Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Symantec Corporation (Symantec) has realigned its enterprise product groups to improve collaboration across the organization with enterprise product line leaders reporting to Enrique Salem, chief operating officer. As a result, Thomas Kendra, group president of the Security and Compliance group, is no longer serving in such capacity with Symantec effective as of February 20, 2008. He is expected to continue to provide services to Symantec through the June quarter as it completes the transition to its realigned organizational structure.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

As part of the organizational realignment discussed above, the Altiris Business Unit is being consolidated into the Security and Compliance segment. As a result, Greg Butterfield, group president of the Altiris Business Unit and interim group president of the Storage and Server Management group of Symantec is no longer serving in such capacity with Symantec effective as of February 20, 2008. He is expected to continue to provide services to Symantec through the June quarter as it completes the transition to its realigned organizational structure.
