qualifications and to reinvestment rights included or referenced in the Indenture, the Issuer may be required to redeem all or a portion of the Notes, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the outstanding principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date of redemption, under certain circumstances, including: (i) certain loss, casualty, condemnation, title and contract termination events; (ii) following receipt of proceeds from material asset sales or proceeds from certain specified asset sales; (iii) following receipt of proceeds from a tax equity option payment made in accordance with the Tax Equity Option Agreement, dated as of September 30, 2013, among Exelon Corporation and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as collateral agent; and (iv) from amounts retained in a distribution suspense account for longer than eight consecutive quarters if the conditions for distributions of such amounts shall have not been satisfied. Upon the occurrence of specific kinds of changes of control referenced in the Indenture, the holders of the Notes will have the right to cause the Issuer to repurchase some or all of the Notes at 101% of their face amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, to, but not including, the repurchase date, as provided in the Indenture.

In addition, the Indenture contains customary covenants by the Issuer and Guarantors and default provisions for the benefit of the holders of the Notes.

Certain affiliates of the initial purchasers of the Notes are lenders under the Issuer's credit facility entered into on September 30, 2013 and will receive a portion of the net proceeds from this offering.

The foregoing description of the Indenture is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Indenture, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
