Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 21, 2009, Castle Brands Inc. (the "Company") entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of September 21, 2009 (the "Asset Purchase Agreement"), with Betts & Scholl, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Betts & Scholl"), pursuant to which the Company through its subsidiary acquired the assets of Betts & Scholl. Under the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Company issued to the sellers an aggregate of 7,142,858 shares of Company common stock, which may not be sold for a period of six months from the date of issuance. In addition, the Company issued a secured promissory note (the "Note") in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $1.1 million, subject to post-closing adjustment. The Note is secured by the Betts & Scholl inventory acquired by the Company under a Security Agreement (the "Security Agreement"). The Note provides for an initial payment of $250,000 and for eight equal quarterly payments of principal and interest, with the final payment due on September 21, 2011. Interest under the note accrues at an annual rate of 0.84%, compounded quarterly. The Note contains customary events of default, which if uncured, entitle the holder to accelerate the due date of the unpaid principal amount of, and all accrued and unpaid interest on, the Note.

Betts & Scholl is a premium wine maker formed in 2003 by Master Sommelier Richard Betts and Dennis Scholl. In connection with the acquisition, Dennis Scholl joined the Company's Board of Directors, where he will serve as an independent director, and Richard Betts has joined the the Company as Vice President and head of its newly-formed Fine Wines Division.

On September 21, 2009, the Company entered into an indemnification agreement with Dennis Scholl (the "Indemnification Agreement"). The Indemnification Agreement, which is in the same form as executed by the Company's other directors, provides that the Company will indemnify Mr. Scholl to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law if he becomes a party to or is threatened with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of his service as a director of the Company. The Indemnification Agreement also provides that the Company will advance, if requested by an indemnified person, any and all expenses incurred in connection with any such proceeding, subject to reimbursement by the indemnified person should a final judicial determination be made that indemnification is not available under applicable law. The Indemnification Agreement further provides that if the Company maintains directors' and officers' liability coverage, each indemnified person shall be included in such coverage to the maximum extent of the coverage available for the Company's directors.

Copies of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Note, the Security Agreement and the Indemnification Agreement are filed herewith as Exhibits 2.1., 4.1, 4.2 and 10.1, respectively, and are incorporated by reference herein. The above description of the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Note, the Security Agreement and the Indemnification Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibits.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference herein.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference herein. The shares of the Company's common stock issued under the Asset Purchase Agreement were issued in reliance on an exemption from registration afforded by Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

In connection with the closing of the Betts & Scholl acquisition, on September 21, 2009, Dennis Scholl, 53, was elected as a director of the Company. Since September 2003, Mr. Scholl has served as co-founder and managing member of Betts & Scholl, LLC. Since February 2009, Mr. Scholl has served as Miami Program Director of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, a charitable foundation. Since September, 1987, Mr. Scholl has been founder and vice president of Morada Ventures, a firm engaged in real estate development and venture capital investment in the technology and pharmaceutical industries.
