Daily Journal Corporation (the "Company") will be unable to file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2013 within the prescribed time frame because the Company requires additional time to complete its assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and the related audit.

Due to a significant increase in the Company's stock price in 2013, the Company no longer qualifies as a smaller reporting company and is now an accelerated filer for the first time. Accordingly, this is the first fiscal year for which an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting is required, and this is the first year that the filing deadline for the Company's Form 10-K has been shortened from 90 days to 75 days following the end of the fiscal year.

The Company expects the assessment and audit to be completed in time for the Company to file its Form 10-K no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the due date.
