Item 5.02.

Appointment of Officer; Departure of Officer.

On March 18, 2013, Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. ("FIS") announced that James W. Woodall has been named Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective immediately. Woodall will have enterprise-wide oversight of all aspects of FIS' financial operations, including the controllership, treasury, investor relations, financial planning and analysis and corporate development functions, in addition to FIS' capital allocation strategy.

Mr. Woodall, 43, has served as senior vice president, chief accounting officer and controller for FIS since July 2008 and was responsible for managing all FIS accounting functions including accounting policy, internal and external financial reporting, financial planning and analysis, and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance. Over the past two years, Woodall has taken on an increasingly expanded role in investor communications, capital allocation strategy, capital committee and executive committee. Mr. Woodall previously served as Vice President, Finance of Eclipsys beginning in 2007. Prior to Eclipsys, Mr. Woodall was the Executive Director and Controller of AT&T's southeast region and held finance roles of increasing responsibility since 2001. Prior to AT&T, Mr. Woodall worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers, serving technology and communications clients.

In consideration of Mr. Woodall's new role, the Company and Mr. Woodall have agreed to amend his employment agreement to provide that his base salary shall be $450,000 per year, an increase from $330,000, and that his target annual bonus shall be no less than 100% of his annual base salary, with a maximum of up to 200% of his annual base salary, an increase from 75% and 150% of such amounts at present. Mr. Woodall's target and maximum bonus will be prorated for 2013.

A copy of the related press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

As previously announced, Michael D. Hayford, until today the Corporate Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company (the "Executive"), will retire effective June 28, 2013. With the appointment of Mr. Woodall, Mr. Hayford will cease to serve as Corporate Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer effective March 18, 2013.
