Table of Contents*KIRKLAND S, INC.*NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)*Note 1 Basis of Presentation

Kirkland s, Inc. (the Company ) is a specialty retailer of home décor with 292 stores in 32 states as of May 2, 2009. The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the accounts of Kirkland s, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Kirkland s Stores, Inc. and Kirklands.com, Inc. Significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, including normal recurring adjustments, considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements included in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 20, 2009.

It should be understood that accounting measurements at interim dates inherently involve greater reliance on estimates than those at fiscal year end. In addition, because of seasonality factors, the results of the Company s operations for the 13-week period ended May 2, 2009, are not indicative of the results to be expected for any other interim period or for the entire fiscal year. The Company s fiscal year ends on the Saturday closest to January 31, resulting in years of either 52 or 53 weeks. All references to a fiscal year refer to the fiscal year ending on the Saturday closest to January 31 of the following year.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions used.

Changes in estimates are recognized in the period when new information becomes available to management. Areas where the nature of the estimate makes it reasonably possible that actual results could materially differ from amounts estimated include: impairment assessments on long-lived assets, inventory reserves, self-insurance reserves, income tax liabilities, stock-based compensation, gift certificate and gift card breakage, customer loyalty program accruals and contingent liabilities.

Note 2 Income Taxes

Effective Tax Rate The Company calculates its annual effective tax rate in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. The seasonality of the Company s business is such that the Company expects to offset losses or minimal profits in the early periods of the fiscal year with the largest portion of earnings occurring in the fourth quarter of the year. For the 13-week period ended May 2, 2009, the Company recorded an income tax provision of 14.4% of income before income taxes. This rate differs from the statutory federal income tax rate primarily as a result of a reduction in the Company s valuation allowance against deferred tax assets which resulted in a reduction of income tax expense by approximately $1.0 million during the 13-week period ended May 2, 2009. The Company did not record an income tax benefit for the 13-week period ended May 3, 2008 as a result of the Company s determination at that point in time that it was more likely than not that the benefit would not be realized.

The Company records income tax liabilities utilizing known obligations and estimates of potential obligations. A deferred tax asset or liability is recognized whenever there are future tax effects from existing temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. The Company records a valuation allowance to reduce deferred tax assets to the balance that is more likely than not to be realized. We must make estimates and judgments on future taxable income, considering feasible tax planning strategies and taking into account existing facts and circumstances, to determine the proper valuation allowance. When we determine that deferred tax assets could be realized in greater or lesser amounts than recorded, the asset balance and income statement reflects the change in the period such determination is made. Due to changes in facts and circumstances and the estimates and judgments that are involved in determining the proper valuation allowance, differences between actual future events and prior estimates and judgments could result in adjustments to this valuation allowance. We use an estimate of our annual effective tax rate at each interim period based on the facts and circumstances available at that time while the actual effective tax rate is calculated at year-end.

The Company provides for uncertain tax positions and the related interest and penalties, if any, based upon management's assessment of whether a tax benefit is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Company recognizes interest and penalties accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. To the extent the Company prevails in matters for which a liability for an unrecognized tax benefit is established or is required to pay amounts in excess of the liability, the Company's effective tax rate in a given financial statement period may be affected.

Note 3 Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during each period presented, which excludes non-vested restricted stock. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of shares outstanding plus the dilutive effect of stock equivalents outstanding during the applicable periods using the treasury stock method. The diluted loss per share amount for the 13-week period ended May 3, 2008 has been calculated using the same denominator as used in the basic loss per share calculation as the inclusion of dilutive securities in the denominator would have been anti-dilutive.

Note 4 Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is party to pending legal proceedings and claims. Although the outcome of such proceedings and claims cannot be determined with certainty, the Company's management is of the opinion that it is remote that these proceedings and claims will have a material effect on the financial condition, operating results or cash flows of the Company.

Note 5 Assets Held for Sale

At May 2, 2008, the Company owned a building and land in Jackson, Tennessee formerly used as its corporate headquarters which was idle and met the criteria in FASB Statement No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, to be classified as held for sale. As a result, the estimated net realizable value of the land and building that was held for sale was separately presented in the consolidated balance sheet at May 2, 2008. During the third quarter of fiscal 2008, the Company sold the building and land receiving net proceeds of approximately $2.8 million.

Note 6 Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In fiscal 2008, we adopted SFAS 157, Fair Value Measurements, which provides a common definition of fair value, establishes a uniform framework for measuring fair value and requires expanded disclosures about fair value measurements. Pursuant to FASB Staff Position No. FAS 157-2, Effective Date of FASB Statement 157, or FSP 157-2, we adopted SFAS 157 as it relates to non-financial assets and liabilities on February 1, 2009. The adoption of FSP 157-2 did not have a material impact on our financial statements at May 2, 2009.

Table of Contents

Net sales. Net sales decreased by 0.9% to $83.3 million for the first fiscal quarter of 2009 from $84.1 million for the prior year period. The net sales decrease resulted primarily from the decrease in store count, partially offset by an increase in comparable stores sales. We opened 3 new stores during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and 3 new stores in fiscal 2008, and we closed 10 stores during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and 39 stores in fiscal 2008. During the first quarter of fiscal 2009, comparable store sales increased 5.2% as compared to a 4.3% increase in the prior year period. Comparable store sales in our mall store locations were up 8.2% for the first quarter, while comparable store sales for our off-mall store locations were up 4.2%. The comparable store sales increase was primarily due to a slight increase in customer traffic coupled with an increase in the average ticket. The average ticket reflected an increase in the average retail selling price offset by a slight decrease in the items per transaction. The strongest performing categories were decorative accessories, wall décor, frames and gifts.

Gross profit. Gross profit increased $5.3 million, or 19.6%, to $32.2 million for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 from $26.9 million in the prior year period. Gross profit expressed as a percentage of total revenue increased to 38.6% for the first quarter of fiscal 2009, from 32.0% in the prior year period. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of total revenue was primarily driven by improved merchandise margins which increased from 51.6% in the first quarter of fiscal 2008 to 54.6% in the first quarter of fiscal 2009. Merchandise margin is calculated as net sales minus product cost of sales and inventory shrinkage. Merchandise margin excludes outbound freight, store occupancy and central distribution costs. The increase in merchandise margin was the result of higher initial markups and fewer markdowns. Initial markups increased primarily due to significantly lower ocean freight costs. Store occupancy costs also decreased as a percentage of net sales. This decline resulted from favorable lease renewal terms, comparable store sales leverage, the closure of underperforming stores, and our continued shift to less costly but more productive off-mall real estate locations. Outbound freight costs decreased as a percentage of sales reflecting a decline in diesel costs, the shift of two markets to more efficient direct-to-store delivery methods, and leverage from the comparable store sales increase.

Compensation and benefits. At the store-level, the compensation and benefits expense ratio decreased for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 as compared to the first quarter of 2008 primarily due to the positive comparable store sales performance. At the corporate level, the compensation and benefits ratio increased for the first quarter of 2009 as compared to the first quarter of 2008 primarily due to higher bonus accruals and increased health insurance costs.

Other operating expenses. The decrease in these operating expenses as a percentage of net sales was primarily the result of the positive comparable store sales performance and the leveraging effect on the fixed components of store and corporate operating expenses.

Depreciation and amortization. The decrease in depreciation and amortization as a percentage of sales reflects the large reduction in capital expenditures during fiscal 2008, impairment charges taken in prior periods, and the decline in overall store count.

Income tax provision. We recorded income tax expense of approximately $583,000, or 14.4% of pretax income during the first quarter of fiscal 2009, versus zero tax expense recorded in the prior year quarter. Based on the first quarter results of fiscal 2009, we anticipate generating sufficient ordinary income during fiscal 2009 to allow us to reverse the remaining valuation allowance that is recorded related to our deferred tax assets. Our effective tax rate of 14.4% for the first quarter takes into account the reversal of this remaining valuation allowance, and had the impact of reducing the expense by approximately $1.0 million during the quarter. The ultimate effective rate that is recorded for fiscal 2009 will depend on our operating performance for the remaining three quarters of the year.

Net income and earnings per share. As a result of the foregoing, we reported net income of $3.5 million, or $0.17 per diluted share, for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 as compared to a net loss of $(2.6) million, or $(0.13) per share, for the first quarter of fiscal 2008.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our principal capital requirements are for working capital and capital expenditures. Working capital consists mainly of merchandise inventories offset by accounts payable, which typically reach their peak by the end of the third quarter of each fiscal year. Capital expenditures primarily relate to new store openings; existing store expansions, remodels or relocations; and purchases of equipment or information technology assets for our stores, distribution facilities or corporate headquarters. Historically, we have funded our working capital and capital expenditure requirements with internally generated cash and borrowings under our credit facility.

Cash flows from operating activities. Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities was $(3.1) million and $260,000 for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008, respectively. Cash flows from operating activities depend heavily on operating performance, changes in working capital and the timing and amount of payments for income taxes. The change in the amount of cash from operations as compared to the prior year period was primarily the result of increased earnings offset by cash tax payments during the first quarter of fiscal 2009, as compared to income tax refunds received in the prior year quarter. Inventories increased approximately $332,000 during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and 2008. Inventories averaged approximately $134,000 per store at May 2, 2009, as compared to $128,000 per store at May 3, 2008. The increase on a per-store basis is primarily due to an increase in the average square footage per store. Accounts payable increased approximately $936,000 during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 as compared to a decrease of approximately $515,000 for the prior year period. The change in accounts payable is primarily due to the timing and amount of merchandise receipt flow. We also made cash tax payments of approximately $5.6 million during the first quarter of fiscal 2009 whereas we received an income tax refund of approximately $2.0 million in the prior-year quarter.

Cash flows from investing activities. Net cash used in investing activities for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 consisted principally of $2.3 million in capital expenditures as compared to $1.2 million for the prior year period. These expenditures primarily related to new store construction and the purchase of new point-of-sale software. During the first quarter of fiscal 2009, we opened 3 stores. We expect that capital expenditures for all of fiscal 2009 will be approximately $9 to $10 million, primarily to fund the leasehold improvements of approximately 15 to 20 new stores and maintain our investments in existing stores, our distribution center and information technology infrastructure. As of May 2, 2009, we had lease commitments to eight new stores, which includes the three new stores opened during the first quarter of fiscal 2009. We anticipate that capital expenditures, including leasehold improvements and furniture and fixtures, and equipment for our new stores in fiscal 2009 will average approximately $400,000 to $430,000 per store. We also anticipate that we will receive landlord allowances in connection with the construction of our new stores in fiscal 2009. These allowances are reflected as a component of cash flows from operating activities within our consolidated statement of cash flows.

Cash flows from financing activities. Net cash provided by financing activities was approximately $35,000 and $21,000 for the first quarter of fiscal 2009 and fiscal 2008, respectively, and were related to the exercise of employee stock options as well as employee stock purchases.

Revolving credit facility. Effective October 4, 2004, we entered into a five-year senior secured revolving credit facility with a revolving loan limit of up to $45 million. On August 6, 2007, we entered into the First Amendment to Loan and Security Agreement (the Amendment) which provided the Company with additional availability under our borrowing base through higher advance rates on eligible inventory. As a result of the amendment, the aggregate size of the overall credit facility remained unchanged at $45 million, but the term of the facility was extended two years making the new expiration date October 4, 2011. Amounts outstanding under the amended facility, other than First In Last Out (FILO) loans, bear interest at a floating rate equal to the 60-day LIBOR rate (0.83% at May 2, 2009) plus 1.25% to 1.50% (depending on the amount of excess availability under the borrowing base). FILO loans, which apply to the first approximate $2 million borrowed at any given time, bear interest at a floating rate equal to the 60-day LIBOR rate plus 2.25% to 2.5% (depending on the amount of excess availability under the borrowing base). Additionally, we pay a quarterly fee to the bank equal to a rate of 0.2% per annum on the unused portion of the revolving line of credit. Borrowings under the facility are collateralized by substantially all of our assets and guaranteed by our subsidiaries. The maximum availability under the credit facility is limited by a borrowing base formula, which consists of a percentage of eligible inventory and receivables less reserves. The facility also contains provisions that could result in changes to the presented terms or the acceleration of maturity. Circumstances that could lead to such changes or acceleration include a material adverse change in the business or an event of default under the credit agreement. The facility has one financial covenant that requires the Company to maintain excess availability under the borrowing base, as defined in the credit agreement, of at least $3.0 to $4.5 million depending on the size of the borrowing base, at all times.

As of May 2, 2009, we were in compliance with the covenants in the facility and there were no outstanding borrowings under the credit facility, with approximately $21.7 million available for borrowing (net of the availability block as described above).

At May 2, 2009, our balance of cash and cash equivalents was approximately $31.1 million and the borrowing availability under our facility was $21.7 million (net of the availability block as described above). We believe that the combination of our cash balances, line of credit availability and cash flow from operations will be sufficient to fund our planned capital expenditures and working capital requirements for at least the next twelve months.
