Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement
Merger Agreement

The Merger

On June 29, 2015, Willis Group Holdings plc, an Irish public limited company (Willis), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among Willis, Citadel Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a subsidiary of Willis (Merger Sub), and Towers Watson & Co., a Delaware corporation (Towers Watson).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Towers Watson (the Merger), with Towers Watson surviving the Merger as a subsidiary of Willis.

At the effective time of the Merger, each share of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Towers Watson (the TW Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger (other than shares held by Towers Watson, Willis or Merger Sub and dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive 2.6490 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable ordinary shares of Willis (the Merger Consideration). In addition, Towers Watson intends to declare and pay a pre-Merger special cash dividend in an amount equal to $4.87 per share, payable to holders of record of TW Common Stock prior to the closing date.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Towers Watson and ValueAct Capital (ValueAct), a beneficial owner of approximately 10.3% of Willis' s ordinary shares, entered into a Voting Agreement (the Voting Agreement) pursuant to which, among other things, ValueAct agreed to support the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the Transactions), including the Merger by voting all ordinary shares of Willis owned by ValueAct in favor of the Transactions. ValueAct also agreed not to enter into any voting agreement or voting trust or grant a proxy which is inconsistent with its obligations to vote in favor of the Transactions.

Conditions to the Merger

Each of Willis' s and Towers Watson' s obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to a number of conditions, including, among others, the following, as further described in the Merger Agreement: (i) approval of Willis shareholders of the issuance of Willis ordinary shares in the Merger, (ii) approval of Towers Watson shareholders of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (iii) effectiveness of the registration statement relating to the transaction, (iv) absence of specified adverse laws or orders, (v) expiration of the waiting period (or extension thereof) under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 as amended and the receipt and effectiveness of specified consents of, or filings with government entities, (vi) the Willis ordinary shares to be issued in the Merger being approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange and/or the NASDAQ, (vii) the representations and warranties of the other party being true and correct, subject to the materiality standards contained in the Merger Agreement, (viii) Willis, not, as a result of change in law, being treated as a domestic corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes as of or after the closing date, (ix) receipt by both parties of a tax opinion from each of their respective legal counsel, (x) material compliance by the other party with its covenants and (xi) no material adverse effect having occurred with respect to the other party since the signing of the Merger Agreement.

Representations and Warranties; Covenants

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants by Willis, Merger Sub and Towers Watson. The Merger Agreement also contains customary pre-closing covenants, including the obligation of Willis and Towers Watson to conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice and to refrain from taking specified actions without the consent of the other party. Each of Willis and Towers Watson has agreed not to solicit any offer or proposal for specified alternative transactions, or, subject to certain exceptions relating to the receipt of unsolicited offers that may be deemed to be superior proposals (as defined in the Merger Agreement), to participate in discussions or engage in negotiations regarding such an offer or proposal with, or furnish any nonpublic information regarding such an offer or proposal to, any person that has made such an offer or proposal.

The Merger Agreement provides that following the Merger, subject to the applicable approvals by Willis shareholders at a special meeting of Willis shareholders, Willis will effect (i) a consolidation (i.e., a reverse stock split under Irish law) of Willis ordinary shares whereby every 2.6490 Willis ordinary shares will be consolidated into one Willis ordinary share and (ii) an amendment to its Constitution and other organizational documents to change its name from Willis Group Holdings plc to Willis Towers Watson plc.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, at the closing, the board of directors of Willis will be composed of twelve (12) directors of which six (6) shall be designated by Willis and six (6) shall be designated by TW. In addition, at the closing, Dominic Casserley will resign as Chief Executive Officer of Willis and be appointed President and Deputy Chief Executive Officer and John J. Haley will be appointed Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the combined company.

Termination and Termination Fees

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights, including, among others, (a) the right of either Willis or Towers Watson to terminate the Merger Agreement if Towers Watson's stockholders fail to adopt the Merger Agreement or if Willis's shareholders fail to approve the issuance of Willis ordinary shares, (b) the right of either Willis or Towers Watson to terminate the Merger Agreement if (A) the board of directors of the other party changes its recommendation, in the case of Towers Watson, to adopt the Merger Agreement, and, in the case of Willis, to approve the issuance of Willis ordinary shares or (B) the other party materially breaches the no-shop, (c) the right of either Willis or Towers Watson to terminate the Merger Agreement, if prior to the receipt of such party's shareholder approval, such party's board of directors changes its recommendation; in the case of Towers Watson, to adopt the Merger Agreement and, in the case of Willis, to approve the share issuance, in order to accept a superior proposal and such party enters into a definitive agreement for such superior proposal and pays the termination fee to the other party (the Fiduciary Out) and (d) the right of either Willis or Towers Watson to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not occurred by March 31, 2016 (the Outside Date).

Towers Watson must pay a termination fee of $255 million if (A) the Merger Agreement is terminated by Willis as a result of a change of recommendation by the Towers Watson board of directors or a material breach by Towers Watson of the no-shop (B) Towers Watson terminates the Merger Agreement pursuant to the Fiduciary Out or (C)(1) the Merger Agreement is terminated by either Towers Watson or Willis for failure to close by the Outside Date or because Towers Watson shareholder approval is not obtained or by Willis due to a breach by Towers Watson which would result in a failure to meet the closing conditions described above and such breach is not curable prior to the Outside Date, (2) a competing proposal was publicly disclosed and not publicly, irrevocably withdrawn prior to the date of the Towers Watson shareholder meeting and (3) Towers Watson enters into a definitive agreement for a competing proposal within twelve (12) months following such termination and such competing proposal is consummated. In addition, Towers Watson must pay any and all out-of-pocket fees and expenses of Willis up to $45 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated by Willis or Towers Watson because Towers Watson shareholder approval is not obtained or Willis terminates the Merger Agreement due to a breach by Towers Watson which would result in a failure to meet the closing conditions described above and such breach is not curable prior to the Outside Date (the amount specified in the foregoing sentence will be credited against the amount in the previous sentence, if subsequently payable). Willis must pay a termination fee of $255 million or out-of-pocket fees and expenses up to $45 million in reciprocal circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the Merger Agreement has been included to provide shareholders with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any factual information about Willis or Towers Watson.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by Willis and Towers Watson with respect to matters as of specified dates. The representations and warranties reflect negotiations between the parties to the Merger Agreement and are not intended as statements of fact to be relied upon by Willis's shareholders; in certain cases, merely represent risk-allocation decisions among the parties; have been modified or qualified by certain confidential disclosures that were made between the parties in connection with the negotiation of the Merger Agreement, which disclosures are not reflected in the Merger Agreement itself; may no longer be true as of a given date; and may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by shareholders. As such, the representations and warranties are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement and may be limited or modified by a variety of factors, including: subsequent events, information included in public filings, disclosures made during negotiations, correspondence between the parties and disclosure schedules to the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time and you should not rely on them as statements of fact. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Willis's public disclosures.

Amended and Restated Employment Agreement Chief Executive Officer

On June 29, 2015, Willis entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement with its Chief Executive Officer, Dominic Casserley (the Amended Agreement), amending and restating Mr. Casserley's employment agreement with Willis dated October 12, 2012 (the Original Agreement). The Amended Agreement is subject to and conditioned upon the occurrence of the closing date of the Merger. The Amended Agreement becomes effective as of the closing date and provides that Mr. Casserley will serve as President and Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the combined company from such time until December 31, 2016, unless earlier terminated, or extended or amended by mutual agreement of the parties. Under the Amended Agreement, Mr. Casserley will continue to receive the same compensation as he received under the Original Agreement, including a $1 million annual base salary, target annual bonus opportunity equal to 225% of annual base salary (and a maximum opportunity equal to 400% of annual base salary), and for the 2016 fiscal year, an equity incentive award having a grant date value equal to 525% of annual base salary. Mr. Casserley will also receive the same benefits as he received under the Original Agreement, including such employee benefits as are provided to similarly situated senior management employees of Willis, as well as continue to receive certain perquisites.

As Mr. Casserley was entitled to certain severance benefits in the event of a qualifying termination occurring after a change in control under his Original Agreement, the Amended Agreement provides for these same severance benefits to Mr. Casserley upon the earliest to occur of his termination of employment by Willis without cause, his resignation for good reason, his death or disability, and the expiration of his employment term on December 31, 2016 (unless extend or amended by mutual agreement of the parties). In such case, Mr. Casserley will be entitled to receive, subject to executing a release of claims, (i) an amount equal to two times his annual base salary, payable in lump sum, (ii) an amount equal to two times his target annual bonus, payable in lump sum, (iii) a pro-rated annual bonus for a termination occurring in 2015 or a full target bonus (or if greater, actual bonus) for a termination occurring in 2016, payable in lump sum; (iv) 18 months of continued health coverage, (v) waiving of all service-based vesting requirements for unvested equity incentive awards, with all performance goals applicable to such awards being deemed to be met at the greater of actual or target levels.

Under the terms of the Amended Agreement, Mr. Casserley will be subject to noncompetition and nonsolicitation covenants for a period of two years following the termination of his employment with Willis.

Under the terms of the Amended Agreement, Willis continues to provide Mr. Casserley coverage under its directors and officers liability insurance and remains subject to other indemnification obligations.

The foregoing description of the Amended Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full employment agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendments to Employment Agreements Executive Officers

On June 29, 2015, Willis, or in certain cases, its subsidiaries, entered into employment agreement amendments (the Amendments) with each of its other executive officers, including its named executive officers, John Greene, Timothy Wright and Todd Jones. The amendments provide that the Merger will constitute a Change in Control under the respective employment agreements. The Amendments become effective upon, and are subject to, the occurrence of the closing date of the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full Amendments, which are filed as Exhibit 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4 hereto, and are incorporated herein by reference.
