PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Westwood One, Inc. (the Company) has determined that is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 (the Form 10-K) by its prescribed due date (today). As previously disclosed in an 8-K filed with the SEC on March 6, 2009, the Company recently entered into an agreement in principle with its existing debt holders on terms to restructure all of the Company's debt.

For several months (and in particular, the last several weeks), the Company's staff and resources have been substantially committed to the negotiation of the debt and equity term sheets related to the refinancing and the due diligence efforts associated therewith, which have had an impact on the Company's ability to complete and perform a thorough review of its Form 10-K. The Company believes filing this Form 12b-25 is a prudent step given its ongoing refinancing process, and certain analyses being undertaken in connection with such transaction. The Company intends to file its Form 10-K as promptly as practicable and in any event before March 31, 2009, the prescribed due date pursuant to this Form 12b-25.

As previously disclosed in an 8-K filed with the SEC, the Company is in default under the terms of its Credit Agreement and Note Purchase Agreement. As a result there is substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The aforementioned refinancing transaction remains subject to the negotiation of definitive documentation with the Company's debt holders and no assurance can be made that the parties will consummate the refinancing transaction.

The Company expects to report a net loss of approximately $427.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2008, which includes a fourth quarter goodwill impairment charge of approximately $224.0 million. For the year ended

December 31, 2007, the Company reported net income of $24.4 million.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS: Certain statements made in this report contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The words or phrases guidance, expect, anticipate, estimates and forecast and similar words or expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. In addition, any statements that refer to expectations or other characterizations of future events or circumstances are forward-looking statements. Various risks that could cause future results to differ from those expressed by the forward-looking statements included in this release include, but are not limited to: our ability to negotiate and execute definitive documentation of the refinancing transaction; and obtaining requisite Board, shareholder and antitrust regulatory approvals for the refinancing transaction. Other key risks are described in the Company's reports filed with the SEC, including, but not limited to, the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date of this report.
