Koninklijke Philips N.V. Announces Tender Offer for Certain Outstanding Notes

Amsterdam, The Netherlands Koninklijke Philips N.V. (Royal Philips or the Company) today commenced a tender offer (the Offer) to purchase for cash up to $400,000,000 combined aggregate principal amount (the Tender Cap) of its outstanding 6.875% Notes due 2038, 7.200% Notes due 2026, 7^{1/8}% Series A Debentures due 2025 and 7^{3/4}% Series B Debentures due 2025 (collectively, the Notes), in accordance with the acceptance priority level for each series (in numerical priority order) set forth in the table below (the Acceptance Priority Level), with 1 being the highest Acceptance Priority Level, and based on whether the Notes are validly tendered at or before the Early Tender Deadline (as defined below) or after the Early Tender Deadline. Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or before the Early Tender Deadline will be accepted for purchase before any Notes validly tendered after the Early Tender Deadline and at or before the Expiration Time (as defined below), regardless of the Acceptance Priority Level of such Notes tendered after the Early Tender Deadline.

- (1) Per $1,000 principal amount of Notes accepted for purchase by the Company. In accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase (as defined below), an early tender premium (the Early Tender Premium) will be paid to holders of Notes who validly tender, and do not validly withdraw, their Notes at or before the Early Tender Deadline and whose Notes are accepted for purchase. The Early Tender Premium is included in the amount of the applicable Total Consideration (as defined below).
- (2) Per $1,000 principal amount of Notes accepted for purchase by the Company and assuming the Reference Yield (as defined below) had been measured at 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on September 19, 2016 (see Schedule B of the Offer to Purchase). Calculated assuming a hypothetical Early Settlement Date (as defined below) of October 5, 2016.

The Offer is being made in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated September 20, 2016 (the Offer to Purchase), and the related Letter of Transmittal. The Offer will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on October 18, 2016, unless extended with respect to any or all series of Notes (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the Expiration Time) or earlier terminated. Holders of Notes must validly tender and not validly withdraw their Notes at or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on October 3, 2016, unless extended with respect to any or all series of Notes (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the Early Tender Deadline), to be eligible to receive the applicable Total Consideration (as defined below) for such Notes. Holders of Notes validly tendered after the Early Tender Deadline, but at or before the Expiration Time, and which are accepted for purchase will be eligible to receive the applicable Tender Consideration (as defined below) for such Notes. The applicable Tender Consideration is equal to (i) the applicable Total Consideration for such Notes minus (ii) the applicable Early Tender Premium (set forth in the table above) for such Notes. Holders of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will also receive Accrued Interest (as defined below) on their purchased Notes from the last interest payment date for such Notes to, but not including, the applicable Settlement Date (as defined below). Tendered Notes may be withdrawn at any time at or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on October 3, 2016, unless extended with respect to any or all series of Notes (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the Withdrawal Deadline), but not thereafter. Subject to applicable law, the Company expressly reserves the right to terminate, in its sole discretion, the Offer at any time at or before the Expiration Time.

The applicable Total Consideration for each $1,000 principal amount of Notes validly tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be determined as described in the Offer to Purchase in a manner intended to result in a yield to maturity, equal to the sum of (i) the applicable fixed spread (the Fixed Spread) specified in the table above for such Notes and (ii) the yield (the Reference Yield) based on the bid-side price of the applicable U.S. Treasury Security specified in the table above for such Notes, as calculated by Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Mizuho Securities USA Inc. (the Dealer Managers) at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on October 4, 2016 (such date and time, as the same may be extended, the Price Determination Time) with reference to the Early Settlement Date. The formula for determining the applicable Total Consideration is set forth on Schedule A to the Offer to Purchase. The Early Tender Premium is included in the amount of the applicable Total Consideration.

Holders of Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or before the Early Tender Deadline and accepted for purchase will receive the applicable Total Consideration for such Notes. The date of payment for such Notes is referred to as the Early Settlement Date. The Early Settlement Date is expected to be on October 5, 2016, the first business day following the Price Determination Time. If the aggregate amount of Notes purchased by the Company on the Early Settlement Date is less than the Tender Cap, holders of Notes validly tendered after the Early Tender Deadline, but at or before the Expiration Time, and accepted for purchase will receive only the applicable Tender Consideration for such Notes, which is equal to (i) the applicable Total Consideration for such series minus (ii) the applicable Early Tender Premium for such Notes. The date of payment for such Notes is referred to as the Final Settlement Date. The Final Settlement Date is expected to be on October 19, 2016, the first business day following the Expiration Time. References to the Settlement Date mean either the Early Settlement Date or the Final Settlement Date, as applicable.

In addition to the applicable Total Consideration or Tender Consideration, as the case may be, holders of Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn and which are accepted for purchase in the Offer will also be paid accrued and unpaid interest (rounded to the nearest cent) from the last interest payment date for such Notes to, but not including, the applicable Settlement Date (Accrued Interest).

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes that the Company will accept for purchase pursuant to the Offer is equal to the Tender Cap of $400,000,000. The Company expressly reserves the right, but is not obligated, to increase or decrease the Tender Cap in its sole discretion without extending the Early Tender Deadline or the Withdrawal Deadline or otherwise reinstating withdrawal rights, subject to applicable law.

On the Early Settlement Date, the Company will accept for purchase, subject to the Tender Cap and the Acceptance Priority Levels, all Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or before the Early Tender Deadline, which have a higher Acceptance Priority Level before accepting for purchase any Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn at or before the Early Tender Deadline which have a lower Acceptance Priority Level. If, on the Early Settlement Date, the Company purchases Notes having an aggregate principal amount equal to the Tender Cap, then no Notes tendered after the Early Tender Deadline will be accepted for purchase, regardless of the Acceptance Priority Levels of such Notes tendered after the Early Tender Deadline. If the Offer is not fully subscribed as of the Early Tender Deadline, then on the Final Settlement Date, the Company will accept for purchase, subject to the Tender Cap, additional Notes validly tendered after the Early Tender Deadline and at or before the Expiration Time, in accordance with the Acceptance Priority Level for each series of Notes. No tenders will be valid if submitted after the Expiration Time. Notes accepted for purchase in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offer may be subject to proration, so that the Company will only accept for purchase Notes in an aggregate principal amount up to the Tender Cap.

The Offer is not conditioned upon any minimum principal amount of Notes of any series being tendered. However, the Company's obligations to accept for purchase, and to pay for, Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the Offer (up to the amount of the Tender Cap) is subject to, and conditioned upon, the satisfaction of or, where available, the Company's waiver of, the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase.

The purpose of the Offer is to purchase the Notes in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions described in the Offer to Purchase in order to reduce the Company's outstanding debt and related interest expense.

This release is qualified in its entirety by the Offer to Purchase and the related Letter of Transmittal.

The Company has retained Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Mizuho Securities USA Inc. as Dealer Managers in connection with the Offer. Global Bondholder Services Corporation is the Depositary (the Depositary) and Information Agent (the Information Agent). For additional information regarding the terms of the Offer, please contact: Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. at +1 (212) 250-2955 (collect) or +1 (866) 627-0391 (toll free); Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated at +1 (980) 387-3907 (collect), +1 (888) 292-0070 (toll free) or +44-20-7996-5420 (London); or Mizuho Securities USA Inc. at +1 (212) 205-7736 (collect) or +1 (866) 271-7403 (toll free).

Any questions or requests for assistance or for additional copies of the Offer to Purchase or the related Letter of Transmittal and any amendments or supplements to the foregoing may be directed to the Information Agent by telephone at +1 (212) 430-3774 (for banks and brokers only), +1 (866) 794-2200 (for all others toll-free) or +1 (212) 430-3774 (international), or to the Dealer Managers at their respective telephone numbers above. These documents regarding the Offer are also available at <http://www.gbsc-usa.com/Philips>.

Anticipated Cash Flow and Income Consequences

Upon completion, the transaction is estimated to have the following consequences on cash flow and income assuming that: (i) $400 million aggregate principal amount of the 2038 bonds (which have the highest Acceptance Priority Level) are repurchased on the Early Settlement Date; and (ii) the Total Consideration for the 2038 bonds is equal to the Hypothetical Total Consideration (as set out above) of $1,340.64 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes accepted for purchase. In such case, the estimated cash outflow in the fourth quarter of 2016 would be approximately $536 million (approximately EUR 480 million). The transaction would also be reflected in the profit and loss account on the financial income and expenses line in the third quarter, resulting in an estimated reduction of income before taxes by approximately $145 million (approximately EUR 130 million). In each case, these estimates do not include accrued interest or fees and expenses related to the transaction. The final impacts will, in part, depend on movements in the underlying U.S. Treasury rates during the Offer, until the Price Determination Time, and on the amount of Notes of each series ultimately accepted for purchase. Going forward, the transaction is expected to result in recurring interest expense savings through to March 2038.
