MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

Our board of directors met five times in the year ended March 31, 2003 ("Fiscal 2003"). All Directors attended all of the meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of the committees on which they served.

Our board of directors has standing audit and compensation committees. Both committees consist of Messrs. Glarner, Irish, and Kaszubinski. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Glarner and Irish are independent as defined by Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers' listing standards. Mr. Kaszubinski is not considered independent because he is employed by Cypress, which holds a significant equity position in the Company.

The Audit Committee met four times in Fiscal 2003. The Audit Committee acts under a written charter. The Report of the Audit Committee, including a description of the functions of the committee, is included as an exhibit to this Proxy Statement.

The Compensation Committee reviews and recommends to the board of directors the compensation guidelines for executive officers and other key personnel and the composition and levels of participation in incentive compensation and fringe benefits for all employees. In addition, the committee oversees administration of our 2000 Stock Option Plan as amended. No member of the Compensation Committee is or has been an officer of NVE. The Compensation Committee met once in Fiscal 2003.

We have no compensation committee interlocks—that is, none of our officers serves as a director or a compensation committee member of a company that has an officer or former officer serving on our board of directors or compensation committee.

COMPENSATION OF OUR DIRECTORS

Edgar Filing: NVE CORP /NEW/ - Form DEF 14A

Directors receive no cash compensation for their service on our board of directors. Non-employee directors automatically receive a nonqualified option to purchase 6,000 shares upon initial election and 2,000 on each reelection to the board of directors. Mr. Irish is affiliated with a consulting company which received $15,207 for services provided to us in Fiscal 2002, but he received no direct or indirect cash compensation from us in Fiscal 2003.

LIMITATION OF OUR DIRECTOR'S LIABILITY

Our bylaws provide that we indemnify our officers, directors and employees in accordance with, and to the fullest extent permitted by, the provisions of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act, as it may be amended from time to time.

Section 302A.521 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act provides that a Minnesota business corporation may indemnify any director, officer, employee or other representative of the corporation made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, by reason of the former or present official capacity (as defined) of the person, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding if certain statutory standards are met. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration or investigative proceeding, including one by or in the right of the corporation. Section 302A.521 contains detailed terms regarding such right of indemnification and reference is made thereto for a complete statement of such indemnification rights.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

EXHIBIT A AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT May 16, 2003

The Audit Committee reviews our financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors, and acts under a written charter. A copy of the Audit Committee's charter was most recently published in the proxy statement for our 2001 Annual Shareholders' Meeting. During the past year, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 added a number of provisions to federal law to strengthen the authority and responsibility of audit committees. Related rules concerning audit committee structure, membership, authority, and responsibility have been proposed by The NASDAQ Stock Market, and will be applicable to us if and when they are adopted. Those rules may require us to change the membership of our committee.

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process. Our independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of our audited financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles.

In this context, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors the audited financial statements. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90 (Audit Committee Communications). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (independence discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the Company and its management. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the independent auditors' provision of other non-audit services to us is compatible with the auditors' independence. In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on SEC Form 10-KSB for the year ended March 31, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

FEES BILLED TO COMPANY BY ERNST & YOUNG, LLP DURING FISCAL 2003:

Audit Fees

We incurred total fees of $27,000 relating to the audit of the March 31, 2003 financial statements, review of the financial statements included in our Fiscal 2003 quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB and other matters directly relating to the Fiscal 2003 audit and the filing of our report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended March 31, 2003.

All Other Fees

Fees billed to us by Ernst & Young, LLP and associated entities during Fiscal 2003 for all other non-audit services rendered to us, including tax related services, totaled $10,850.
