Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

At the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders of U.S. Bancorp (the "Company") held on April 18, 2006, the Company's shareholders approved the U.S. Bancorp 2006 Executive Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"). The Incentive Plan was approved by the Company's Board of Directors in January 2006, subject to shareholder approval, and became effective as of January 1, 2006, upon the approval of the Company's shareholders.

The Incentive Plan permits the payment of annual bonuses to eligible participants based on the Company's Net Income (as defined in the Plan). If the Company's Net Income is not a positive number, no bonus will be payable under the Incentive Plan. If the Company's Net Income is a positive number, the potential bonus award to a participant will equal up to 0.2% of Net Income, which amount is subject to decrease by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors based on its consideration of a variety of factors, including financial and non-financial criteria and corporate and individual performance.

Within the framework of the Incentive Plan, for purposes of the 2006 annual bonus performance period, the Compensation Committee established in January 2006, certain criteria, in addition to the basic Net Income requirement, that it will consider when determining whether, and to what extent, to reduce the actual bonus award below 0.2% of Net Income. These criteria include the Company's achievement of pre-established goals relating to a minimum level of earnings per share and return on equity, the Company's performance relative to its peer group and the participant's individual performance. The Incentive Plan is designed to satisfy the qualified performance-based compensation exception under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, which exception also required shareholder approval of the Plan.

The Incentive Plan is included in this filing as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. This summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Incentive Plan.
