Additional Information for Shareholders of United Bancorp, Inc.

Communication in this presentation does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval. In connection with the proposed merger, Old National has filed with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 that includes a preliminary Proxy Statement of United Bancorp, Inc. (United) and a preliminary Prospectus of Old National, and each of Old National and United has filed and will file other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction. A definitive Proxy Statement/Prospectus will be mailed to shareholders of United. United Shareholders are urged to read the Registration Statement and the definitive Proxy Statement/Prospectus regarding the merger when it becomes available and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. A free copy of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as well as other filings containing information about Old National and United, may be obtained at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). You will also be able to obtain these documents (when available), free of charge, from Old National at www.oldnational.com under the tab Investor Relations and then under the heading Financial Information or from United by accessing United's website at www.ubat.com under the tab Investor Relations and then under the heading SEC Filings.

Old National and United and certain of their directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of United in connection with the proposed merger. Information about the directors and executive officers of Old National is set forth in the proxy statement for Old National's 2014 annual meeting of shareholders, as filed with the SEC on a Schedule 14A on March 14, 2014. Information about the directors and executive officers of United is set forth in United's Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the SEC on February 28, 2014. Additional information regarding the interests of those participants and other persons who may be deemed participants in the transaction may be obtained by reading the Proxy Statement/Prospectus regarding the proposed merger when it becomes available. Free copies of this document may be obtained as described in the preceding paragraph.

Forward-Looking Statement

This presentation contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, descriptions of Old National Bancorp's financial condition, results of operations, asset and credit quality trends and profitability and statements about the expected timing, completion, financial benefits and other effects of Old National Bancorp's proposed merger with United Bancorp, Inc. (United). Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of the words anticipate, believe, expect, intend, could and should, and other words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements express management's current expectations or forecasts of future events and, by their nature, are subject to risks and uncertainties and there are a number of factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in such statements. Factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to: expected cost savings, synergies and other financial benefits from the merger with Tower Financial Corporation and proposed merger with United might not be realized within the expected time frames and costs or difficulties relating to integration matters might be greater than expected; the requisite shareholder and regulatory approvals for the United merger might not be obtained; market, economic, operational, liquidity, credit and interest rate risks associated with Old National Bancorp's businesses; competition; government legislation and policies (including the impact of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and its related regulations); ability of Old National Bancorp to execute its business plan (including its proposed acquisition of United Bancorp, Inc.); changes in the economy which could materially impact credit quality trends and the ability to generate loans and gather deposits; failure or circumvention of our internal controls; failure or disruption of our information systems; significant changes in accounting, tax or regulatory practices or requirements; new legal obligations or liabilities or unfavorable resolutions of litigations; other matters discussed in this presentation and other factors identified in Old National Bancorp's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date of this presentation, and Old National Bancorp does not undertake an obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or conditions after the date of this presentation.
