Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 28, 2007, Access Plans USA, Inc. ("we" or the "company") entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") for the acquisition of all of the outstanding capital stock of Protective Marketing Enterprises, Inc. ("PME"). The full text of the Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1. A copy of our press release dated September 28, 2007, announcing the proposed acquisition is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, PME will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the company. The consideration for the acquisition was determined by arm's length negotiations among the parties. Prior to the entering into of the Purchase Agreement, no material relationships existed between us and PME or its parent, Protective Life Corporation ("PLC").

The purchase price, to be paid in cash, will consist of $1,075,000, plus contingent consideration of up to $250,000 to be paid if certain membership targets from existing PME business are met. The purchase price is, however, subject to adjustment based upon the net value of certain of PME's tangible assets at closing (a formula determined by the terms of the Purchase Agreement and not in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles). Any adjustment to the purchase price is expected to be made by December 18, 2007. At closing, we will also make a cash deposit to PLC of $125,000, representing one-half of the contingent consideration. The membership targets will be assessed at November 30, 2007. The contingent consideration will then be determined based on that assessment, by either our paying up to an additional $125,000 or by PLC returning to us all or a portion of the $125,000 deposit.

Headquartered in the Dallas area, PME offers, as a wholesaler, discount medical service products, provides back office support through its use of various operating systems, maintains a customer service facility, and develops products from both its proprietary and third party provider networks.

RISKS RELATED TO THE ACQUISITION

We face a variety of risks related to our acquisition of PME. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones facing us. Additional risks and uncertainties are described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and each of the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed since such date, and there may be additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial that may also impair our business. If any of these risks actually occur, our business could be adversely affected. In those cases, the price of our common stock could decline and our shareholders may lose all or part of their investment.

WE MAY FAIL TO REALIZE SOME OR ALL OF THE ANTICIPATED BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION.

We may fail to realize some or all of the anticipated benefits and synergies of the acquisition of PME as a result of, among other things, the failure of PME to maintain its existing marketing agreements or enter into new marketing agreements with existing or new clients. In addition, the integration of PME's business and operations with ours may take longer than anticipated, may be more costly than anticipated, and may have unanticipated adverse results relating to PME's or our existing businesses or customer base.
