The over-allotment option may be exercised in whole or in part at any one time prior to 5:00 p.m., Calgary time, on the day that is thirty calendar days after the closing date for the IPO. Grey Wolf utilized the proceeds from the sale of the Treasury Shares to re-pay and terminate its $35 million term loan and re-pay $1 million in inter-company debt to Abraxas. Abraxas utilized the $1 million received from Grey Wolf and the proceeds received from the sale of the Secondary Shares to re-pay outstanding debt under its $25 million bridge loan. After consummation of the offering, Abraxas' remaining debt under the bridge loan was $5.4 million, before the sale of the 3,902,360 Option Shares.
