 NOTES to CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 (UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Curtiss-Wright Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Corporation" or the "Company") is a diversified multinational manufacturing and service company that designs, manufactures, and overhauls precision components and provides highly engineered products and services to the aerospace, defense, power generation, and general industrial markets.

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Curtiss-Wright and its majority-owned subsidiaries. All intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated.

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of the Corporation have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in annual financial statements have been condensed or omitted as permitted by such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of these financial statements.

Management is required to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the accompanying financial statements. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The most significant of these estimates includes the estimate of costs to complete long-term contracts under the percentage-of-completion accounting methods, the estimate of useful lives for property, plant, and equipment, cash flow estimates used for testing the recoverability of assets, pension plan and postretirement obligation assumptions, estimates for inventory obsolescence, estimates for the valuation and useful lives of intangible assets, legal reserves, and the estimate of future environmental costs. Changes in estimates of contract sales, costs, and profits are recognized using the cumulative catch-up method of accounting. This method recognizes in the current period the cumulative effect of the changes on current and prior periods. Accordingly, the effect of the changes on future periods of contract performance is recognized as if the revised estimate had been the original estimate. In the three month periods ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, there were no individual significant changes in estimated contract costs. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been reflected in these financial statements.

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Corporation's 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of trends or of the operating results for a full year.

Recent accounting pronouncements adopted

Accounting pronouncement ASU 2015-17 - Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes was early adopted effective January 1, 2016 and accounting pronouncement ASU 2015-03 - Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs was adopted effective January 1, 2016. Both pronouncements were retrospectively adopted and, accordingly, certain amounts reported in the previous periods have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

A summary of the impact of the reclassifications as of December 31, 2015 is shown in the below table.

| Reclassifications |          |          |          |

| ASU 2014-09Revenue from contracts with customers                   | In May 2014, the FASB issued a comprehensive new revenue recognition standard which will supersede previous existing revenue recognition guidance. The standard creates a five-step model for revenue recognition that requires companies to exercise judgment when considering contract terms and relevant facts and circumstances. The five-step model includes (1) identifying the contract, (2) identifying the separate performance obligations in the contract, (3) determining the transaction price, (4) allocating the transaction price to the separate performance obligations and (5) recognizing revenue when each performance obligation has been satisfied. The standard also requires expanded disclosures surrounding revenue recognition. The standard is effective for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2017 and allows for either full retrospective or modified retrospective adoption. | The Corporation is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this standard on its Consolidated Financial Statements. |

2. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS AND ASSETS HELD FOR SALE

As part of a strategic portfolio review conducted in 2014, the Corporation had identified certain businesses it considered non-core. The Corporation considers businesses non-core when the business' products or services do not complement its existing businesses and where the long-term growth and profitability prospects are below the Corporation's expectations. In 2015, the Corporation divested all five businesses that were classified as held for sale as of December 31, 2014. The results of operations of these businesses are reported as discontinued operations within our Condensed Consolidated Statements of Earnings.

The aggregate financial results of all discontinued operations for the three months ended March 31 were as follows:

In January 2015, the Corporation sold the assets of its Aviation Ground support business for £3 million ($4 million). Net sales and loss before income taxes attributable to this business for the three months ended March 31, 2015 were $0.6 million and $(1.0) million, respectively.

During 2015, the Corporation disposed of five businesses aggregating to cash proceeds of $31 million. The divestitures resulted in aggregate pre-tax losses in excess of $17 million, and tax benefits of approximately $3.3 million. Aggregate net sales and loss before income taxes attributable to these 2015 divestitures and facility closures for the three months ended March 31, 2015 were $34.3 million and $40.1 million, respectively.

3. RECEIVABLES

Receivables primarily include amounts billed to customers, unbilled charges on long-term contracts consisting of amounts recognized as sales but not billed, and other receivables. Substantially all amounts of unbilled receivables are expected to be billed and collected within one year. An immaterial amount of unbilled receivables are subject to retainage provisions. The amount of claims and unapproved change orders within our receivables balances are immaterial.

The composition of receivables is as follows:

4. INVENTORIES

Inventoried costs contain amounts relating to long-term contracts and programs with long production cycles, a portion of which will not be realized within one year. Long-term contract inventory includes an immaterial amount of claims or other similar items subject to uncertainty concerning their determination or realization. Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market. The composition of inventories is as follows:

|                                                  | (In thousands)    |                      |

7. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Forward Foreign Exchange and Currency Option Contracts

The Corporation has foreign currency exposure primarily in the United Kingdom, Europe, and Canada. The Corporation uses financial instruments, such as forward contracts, to hedge a portion of existing and anticipated foreign currency denominated transactions. The purpose of the Corporation's foreign currency risk management program is to reduce volatility in earnings caused by exchange rate fluctuations. Guidance on accounting for derivative instruments and hedging activities requires companies to recognize all of the derivative financial instruments as either assets or liabilities at fair value in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets based upon quoted market prices for comparable instruments.

Interest Rate Risks and Related Strategies

The Corporation's primary interest rate exposure results from changes in U.S. dollar interest rates. The Corporation's policy is to manage interest cost using a mix of fixed and variable rate debt. The Corporation periodically uses interest rate swaps to manage such exposures. Under these interest rate swaps, the Corporation exchanges, at specified intervals, the difference between fixed and floating interest amounts calculated by reference to an agreed-upon notional principal amount.

For interest rate swaps designated as fair value hedges (i.e., hedges against the exposure to changes in the fair value of an asset or a liability or an identified portion thereof that is attributable to a particular risk), changes in the fair value of the interest rate swaps offset changes in the fair value of the fixed rate debt due to changes in market interest rates.

On February 5, 2016, the Corporation terminated its March 2013 and January 2012 interest rate swap agreements. As a result of the termination, the Corporation received a cash payment of $20.4 million, representing the fair value of the interest rate swaps on the date of termination. In connection with the termination, the Corporation and the counterparties released each other from all obligations under the interest rate swaps agreement, including, without limitation, the obligation to make periodic payments under such agreements. The gain on termination will be reflected as a bond premium to our notes' carrying value and amortized prospectively into interest expense over the remaining terms of the Senior Notes.

The fair value accounting guidance requires that assets and liabilities carried at fair value be classified and disclosed in one of the following three categories:

Level 1: Quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the company has the ability to access.

Level 2: Observable market based inputs or unobservable inputs that are corroborated by market data such as quoted prices, interest rates, and yield curves.

Level 3: Inputs are unobservable data points that are not corroborated by market data.

Based upon the fair value hierarchy, all of the forward foreign exchange contracts and interest rate swaps are valued at a Level 2.

Debt

The estimated fair value amounts were determined by the Corporation using available market information that is primarily based on quoted market prices for the same or similar issues as of March 31, 2016. Accordingly, all of the Corporation's debt is valued at a Level 2. The fair values described below may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, the use of different methodologies to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different estimate of fair value at the reporting date.

CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION and SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES to CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The carrying amount of the variable interest rate debt approximates fair value as the interest rates are reset periodically to reflect current market conditions.

<sup>(1)</sup> Effective for 2016, the Company adopted ASU 2015-03 - Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs requiring unamortized debt issuance costs to be presented on the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of the related debt liability. Prior year balances have been reclassified to reflect the current year presentation.

<sup>(2)</sup> In February 2016, the Company terminated its interest rate swap agreements. Upon termination of the interest rate swaps, we received $20.4 million in cash and recorded a deferred gain of $18.3 million. As of March 31, 2016 the remaining benefit of $18.0 million was recorded as an increase in the long-term debt balance and will be recognized ratably as a reduction to future interest expense over the remaining life of the related debt.

Nonrecurring measurements

As discussed in Note 2. Discontinued Operations and Assets Held For Sale, the Corporation classified certain businesses as held for sale in 2014. In accordance with the provisions of the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets guidance of FASB Codification Subtopic 360-10, the carrying amount of the disposal groups were written down to their estimated fair value, less costs to sell, resulting in an impairment charge of $40.8 million, which was included in the loss from discontinued operations before income taxes for the three months ended March 31, 2015. The fair value of the disposal groups were determined primarily by using non-binding quotes. In accordance with the fair value hierarchy, the impairment charge is classified as a Level 3 measurement as it is based on significant other unobservable inputs.

8. PENSION AND OTHER POSTRETIREMENT BENEFIT PLANS

The following table is a consolidated disclosure of all domestic and foreign defined pension plans as described in the Corporation's 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

Pension Plans

The components of net periodic pension cost for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 are as follows:

During the three months ended March 31, 2016, the Corporation made no contributions to the Curtiss-Wright Pension Plan, and does not expect to make any contributions in 2016. Contributions to the foreign benefit plans are not expected to be material in 2016.

Defined Contribution Retirement Plan

Effective January 1, 2014, all non-union employees who are not currently receiving final or career average pay benefits became eligible to receive employer contributions in the Corporation's sponsored 401(k) plan. The employer contributions include both employer match and non-elective contribution components, up to a maximum employer contribution of 6% of eligible compensation. During the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, the expense relating to the plan was $3.2 million and $4.1 million, respectively. The Corporation made $7.8 million in contributions to the plan for the first quarter of 2016, and expects to make total contributions of $12.4 million in 2016.

9. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Diluted earnings per share were computed based on the weighted-average number of shares outstanding plus all potentially dilutive common shares. A reconciliation of basic to diluted shares used in the earnings per share calculation is as follows:

|                                                                  | (In thousands) |        |

| Diluted weighted-average shares outstanding                      | 45,240         | 48,732 |

As of the period ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015, respectively, there were no stock options outstanding that were considered anti-dilutive.

10. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Corporation manages and evaluates its operations based on end markets to strengthen its ability to service customers and recognize certain organizational efficiencies. Based on this approach, the Corporation has three reportable segments: Commercial/Industrial, Defense, and Power.

The Corporation's measure of segment profit or loss is operating income. Interest expense and income taxes are not reported on an operating segment basis as they are not considered in the segments' performance evaluation by the Corporation's chief operating decision-maker, its Chief Executive Officer.

Net sales and operating income by reportable segment were as follows:

12. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Legal Proceedings

The Corporation has been named in a number of lawsuits that allege injury from exposure to asbestos. To date, the Corporation has not been found liable for or paid any material sum of money in settlement in any case. The Corporation believes its minimal use of asbestos in its past and current operations and the relatively non-friable condition of asbestos in its products makes it unlikely that it will face material liability in any asbestos litigation, whether individually or in the aggregate. The Corporation maintains insurance coverage for these potential liabilities and believes adequate coverage exists to cover any unanticipated asbestos liability.

NOTES to CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In December 2013, the Corporation, along with other unaffiliated parties, received a claim from Canadian Natural Resources Limited (CNRL) filed in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Judicial District of Calgary. The claim pertains to a January 2011 fire and explosion at a delayed coker unit at its Fort McMurray refinery that resulted in the injury of five CNRL employees, damage to property and equipment, and various forms of consequential loss, such as loss of profit, lost opportunities, and business interruption. The fire and explosion occurred when a CNRL employee bypassed certain safety controls and opened an operating coker unit. The total quantum of alleged damages arising from the incident has not been finalized, but is estimated to meet or exceed $1 billion. The Corporation maintains various forms of commercial, property and casualty, product liability, and other forms of insurance; however, such insurance may not be adequate to cover the costs associated with a judgment against us. The Corporation is currently unable to estimate an amount, or range of potential losses, if any, from this matter. The Corporation believes it has adequate legal defenses and intends to defend this matter vigorously. The Corporation's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows, could be materially affected during a future fiscal quarter or fiscal year by unfavorable developments or outcome regarding this claim.

In addition to the CNRL litigation, the Corporation is party to a number of other legal actions and claims, none of which individually or in the aggregate, in the opinion of management, are expected to have a material effect on the Corporation's results of operations or financial position.

Letters of Credit and Other Financial Arrangements

The Corporation enters into standby letters of credit agreements and guarantees with financial institutions and customers primarily relating to guarantees of repayment, future performance on certain contracts to provide products and services, and to secure advance payments from certain international customers. At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, there were $36.0 million and $37.3 million of stand-by letters of credit outstanding, respectively, and $13.6 million and $14.7 million of bank guarantees outstanding, respectively. As of March 31, 2016, letters of credit outstanding related to discontinued operations were $2.4 million. In addition, the Corporation is required to provide the Nuclear Regulatory Commission financial assurance demonstrating its ability to cover the cost of decommissioning its Cheswick, Pennsylvania facility upon closure, though the Corporation does not intend to close this facility. The Corporation has provided this financial assurance in the form of a $56.0 million surety bond.

AP1000 Program

Within the Corporation's Power segment, our Electro-Mechanical Division is the reactor coolant pump (RCP) supplier for the Westinghouse AP1000 nuclear power plants under construction in China and the United States. The terms of the AP1000 China and United States contracts include liquidated damage penalty provisions for failure to meet contractual delivery dates if the Corporation caused the delay and the delay was not excusable. On October 10, 2013, the Corporation received a letter from Westinghouse stating entitlements to the maximum amount of liquidated damages allowable under the AP1000 China contract of approximately $25 million. The Corporation would be liable for liquidated damages under the contract if certain contractual delivery dates were not met and if the Corporation was deemed responsible for the delay. As of March 31, 2016, the Corporation has not met certain contractual delivery dates under its AP 1000 contracts; however there are significant uncertainties as to which parties are responsible for the delays. The Corporation believes it has adequate legal defenses and intends to vigorously defend this matter.

Given the uncertainties surrounding the responsibility for the delays no accrual has been made for this matter as of March 31, 2016. The range of possible loss is $0 to $48 million.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Except for historical information, this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q may be deemed to contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: (a) projections of or statements regarding return on investment, future earnings, interest income, sales, volume, other income, earnings or loss per share, growth prospects, capital structure, and other financial terms, (b) statements of plans and objectives of management, (c) statements of future economic performance, and (d) statements of assumptions, such as economic conditions underlying other statements. Such forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "anticipates," "believes," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expects," "intend," "may," "might," "outlook," "potential," "predict," "should," "will," as well as variations of any of the foregoing or variations of such terms or comparable terminology, or by discussion of strategy. No assurance may be given that the future results described by the forward-looking statements will be achieved. While we believe these forward-looking statements are reasonable, they are only predictions and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, many of which are beyond our control, which could cause actual results, performance, or achievement to differ materially from anticipated future results, performance, or achievement expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, those described in "Item 1A. Risk Factors" of our 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K, and elsewhere in that report, those described in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and those described from time to time in our future reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q include, without limitation, those contained in Item 1. Financial Statements and Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Given these risks and uncertainties, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they were made, and we assume no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results or changes in or additions to the factors affecting such forward-looking statements.

COMPANY ORGANIZATION

Curtiss-Wright Corporation is a diversified, multinational provider of highly engineered, technologically advanced, value-added products and services to a broad range of industries which are reported through our Commercial/Industrial, Defense, and Power segments. We are positioned as a market leader across a diversified array of niche markets through engineering and technological leadership, precision manufacturing, and strong relationships with our customers. We provide products and services to a number of global markets and have achieved balanced growth through the successful application of our core competencies in engineering and precision manufacturing. Our overall strategy is to be a balanced and diversified company, less vulnerable to cycles or downturns in any one market, and to establish strong positions in profitable niche markets. Approximately 35% of our 2016 revenues are expected to be generated from defense-related markets.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (MD&A) is intended to help the reader understand the results of operations and financial condition of the Corporation for three months ended March 31, 2016. The financial information as of March 2016 should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015 contained in our Form 10-K.

The MD&A is organized into the following sections: Consolidated Statements of Earnings, Results by Business Segment, and Liquidity and Capital Resources. Our discussion will be focused on the overall results of continuing operations followed by a more detailed discussion of those results within each of our reportable segments.

Our three reportable segments are generally concentrated in a few end markets; however, each may have sales across several end markets. A market is defined as an area of demand for products and services. The sales trends for the relevant markets will be discussed throughout the MD&A.

Analytical Definitions

Throughout management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations, the terms "incremental" and "organic" are used to explain changes from period to period. The term "incremental" is used to highlight the impact acquisitions and divestitures had on the current year results. The results of operations for acquisitions are incremental for the first twelve months from the date of acquisition. Additionally, the results of operations of divested businesses are removed from the comparable prior year period for purposes of calculating "organic" or "incremental" results. The definition of "organic" excludes the effect of foreign currency translation.

Three months ended March 31, 2016 compared with three months ended March 31, 2015

Sales for the first three months of 2016 decreased $43 million to $504 million, compared with the same period in 2015. On a segment basis, sales from the Commercial/Industrial segment, Defense segment, and Power segment decreased $23 million, $8 million, and $11 million, respectively. Changes in sales by segment are discussed in further detail in the results by business segment section.

CURTISS-WRIGHT CORPORATION and SUBSIDIARIES

PART I - ITEM 2

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION and ANALYSIS of

Operating income decreased $16 million, or 21%, to $57 million, and operating margin decreased 190 basis points, to 11.4%, from the comparable prior year period. The decrease in operating income and margin is primarily attributable to lower sales volume in the Commercial/Industrial segment and $3 million of incurred restructuring costs.

Additionally, in the Power segment, the prior year period included a one-time benefit of $7 million from a termination change order on the former Progress Energy AP1000 plant.

Non-segment operating expense decreased $4 million, or 47%, to $4 million due to lower pension costs and favorable foreign exchange gains in the current period as compared to foreign exchange losses in the prior period.

Interest expense increased $1 million, or 10%, to $10 million in the first quarter of 2016, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to the termination of our interest rate swaps.

The effective tax rate decreased for the first quarter of 2016 to 31.0%, from 32.8% in the comparable prior year period. The primary driver of the decrease in the effective tax rate was enhanced manufacturing deduction in the U.S. coupled with the reinstatement of the U.S. R&D credit.

Comprehensive income in the first quarter of 2016 was $52 million, compared to comprehensive loss of $38 million in the comparable prior year period. The change was mostly due to the following:

Net earnings from continuing operations decreased $10 million to $33 million, primarily due to the lower operating income discussed above. This was more than offset by the increase in net earnings from discontinued operations which were zero in the current period as compared to a loss of $27 million in the prior period. Total net earnings increased $17 million as a result of the above.

Foreign currency translation adjustments in the first quarter of 2016 resulted in a $17 million comprehensive gain, compared to a $56 million comprehensive loss in the comparable prior year period. The foreign currency translation gains were primarily attributed to increases in the Canadian Dollar, Euro, and Swiss Franc.

Pension and postretirement adjustments within comprehensive income decreased approximately $1 million, to $2 million, due to a reduction in the amortization of prior service costs and actuarial losses.

New orders in the first quarter of 2016 was $629 million, essentially flat with that of the comparable prior year period.

Sales in the Commercial/Industrial segment are primarily generated from the commercial aerospace and general industrial markets, and to a lesser extent the defense and power generation markets.

Sales decreased $23 million, or 8%, to $275 million over the comparable prior year period. In the general industrial market, we experienced lower sales of severe service valves to energy markets of $15 million as well as a reduction in sales for industrial vehicle products. Within the commercial aerospace market, higher sales of actuation systems and sensors and control products, primarily on the Boeing 737 program, were offset by lower sales of surface technology services, most notably with Airbus.

Operating income during the first quarter of 2016, decreased $13 million, or 31%, to $30 million, and operating margin decreased 360 basis points from the comparable prior year period to 10.9%. The decrease in operating income and operating margin is primarily due to the unfavorable impact of lower sales volume discussed above. Operating income and operating margin were also impacted by restructuring costs of approximately $3 million, which we expect to produce cost savings in the second half of 2016.

New orders increased $21 million in the first quarter of 2016, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to organic growth in our valve and sensors and controls products.

Sales decreased $8 million, or 7%, to $105 million, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to lower sales of embedded computing products based on timing of production on various fighter jet and rotorcraft programs, including the V-22 and P-8 programs.

Operating income during the first quarter of 2016, decreased $1 million, or 7%, to $17 million, and operating margin increased 10 basis points from the prior year quarter to 16.0%. The decrease in organic operating income is primarily due to the unfavorable impact of lower sales volumes and unfavorable sales mix. These decreases were partially offset by favorable foreign currency translation of approximately $2 million.

New orders decreased $29 million in the first quarter of 2016, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to the timing of orders on Commercial-off-the-shelf (COTS) and embedded computing products.

Power

The following tables summarize sales, operating income and margin, and new orders, within the Power segment.

| Total            | (8 %)         | (25 %)           |

Sales in the Power segment are primarily generated from the power generation and naval defense markets.

Sales decreased $11 million, or 8%, to $123 million, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to a one-time net benefit of $10 million from a termination change order on the former Progress Energy AP1000 plant. In the current period higher production levels on the AP1000 program were partially offset by lower aftermarket sales supporting domestic nuclear reactors. Within the naval defense market, we experienced lower production levels of pumps and generators supporting the Virginia-class submarine program, primarily due to timing, and lower sales of pumps and valves on the CVN-79 as production is nearing completion.

Operating income during the first quarter of 2016, decreased $5 million, or 25%, to $15 million, and operating margin decreased 250 basis points to 11.9%. The decreases in operating income and operating margin were primarily driven by the Progress Energy AP1000 termination change order, which provided a one-time net benefit of $7 million to the comparable prior year period. This is partially offset by higher AP1000 production levels as well as the absence of reactor coolant pump testing costs which impacted the prior year period.

New orders increased $8 million, against the comparable prior year period, primarily due to organic growth in our naval defense businesses for pumps and generators.

NM- not a meaningful percentage

Defense market sales decreased $7 million, or 4%, to $175 million, from the comparable prior year period. Aerospace defense sales decreased primarily as a result of lower sales of embedded computing products based on timing of production on various fighter jet and rotorcraft programs, including the V-22 and P-8 programs, while ground defense sales were essentially flat. Naval defense market growth was primarily due to increased demand for pumps and generators supporting submarine programs as well as an increase in helicopter handling systems sales primarily the DDG-51 Destroyer program. These increases were partially offset by decreased production on the Virginia-class submarine and Ford-class aircraft carrier program.

Commercial market sales decreased $36 million, or 10%, to $329 million, from the comparable prior year period, primarily due to decreased sales in the general industrial and power generation markets. In the general industrial market, we experienced lower sales of severe service valves to energy markets of $15 million as well as a reduction in sales for industrial vehicle products. Within the power generation market, decreased sales of $14 million are primarily due to a one-time $10 million net benefit recognized in the prior year period as a result of a termination change order on the former Progress Energy AP1000 plant. In addition, lower aftermarket sales primarily supporting domestic nuclear operating reactors in the current year period contributed to the decrease in power generation sales. This was partially offset by higher production on the AP1000 program.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Sources and Use of Cash

We derive the majority of our operating cash inflow from receipts on the sale of goods and services and cash outflow for the procurement of materials and labor; cash flow is therefore subject to market fluctuations and conditions. Most of our long-term contracts allow for several billing points (progress or milestone) that provide us with cash receipts as costs are incurred throughout the project rather than upon contract completion, thereby reducing working capital requirements. In some cases, these payments can exceed the costs incurred on a project.

| Net increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents | 48,566                          | (234,522 )  |

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities increased $241 million from the comparable prior year period. The increase is primarily due to a voluntary pension contribution of $145 million made in the prior year period. The remaining increase in cash from operating activities is primarily due to higher collections in the current period and a one-time $20 million benefit as a result of the interest rate swap termination.

Net cash used in investing activities decreased $9 million from the comparable prior year period. The decrease in cash used for investing activities is primarily due to lower net cash used for acquisitions. The Corporation did not acquire any businesses during the first quarter of 2016. In the comparable prior year period, the Corporation acquired one company for approximately $13 million. Capital expenditures were essentially flat.

Financing Activities

Debt

The Corporation's debt outstanding had an average interest rate of 3.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015, respectively. The Corporation's average debt outstanding was $950 million for the three months ended March 31, 2016, as compared to $958 million in same period in the prior year.

Revolving Credit Agreement

As of the end of March 31, 2016, the Corporation had no borrowings under the 2012 Senior Unsecured Revolving Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement" or "credit facility") and $36 million in letters of credit supported by the credit facility. The unused credit available under the Credit Agreement at March 31, 2016 was $464 million, which could be borrowed without violating any of our debt covenants.

Repurchase of common stock

During the first three months of 2016, the Company used $30 million of cash to repurchase approximately 429,000 outstanding shares under its share repurchase program. During the first quarter of 2015, the Corporation used $47 million of cash to repurchase approximately 673,500 outstanding shares.

Cash Utilization

Management continually evaluates cash utilization alternatives, including share repurchases, acquisitions, and increased dividends to determine the most beneficial use of available capital resources. We believe that our cash and cash equivalents, cash flow from operations, available borrowings under the credit facility, and ability to raise additional capital through the credit markets, are sufficient to meet both the short-term and long-term capital needs of the organization.

As of the date of this report, we were in compliance with all debt agreements and credit facility covenants, including our most restrictive covenant, which is our debt to capitalization limit of 60%. The debt to capitalization limit is a measure of our indebtedness (as defined per the notes purchase agreement and credit facility) to capitalization, where capitalization equals debt plus equity, and is the same for and applies to all of our debt agreements and credit facility.

As of March 31, 2016, we had the ability to borrow additional debt of $845 million without violating our debt to capitalization covenant.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Our condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Preparation of these statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses. These estimates and assumptions are affected by the application of our accounting policies. Critical accounting policies are those that require application of management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain and may change in subsequent periods. A summary of significant accounting policies and a description of accounting policies that are considered critical may be found in our 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 25, 2016, in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, Note 1, and the Critical Accounting Policies section of Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

CURTISS WRIGHT CORPORATION and SUBSIDIARIES

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There has been no material changes in our market risk during the three months ended March 31, 2016. Information regarding market risk and market risk management policies is more fully described in item “7A.Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk” of our 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

As of March 31, 2016, our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, conducted an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Based on such evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of March 31, 2016 insofar as they are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission’s rules and forms, and they include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There have not been any changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the quarter ended March 31, 2016 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In the ordinary course of business, we and our subsidiaries are subject to various pending claims, lawsuits, and contingent liabilities. We do not believe that the disposition of any of these matters, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material effect on our consolidated financial position or results of operations.

In December 2013, the Corporation, along with other unaffiliated parties, received a claim from Canadian Natural Resources Limited (CNRL) filed in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Judicial District of Calgary. The claim pertains to a January 2011 fire and explosion at a delayed coker unit at its Fort McMurray refinery that resulted in the injury of five CNRL employees, damage to property and equipment, and various forms of consequential loss such as loss of profit, lost opportunities, and business interruption. The fire and explosion occurred when a CNRL employee bypassed certain safety controls and opened an operating coker unit. The total quantum of alleged damages arising from the incident has not been finalized, but is estimated to meet or exceed $1 billion. The Corporation maintains various forms of commercial, property and casualty, product liability, and other forms of insurance; however, such insurance may not be adequate to cover the costs associated with a judgment against us. The Corporation is currently unable to estimate an amount, or range of potential losses, if any, from this matter. The Corporation believes it has adequate legal defenses and intends to defend this matter vigorously. The Corporation's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows, could be materially affected during a future fiscal quarter or fiscal year by unfavorable developments or outcome regarding this claim.

We or our subsidiaries have been named in a number of lawsuits that allege injury from exposure to asbestos. To date, neither we nor our subsidiaries have been found liable or paid any material sum of money in settlement in any case. We believe that the minimal use of asbestos in our past and current operations and the relatively non-friable condition of asbestos in our products makes it unlikely that we will face material liability in any asbestos litigation, whether individually or in the aggregate. We maintain insurance coverage for these potential liabilities and believe adequate coverage exists to cover any unanticipated asbestos liability.

Item 1A. RISK FACTORS

There has been no material changes in our Risk Factors during the three months ended March 31, 2016. Information regarding our Risk Factors is more fully described in Item "1A. Risk Factors" of our 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

The following table provides information about our repurchase of equity securities that are registered by us pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, during the quarter ended March 31, 2016.
