PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

WageWorks, Inc. (the Company) is unable to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed, the Company is continuing its review of its financial statements and internal controls over financial reporting for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017. The Company's Board of Directors (the Board), previously concluded that certain financial statements for periods in 2016 and 2017 should be restated and should no longer be relied upon. The determination was made upon the recommendation of the audit committee (the Audit Committee) of the Board, as a result of its independent investigation of the Company's accounting practices, financial statement reporting and internal control over financial reporting for fiscal 2016 and 2017, and after consultation with the Company's independent auditors and management team.

Additionally, the Company expects to report material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2017 related to managing change and assessing risk in the areas of non-routine and complex transactions, tone at the top, and commitment to competencies in the areas of non-routine and complex transactions. As a result of the material weaknesses, the Board, upon recommendation of the Audit Committee, concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures were ineffective as of December 31, 2017.

While the Audit Committee has concluded its investigation, it may ultimately identify other accounting issues, further material weaknesses, and/or require the restatement of other Company financial statements for previous periods.

As a result of these events and related matters, as previously disclosed, the Company has experienced a delay in the completion of its financial statements, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and other related components of the First Quarter Quarterly Report and does not currently expect to file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q by the prescribed due date allowed pursuant to Rule 12b-25. The Company is working to complete the preparation of its financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2018 and the other portions of the First Quarter Quarterly Report, as well as its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, including the restated 2016 financial statements, as soon as practicable.
