NATIONAL GRID BOARD APPOINTMENTS

National Grid plc today announces two new Board appointments.

Mark Fairbairn will be appointed as an Executive Director from 1 January 2007 and will join the group Executive Committee with immediate effect.

Mark, currently Chief Operating Officer of UK Gas Distribution, has considerable experience in the UK gas and electricity industry, having run the national control centre and been awarded an OBE for his services to the industry around the implementation of the new electricity wholesale market. As COO of the UK gas distribution business for the last three years, he has played a key role in helping to restructure the UK gas distribution market through the gas networks sale and the creation of National Grid's new gas distribution business.

Linda Adamany will join the Board as a non-executive director, with effect from 1 November 2006.

Linda is a Group Vice President of BP Refining and Marketing, based in London. She has over 25 years experience in the energy sector, having held various roles for BP in the UK and the US, including Chief Executive of BP Shipping. Linda is a qualified accountant and US citizen.

Commenting on the appointments, Sir John Parker, Chairman of National Grid said: I am very pleased to announce Mark's promotion to the Board and to welcome Linda. Their extensive knowledge and experience of energy markets will complement the strengths of our team of Directors.
