WE ARE DISSATISFIED WITH THE CURRENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We are dissatisfied with the performance of the current Board. The Ramius Group, as a significant shareholder of Orthofix, has a vested financial interest in the maximization of the value of the Company's Common Stock. Our interests are aligned with the interests of all shareholders. The Ramius Group believes that requesting a special general meeting will provide the Company's shareholders an opportunity to (i) express any dissatisfaction that they may have with the current affairs of the Company and performance of the current Board and (ii) designate new directors who are committed to acting in the best interests of all shareholders.

The Ramius Group believes that the Company's shares are currently trading at a significant discount to intrinsic value. In our opinion, the discounted share price is due to, among other things, the ill-conceived and poorly-executed acquisition of Blackstone Medical ("Blackstone"), excessive corporate overhead and disappointing operating performance. We believe there is a tremendous opportunity at Orthofix to substantially increase shareholder value and to protect the long-term interests of shareholders.

We have serious concerns regarding the future performance and financial stability of Orthofix under the direction of the current Board. Orthofix faces substantial operational and financial challenges primarily resulting from the acquisition of Blackstone in August 2006 for $333 million. Despite heavy investments of capital and resources into Blackstone, operating performance has declined precipitously to a level where Blackstone now generates material operating losses and negative free cash flow. In our opinion, the acquisition was a failure from the outset. We believe management and the Board failed to properly address critical risk factors during due diligence, failed to implement and execute a viable operating plan, and, in light of the recent restructuring announcement, has once again failed to take sufficient action. The acquisition of Blackstone saddled Orthofix with a heavy debt load which has now put the Company in a precarious position. The recently announced, costly amendment to the term loan only provides some covenant leniency for the short-term. The covenants tighten in late 2009 requiring significant improvement in EBITDA or substantial reductions in total debt. In order to alleviate these issues, the Ramius Group believes Blackstone should be sold on the most favorable terms possible. To that end, the Ramius Group believes that shareholders require immediate representation on the Board to ensure that their best interests are protected.

Given the Board's history of weak oversight and poor judgment, we have serious concerns about the ability and willingness of the current Board to make the necessary structural and operational changes that we believe are required in order to improve shareholder value. The current management team and Board have put the future of Orthofix in jeopardy due to a highly-levered balance sheet and the continued deterioration of Blackstone.

The Ramius Group believes swift action to sell Blackstone and reduce corporate overhead expenses is imperative, especially in light of current market conditions. We do not believe shareholders can afford to sit idly by while shareholder value continues to sharply deteriorate. Therefore, we feel it is appropriate at this time for shareholders to take immediate action to make substantial changes to the composition of the Board. We are seeking your support to request the Company call a special general meeting of shareholders in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Antilles Code. If we are successful in our solicitation of written requests and the special general meeting of shareholders is called and held, the Ramius Group expects to present, at the special general meeting, a proposal to remove four members of the current Board, James F. Gero, Peter Hewet, Alan Milinazzo and Walter P. Von Wartburg, and to replace them with director candidates that have the appropriate skills and fortitude to implement significant changes for the benefit of all Orthofix shareholders.

THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

The Ramius Group is soliciting written requests to have the Company call the special general meeting of shareholders pursuant to the Antilles Code. The Ramius Group is furnishing this Solicitation Statement and the WHITE request card to enable you and the Company's other shareholders to support us in requesting the special general meeting be called and held. For the special general meeting to be properly requested in accordance with the Antilles Code, written requests in favor of the call of the special general meeting must be executed by the holders of not less than 10% of all votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. According to the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2008, as of November 7, 2008 there were 17,101,718 shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding. Based on such number, and the fact that the Ramius Group already owns in the aggregate 815,280 shares of Common Stock, additional written requests to call a special general meeting from holders of an aggregate of at least 894,892 shares of Common Stock will be required to request the Company to call the special general meeting. Please complete, sign and return the enclosed WHITE request card before _____, 2008. The failure to sign and return the WHITE request card will have the same effect as opposing the call of a special general meeting.

If the Ramius Group is successful in its solicitation of written requests, the Company will be required under the Antilles Code to call and hold the special general meeting. Upon receipt of the requisite number of written requests from shareholders in favor of calling a special general meeting, the Ramius Group anticipates delivering such written requests to the Company promptly. Under the Antilles Code, if the management or Board fails to comply with the request within fourteen (14) days from its receipt of such request, then the Ramius Group may proceed to convene the special general meeting. The Antilles Code also requires the Company, in complying with a request to convene a special general meeting, to provide shareholders written notice of the venue and agenda items at least twelve (12) days before the date of the special general meeting.

After the special general meeting is called, the Ramius Group intends to solicit proxies from you in support of the Proposals by sending you a notice of the special general meeting, a proxy statement and a proxy card for use therewith. At the special general meeting, the shareholders will be asked to vote "For" the Proposals.

The Ramius Group expects to request, in any future proxy solicitation relating to the special general meeting, authority (i) to initiate and vote for proposals to recess or adjourn the special general meeting for any reason and (ii) to oppose and vote against any proposal to recess or adjourn the special general meeting. The Ramius Group does not currently anticipate additional proposals on any substantive matters. Nevertheless, the Ramius Group reserves the right to either modify the Proposals or cause additional proposals to be identified in the notice of, and in, the proxy materials for the special general meeting. The Ramius Group is not aware of any other proposals to be brought before the special general meeting. However, should other proposals be brought before the special general meeting, the Ramius Group will vote its proxies on such matters in its discretion.

WRITTEN REQUEST PROCEDURES

Pursuant to this Solicitation Statement, Ramius is soliciting written requests from holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock to call the special general meeting. By executing a request, a shareholder is requesting the Company to call the special general meeting and designate specified persons as the shareholder's agents and is authorizing the designated agents (i) to request that the Company call the special general meeting, (ii) to set the place, date and time of the special general meeting, if held to be permissible, and (iii) to exercise all rights of the holders of shares of Common Stock incidental to calling and convening the special general meeting and causing the purposes of the authority expressly granted pursuant to the written requests to the designated agents to be carried into effect. Please note that written requests to call the special general meeting do not grant the designated agent(s) the power to vote your shares of Common Stock at the special general meeting and do not commit you to cast any vote in favor or against any proposal to be brought before the special general meeting. To vote on the matters to be brought before the special general meeting you must vote by proxy or in person at the special general meeting.

You may revoke your written request to have the Company call a special general meeting at any time before the delivery of requests from holders of shares representing in the aggregate, including shares held in the aggregate by the members of the Ramius Group, the requisite 10% vote by delivering a written revocation to the Ramius Group in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Solicitation Statement. Such a revocation must clearly state that your written request to call a special general meeting is no longer effective. Any revocation of a written request to call a special general meeting will not affect any action taken by the designated agent pursuant to the written request prior to such revocation. Although such revocation is also effective if delivered to the Secretary of the Company or to such other recipient as the Company may designate as its agent, the Ramius Group requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed or faxed to the Ramius Group, care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated, so that the Ramius Group will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when enough requests have been received from shareholders. Upon receipt of the requisite number of written requests from shareholders in favor of calling a special general meeting, the Ramius Group anticipates delivering such written requests to the Company promptly. If your shares of Common Stock are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank nominee or other institution, only it can sign a written request or revoke any request previously given with respect to your shares and only upon receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, please contact the person responsible for your account and give instructions for a WHITE request card representing your shares to be signed. The Ramius Group urges you to confirm in writing your instructions to the person responsible for your account and to provide a copy of such instructions to the Ramius Group in care of Innisfree M&A Incorporated at the address set forth on the back cover of this Solicitation Statement so that the Ramius Group will be aware of all instructions given and can attempt to ensure that such instructions are followed.

In addition to the use of the mails, requests may be solicited by the Ramius Group by telephone, telegram, and personal solicitation. Following the special general meeting, the Ramius Group will request that the Board approve a reimbursement of such expenses. The Ramius Group does not currently intend to submit such matter to a vote of the Company's shareholders.
