Report of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors and Stockholders of Hudson Pacific Properties, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statements of revenues and certain expenses (as defined in Note 1) of Rincon Center JV LLC (the "Company"), for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009. These statements of revenues and certain expenses are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of revenues and certain expenses is free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement, assessing the accounting principles used, and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying statements of revenues and certain expenses of the Company were prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for inclusion in the Current Report on Form 8-K/A of Hudson Pacific Properties, Inc. as described in Note 1, and are not intended to be a complete presentation of the revenues and expenses of the Company.

In our opinion, the statements of revenues and certain expenses referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenues and certain expenses (as defined in Note 1) of Rincon Center JV LLC for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Statements of Revenues and Certain Expenses

Years Ended December 31, 2010 and 2009

(In thousands)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying statements of revenues and certain expenses include the operations of Rincon Center (“Rincon Center”), an office building located in San Francisco, California. Rincon Center is owned by Rincon Center JV LLC (the “Company”).

The accompanying statements of revenues and certain expenses relates to the Company and has been prepared for the purpose of complying with Rule 3-14 of Regulation S-X promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Accordingly, the statements are not representative of the actual operations for the years presented as revenues and certain operating expenses, which may not be directly attributable to the revenues and expenses expected to be incurred to the future operations of the Company, have been excluded. Such items include depreciation, amortization, management fees, interest expense, interest income and amortization of above and below market leases.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes rental revenue from tenants on a straight-line basis over the lease term when collectability is reasonably assured and the tenant has taken possession or controls the physical use of the leased asset.

Tenant recoveries related to reimbursement of real estate taxes, insurance, repairs and maintenance, and other operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenses are incurred. The reimbursements are recognized and presented gross, as the Company is generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier and bears the associated credit risk.

Use of Estimates

Management has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting and disclosure of revenues and certain expenses during the reporting periods to prepare the statements of revenues and certain expenses in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Actual results could differ from those estimates

3. Minimum Future Lease Rentals

There are various lease agreements in place with tenants to lease space in the Company. As of December 31, 2010, the minimum future cash rents receivable under noncancelable operating leases in each of the next five years and thereafter are as follows:

2011	$17,162
2012	16,458
2013	13,582
2014	9,432
2015	9,181

Thereafter

14,201
$80,016

Leases generally require reimbursement of the tenant's proportional share of common area, real estate taxes and other operating expenses, which are excluded from the amounts above.

4. Tenant Concentrations

For the year ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, two tenants represented 68.5% of the Company's rental revenues.

5. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is subject to various legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of business. These matters are generally covered by insurance. Management believes that the ultimate settlement of these actions will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations.

6. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events through the date these statements of revenues and certain expenses were issued.

(D) Reflects pro forma balance sheet as of March 31, 2011 prior to giving effect to the acquisition of the remaining 49% interest in the Rincon Center joint venture and concurrent refinancing transaction.

(E) Reflects the acquisition of the remaining 49% interest in the Rincon Center joint venture. The pro forma adjustment reflects this acquisition, which has been accounted for as a redemption of the non-controlling equity interest in accordance with ASC 810 Consolidation. Concurrent to the acquisition of the 49% interest in Rincon Center, we refinanced the existing $106,000 secured loan due July 1, 2011 with a $110,000 secured loan. The $110,000 secured loan bears interest at 5.134% per annum and is due on May 1, 2018.

2. Income statement adjustments

(AA) Reflects our historical consolidated statement of operations for the three month period ended March 31, 2011 and for the year ended December 31, 2010.

(BB) Reflects the incremental impact on our pro forma results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010 from our IPO, the 2010 private placement and related formation transactions including (1) repayment of debt secured by the Sunset Gower property, the Technicolor Building and 875 Howard Street property; (2) contracted additional general and administrative expenses as a result of becoming a public company, including, but not limited to, incremental salaries including amortization of non-cash compensation expense on restricted shares issued to management and board of directors' fees and expenses; (3) expected tax expense to be incurred by our taxable REIT subsidiary for other property related income; and (4) the elimination of management fee expenses as a result of the acquisition of the Hudson Capital, LLC management company. We expect to incur additional general and administrative expenses as a result of operating as a public company, including, but not limited to, incremental salaries, board of directors' fees and expenses, directors' and officers' insurance, Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 compliance costs, and incremental audit and tax fees. In addition, this reflects the incremental impact on our pro forma results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2010 from our acquisitions of Glenborough Tierrasanta, LLC, GLB Encino, LLC, Del Amo Fashion Center Operating Company, L.L.C., Hudson Capital, LLC, the 9300 Wilshire property, the 222 Kearny property, the 10950 Washington property, and the 1455 Market property, as if these acquisitions had occurred on January 1, 2010. Further, we have included interest expense from our secured revolving credit facility balance as of December 31, 2010, as if the entire balance was outstanding on January 1, 2010. The calculation of interest expense relating to our secured revolving credit facility assumes an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2.50% and a 0.40% unused line fee. Finally, we reflected the impact of the refinancing transactions related to the Sunset Bronson and Sunset Gower media properties as if such transaction had occurred on January 1, 2010.

Edgar Filing: Hudson Pacific Properties, Inc. - Form 8-K/A

(CC) Reflects proceeds from the 2011 equity offering used to repay our secured revolving credit facility balance of $46,500 resulting in an increase in the unused line fee and decrease in interest expense as if repayment had occurred on January 1, 2010.

(DD) Reflects pro forma results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010 prior to giving effect to the acquisition of the remaining 49% interest in the Rincon Center joint venture and the concurrent refinancing transaction (see (D)).

(EE) The pro forma adjustments reflect the acquisition of 100% of the Rincon Center property for the year ended December 31, 2010 as if the property was acquired on January 1, 2010. We purchased the initial 51% of the Rincon Center property on December 16, 2010 and acquired the remaining 49% interest in the Rincon Center property in the second quarter of 2011. The results of operations prior to the allocation of income to the redeemable non-controlling interest of the Rincon Center property from December 16, 2010 to December 31, 2010 and the three months ended March 31, 2011 are reflected in our historical results of operations.

(FF) Reflects the incremental impact on our pro forma results of operations for the three months ended March, 31 2011 and the year ended December 31, 2010 as a result of (1) the income allocation to the series A preferred operating partnership units issued during June 2010 as part of our IPO and the income allocation to the series B cumulative redeemable preferred stock issued during December 2010 as part of our December 2010 secondary offering; (2) the income allocation to the unvested restricted shares issued concurrent with and subsequent to our June 2010 IPO; and (3) the income allocation to unitholders in our operating partnership. The issuance of shares in the 2011 equity offering and concurrent private placement will cause more of our pro forma net loss to be attributable to the Company and less to unitholders in our operating partnership. See Notes (AA) through (EE).
