Item 5.03 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS;
CHANGES IN FISCAL YEAR.

Effective February 19, 2009, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of SCANA Corporation (the "Company") amended the second sentence of Article II, Section 2 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company adopted December 13, 2000 (the "Bylaws") to change the minimum share ownership requirement for Company directors from the current requirement of at least 100 shares of the Company's common stock to a requirement that directors must own a number of shares of the Company's common stock equal to the number of shares granted in the five most recent annual retainers for directors. This section of the Bylaws was further amended to provide that (a) persons serving as independent directors as of February 1, 2009 are required to meet the minimum share ownership requirement by the last day of February 2014, and persons who are subsequently elected as directors are required to meet such requirement within six years following the date of their election to the Board and (b) the Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors, or such other Board committee as the Board shall designate, has the discretion to grant a temporary waiver of such minimum share ownership requirements upon demonstration by a director that, due to a financial hardship or other good reason, he or she cannot meet the minimum share ownership requirements.
