Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 18, 2004, Merck & Co., Inc. (the "Company") hired Willie A. Deese as Senior Vice President, Global Procurement, and arranged for him to receive an interest free loan for $250,000 to assist with his relocation. Under the arrangement, the Company assumed responsibility for the bank loan, including interest, and agreed to forgive $50,000 of the principal each year, for a period of five years, provided that Mr. Deese continued to be employed by the Company. The amount forgiven was included monthly in Mr. Deese's taxable income. On May 24, 2005, Mr. Deese became an executive officer of the Company when he was promoted to President, Merck Manufacturing Division. The Company does not grant loans to executive officers. Therefore, on January 30, 2006, the Compensation and Benefits Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Committee") acted to accelerate forgiveness of the loan so that the entire remaining balance of $187,500 was forgiven and included in Mr. Deese's taxable income for 2006 and to direct that the bank loan be prepaid in full as soon as practicable. The revised arrangement is less valuable to Mr. Deese than the original arrangement because, on February 1, 2006, he paid withholding taxes on the entire forgiven amount, and the entire forgiven amount will be included in his taxable income for 2006 as opposed to over the remainder of the original five-year period. Therefore, the Committee directed that the Company pay Mr. Deese $10,000 on or about the date the Company forgave the loan to help defray any additional expenses associated with the changes.
